The Republican voters of Forest County will meet at the usual places for holding the primary elections, SATURDAY, AUGUST, 7, 1876.

at 2 o'clock P. M., to nominate as follows:

- One person for Associate Judge.
One person for Sheriff.
One person for Prothonotary, Register, Recorder and Clerk of Courts.
Two persons for County Commissioner.
Two persons for County Auditor.
One person for County Surveyor.
One person for Jury Commissioner.

The polls will remain open until 7 o'clock p. m. Each township will elect and return one person as a member of the County Committee for the ensuing year.

The meeting of the Return Judges will be held at the Court House on the Tuesday following, to-wit: the 10th day of August, 1876, at 2 o'clock, P. M. W. P. MERCILLOTT, Chairman.

The Philadelphia Times, which leans Democracyward, thus honestly speaks of the New Hampshire counting-out outrage: "Wrong is wrong, and fraud is fraud, no matter what technicalities throw their guise over them. It is not doubted that Mr. Head, the Republican candidate for Senator, was honestly elected by a majority of the people who, in voting for "Natt" instead of Nathaniel, well knew for whom the votes were cast. It is pretty clear that the New Hampshire Democratic leaders, who are running this fraud, don't count much on Democratic ascendancy in that State in the future, for they are making the success of their party next to impossible hereafter." Will the Post read and remember?

Democracy appears to be under the controlling influence of the old Bourbon rieg of the South. Unless it breaks from that control the principal plank in its platform for 1876 will be the old States' rights doctrine. The political battle will be fought on that issue, and the dividing line between the two parties will be plain enough for a blind man to see. We have no fear of the result. Democracy will find that the people who went through four years of war to destroy the fruits of that fatal doctrine are not willing to accept without protest the doctrine itself. Bourbon Democracy may do for Texas, but the country at large wants none of it.—Venango Citizen.

Says the Washington Chronicle of yesterday: "Tranquillity at home; at peace with all the world; nearly $900,000,000 of the public debt paid in less than ten years; the San Juan boundary question settled in our favor; $15,000,000 of British gold in our hands for the depredations of the Alabama; an honorable and prompt settlement of the Virginia affair; a home-growth unsurpassed in our past history; an Eldorado of gold discovered in the Black Hills; Captain Jack and his Modoc band a thing of the past, and Boss Tweed resting from his piratical labors; yet Democracy is not happy. We despair of pleasing them."

John C. Breckenridge is dead, and the Democratic papers are eulogizing him. It may truthfully be said of him that he occupied positions of trust and honor—that while Vice President of the United States he conspired to destroy the Constitution he had sworn to defend, and when the rebellion broke forth in its fury he turned his back upon the Stars and Stripes and took up arms against the Government. Since the close of the war he has lived a retired life.

CLOTHING!

Best Cloths! Best Make! Best Fits!

The question in these hard times is not only "What shall we do for grub to eat?" but

"WHEREWITHAL SHALL WE BE CLOTHED?"

It is a notorious fact that in most towns and cities round about us, clothing made to order is not sold in accordance to the depreciation of other necessities of life. There is, however, an honorable exception to this rule in the person of

N. WISE, Merchant Tailor, TIDIOUTE, PA.

Who makes clothing of the very best kind, its guaranteed, from

25 to 30 Per Cent. Below

the prices of other dealers in this part of the country.

WHY IS THIS THUS?

Because Mr. Wise pays no large figures for rent, as he owns the building he occupies. He does not pay a cent for water, and does his own cutting, and is not excelled in this line in Western Pennsylvania. He buys cloths for cash, thus getting a reduction on ordinary rates. He sells for cash, and thus has no bad debts to make up.

The fare is 55c. from this place to Tidioute, and at the present time, you can go up in the morning and back at 3:30, having three hours in Tidioute to select your goods and leave your orders.

Give him a trial, and you will not only save money, but will get perfect fits, and any style or quality of cloth you want.

Remember the name and place,

THE SUN.

WEEKLY AND DAILY FOR 1876.

The approach of the Presidential election gives unusual importance to the events and movements of 1876. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully, and fearlessly.

THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained a circulation of over seventy thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not only continue to keep it fully up to the standard, but to improve and add to its variety and power.

THE WEEKLY SUN will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always with trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner.

It is our aim to make the Weekly Sun the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will put nothing in it that offends the most scrupulous and delicate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and romances of the day, carefully selected and faithfully printed.

The Agricultural Department is a prominent feature in the Weekly Sun, and its articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer.

The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the Weekly Sun is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation, contending for principle, and for the election of the best man, and exposing the corruption that disgraces the country and the system of overthrust of republican institutions. It has no fear of knaves, and seeks no favors from their supporters.

The markets of every kind and the fashions are regularly reported in its columns. The price of the Weekly Sun is one dollar a year, and a sheet of eight pages, and fifty-six columns. As this barely pays the expenses of paper and printing, we are not able to make any discount or allow any premium to friends who may make special efforts to extend its circulation.

Under the new law, which requires payment of postage in advance, one dollar a year, with twenty cents the cost of prepaid postage added, is the rate of subscription. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have the Weekly Sun at this rate. Anyone who sends one dollar and twenty cents will get the paper, post-paid, for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty-six columns. Only $1.20 a year, postage prepaid. No discounts from this rate.

PITTSBURGH

COMMERCIAL

A POLITICAL, LITERARY, COMMERCIAL AND GENERAL NEWS-PAPER.

Devoted to the Best Interests of the People.

IN POLITICS,

The COMMERCIAL will hereafter, as heretofore, be devoted to the support of Republican principles, maintaining its independence within the Republican Party, and claiming the right at all times to speak freely and fearlessly on the merits of men and measures. Party government is essential to a united country, and journals claiming to be independent of party are usually independent of principle. Faithful to the great convictions and animus upon which the Republican Party was based, it is the next piece of no clique or faction, supporting the party solely because it believes that party is founded on principles of Right and Justice.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

Of the COMMERCIAL will contain, from day to day, contributions from able writers upon all subjects—Political, Literary, Scientific, Legal, Commercial, Foreign and Local—in which its views will be set forth plainly and independently, keeping in view the prime aim of the paper, which is the advancement of the best interests of all sections of the country.

ITS NEWS DEPARTMENTS

Will always contain brief but accurate reports of all the occurrences of the day. Liberal contributions will be made in securing special telegrams and correspondence from the great news centers of the country, so that readers of the Commercial can always rely on being served with early and reliable news.

In the department devoted to the publication of Local News will be found a complete daily history of the city and its environs, gathered by a corps of careful writers and set forth in attractive style.

THE MARKETS

Will, as heretofore, receive careful attention. Full telegraphic reports of the State of Business, with Prices Current, will be received daily from the Trade Centers of this country and Europe. The Pittsburgh Market, in all its branches, will be reported fully and accurately. As a commercial journal the Commercial stands second to no paper in the country.

The Financial Column will give daily the ruling rates for money, and the prices of Stocks and Bonds at all the great trading points, with much interesting statistical matter.

INTERESTING MISCELLANY,

Embracing Poems, Sketches, Incidents of Travel, etc., will find a place in the columns of the Commercial, furnishing abundance of instruction and amusement for the family circle.
