School Directors' Convention.

Pursuant to notice given in the county papers, the School Directors of the county met in the Arbitration afternoon. Nearly, if not quite every try. election district in the county was represented.

The convention was called to order by Superintendent Robrer, who stated the object of the meeting to be to fix the salary of, and to elect a County Superintendent of Schools for the ensuing three years.

S. H. Haslet was elected Chairman of the Convention, and D. W. Clark and G. W. Robinson Secretaries.

The question of Salary was called up, and after a short discussion $500 the county superintendent for the paratus. term of office-three years. About three-fourths of the directors voted in favor of this figure.

Nominations were next in order. and S. F. Robrer, H. S. Brockway, J. K. Shadman and Rev. O. B. Clark was withdrawn before the first ballot come out. was taken.

Certificates showing the eligibility of the candidates were called for, and were duly exhibited.

15 votes, Brockway 11, and Shadman 7. Mr. Shadman's name was then withdrawn.

On the second ballot Brockway had 17 votes, and Robrer 16. Mr. Brockway was declared duly elected. Adjourned sine die.

- From our Pittsburgh correspondence of last week we extract the following:

"At Verona Junction the A. V. R. R. Co. has crected a large round house, with a capacity for fifty engines. The foundations have also been laid for all the various shops for building and repairing both engines and cars. From this point the Plum Creek Branch of the A. V. R.
