Republican State Convention.

The Republicans of the State of Pennsylvania are hereby requested to assemble by their delegates in State convention, at noon on Wednesday, the 26th day of May, 1875, in the Fulton Opera House, at the city of Lancaster, for the purpose of nominating candidates for Governor and State Treasurer. Each Representative and Senatorial District will be entitled to the same representation as at has under the present apportionment for Senators and Representatives in the Legislature.

RUSSELL ERRETT, Chairman. A. WILSON NORRIS, Secretary.

The State Treasury.

HARRISBURG, April 22, 1875. The sub-committee of the House of Representatives to investigate the State Treasury met at the office of the State Treasurer to-day at three o'clock, and were informed by State Treasurer Mackey that as members of the Legislature they were at liberty to make an investigation to satisfy themselves and the public as to the integrity of the Treasurer, on condition if they found the Treasury intact they would give him a certificate to that effect. He denied their right as a committee, and would not allow any outside party designated by the committee to make an examination. The chairman said they could only act as a committee, and withdrew for consultation.

The Philadelphia Press devotes an editorial to the enumeration of reasons why Governor Hartranft should be re-nominated. It is the usage of the party to give a second term; he has earned it; he is a soldier, and rendered good service in the army; and finally has experience. On this point, the Press observes: "The Governor has generally been forced to call into his confidence, as advisers, men outside of those provided for him by the Constitution. The next Governor may stand in a very embarrassing position in this regard. The November elections have given him a Cabinet partially Democratic, while the late Constitutional Convention has enlarged their powers and position. These new officers may have power to embarrass or hamper the Executive, and at such a crisis as this we want to take no risks under the untold workings of a new document. Our domestic troubles in the coal regions bring the reflection home with power at this very moment. We want an experienced Executive at the helm of the Commonwealth for the next few years, and no new hand, however promising or respectable."

N. H. McCormick, Esq., eldest son of Hon. R. S. McCormick, died suddenly in this city on Thursday last. He was, unfortunately, addicted to the use of strong drink, and on the day mentioned became very much intoxicated. About three o'clock he started to go to the brewery, in the Third Ward, and in attempting to walk across a plank over a small creek, missed his footing and fell into the stream. He was taken out by a man who noticed the accident, and conveyed to a house near by, where he laid down, and in a few moments seemed to be asleep. In a short time a relative came to see him, and discovered that he was in a dying condition. A physician was sent for, but before his arrival death ensued.

Coroner G. S. Snowden empaneled a jury and held an inquest on Thursday evening, returning a verdict to the effect that death was caused by congestion of the lungs. The funeral took place on Saturday, and was attended by a large concourse of friends, including members of the Venango County Bar, of which deceased was a member. The family and relatives of the deceased have the sympathy of the entire community in their sad affliction.—Venango Citizen.

In the Brookville Republican we find the following items: On Friday last G. W. Spencer was confined in jail, on a charge of causing the death of a Prussian named Brunner, at Reynoldsville.

It appears that Spencer struck Brunner on the head with a heavy poker at the St. Charles Hotel some six weeks ago, knocking him insensible, in which state he remained for several hours, but that he finally so far recovered as to be able to attend to his work again, and that nothing serious was apprehended until week before last, when he complained of a severe pain in his head, which increased and finally resulted in insanity and death, the latter taking place on Sunday, the 11th inst. A coroner's inquest was held, and the facts developed about in accordance with the above statement.

A warrant was issued for the apprehension of Spencer, and Constable E. Neff made the arrest at Big Run on Friday morning, conducting the prisoner to Reynoldsville, where he was taken in charge by Sheriff Barr.

On Friday night last John C. Ogden, a young man about 18 years of age, residing at Blaireville Intersection, met with an accident on the railroad, which has terminated in his death. He is a son of the hotel keeper at that place, and lately had been learning the art of telegraphing, under the instruction of a son of Mr. William Adams, of Franklin Borough, and who is resident operator there. It appears that young Ogden concluded to pay a visit to Bolivar, and jumped on the Third Philadelphia Freight, coming east, for the purpose of riding that far. By the time the train proceeded about half a mile he either changed his mind and jumped off, or accidentally fell from the car on which he was riding, as ten minutes after the train passed the point where he was found another freight train going west stopped and picked him up, a signal having been made by him with his hat.

It was discovered that both of his legs were badly crushed by the wheels of the cars passing over them. One of them was terribly mutilated from the ankle to near the thigh, and the other was cut off just below the knee. Everything possible was done to relieve his suffering, but the shock to his system was so great that reaction did not set in, and he died the next morning. He was a cousin of Judge Taylor's family of this place.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY AND DAILY FOR 1875.

The approach of the Presidential election gives unusual importance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully, and fearlessly.

THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained a circulation of over seventy thousand copies. Its readers are scattered over State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not only endeavor to keep it fully up to the old standard, but to improve and add to its variety and power.

THE WEEKLY SUN will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner.

It is our aim to make the Weekly Sun the best paper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and profitable reading of every sort, but will print nothing to offend the most scrupulous and delicate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and romances of the day, carefully selected and legibly presented.

The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the Weekly Sun is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation, contenting for principle, and for the election of the best man. It exposes the corruption that disgraces the country, and threatens the overthrow of republican institutions. It has no fear of knives, and seeks no favors from their supporters.

The price of the Weekly Sun is one dollar a year for a sheet of eight pages, and fifty-six columns. As this barely pays the expenses of paper and printing, we are not able to make any discount, or allow any premium to friends who may make special efforts to extend its circulation. Under the new law, which requires payment of postage in advance, one dollar a year, with twenty cents the cost of prepaid postage added, is the rate of subscription. It is not necessary to get up in order to have the Weekly Sun at this rate. Anyone who sends one dollar and twenty cents will get the paper, post-paid, for a year.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty-six columns. Only $1.20 a year, postage prepaid. No discounts from this rate.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four-page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription, postage prepaid 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent.

PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL

A POLITICAL, LITERARY, COMMERCIAL AND GENERAL NEWS-PAPER. Devoted to the Best Interests of the People.

IN POLITICS.

The COMMERCIAL will hereafter, as heretofore, be devoted to the support of Republican principles, maintaining its independence within the Republican Party, and claiming the right at all times to speak freely and fearlessly on the merits of men and measures. Party government is essential to a constitutional country, and journals claiming to be independent of party are usually independent of principle. Faithful to the great convictions and aims upon which the Republican Party was based, it is the mouthpiece of an elite or faction, supporting the party solely because it believes that party is founded on principles of right and justice.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

Of the COMMERCIAL will contain, from day to day, contributions from able writers upon all subjects—Political, Literary, Scientific, Local, Commercial, Foreign and Local—in which its views will be set forth plainly and independently, keeping in view the prime aim of the paper, which is the advancement of the best interests of all sections of the country.

ITS NEWS DEPARTMENTS

Will always contain brief but accurate reports of all the occurrences of the day. Liberal expenditures will be made in securing special telegrams and correspondence from the great news centers of the country, so that readers of the Commercial can always rely on being served with early and reliable news. In the department devoted to the publication of Local News will be found a complete daily history of the city and its environs, gathered by a corps of careful writers and set forth in attractive style.

THE MARKETS

Will, as heretofore, receive careful attention. Full telegraphic reports of the State of Business, with Prices Current, will be received daily from the Trade Centers of this country and Europe. The Pittsburgh Market, in all its branches, will be reported fully and accurately. As a commercial journal the Commercial stands second to no paper in the country.

The Financial Column will give daily the ruling rates for money, and the prices of Stocks and Bonds at all the great trading points, with much interesting statistical matter.
