Col. Mann on Gov. Hartranft.

In renominating Gov. Hartranft at the recent Republican State Convention, Col. Mann, of Philadelphia, paid the following glowing tribute to our gallant standard-bearer:

Mr. Chairman:—There never was a time in the history of Pennsylvania that so great a necessity existed as does now to nominate the best, the truest and most trusted one as the candidate for Governor. Emboldened with a recent success, and flushed with anticipated victory, our political opponents are rejoicing over the hoped for and long prayed for defeat of the Republican party in our State, and in order to prevent such a disaster we must forego all differences and unite as one man upon the worthiest candidate that can be elected.

Happy for us there is no diversity of sentiment as to who is the truest and most worthy. This convention, animated by the feeling that exists all over the State, is prepared, without a dissenting voice, to name the candidate that meets every requirement. Whether as a gallant soldier, battling to maintain a nation's existence and exhibiting upon the crimsoned field a heroism unsurpassed, or quietly and unostentatiously serving his country in civil station, he has acquitted himself so nobly and so honorably as to deserve and receive the grateful encomiums of his countrymen.

In all the trying circumstances that surrounded one in high station he has never faltered in his efforts to advance justice and maintain the right. By a wise oversight he has protected the weak from assaults of the strong. He has shown an untiring watchfulness over the various interests and industries of the State, and has commended himself to all who have at heart the prosperity and welfare of Pennsylvania. With such an one as our candidate we advance the first step towards success by showing the people of the State that we deserve it. We consolidate our party strength, for all admit that this is the nomination to be made. All require it.

We present an united front, and with this name upon our banner we unfurl it to the breeze amid an enthusiasm that is always kindled when men rally to the support of the best and bravest. When our opponents take the field under that banner we will assemble our entire strength. We will march against them with the banner—the arriere ban—and the oriflamme displayed.

From our own fertile valleys, from our hill-sides and around our mountain tops the glad voices of Pennsylvania freemen will ratify this nomination, and when the strife begins with spirit and bitterness, as it surely will, de- traction will be powerless, for his cease its forces upon him. In his case it cannot depress; it only aids to elevate. We place the standard of the Republican party in our State in his hands. We say to him "lead on," and those who follow will march to victory. I here move to nominate by acclamation General John F. Hartranft as the Republican candidate for Governor of Pennsylvania.

—The N. Y. Tribune, which is more favorable to the Democratic party than any other, while slandering the Republicans accidentally tells a few plain truths about the Democracy as follows:

"Unhappily, wherever Democracy has been trusted to any extent, it has shown an amount of audacity and recklessness, of unscrupulous greed, of incompetency for high trusts, and disregard for public sentiment, differing from its opponents only in the degree of opportunity afforded it. There is no need to cite instances of this. In New Hampshire, Connecticut, and Pennsylvania the Democrats have had their way, and the country has witnessed their performances."

—The Pittsburgh Dispatch says: "Candidates for county offices on the Democratic ticket are springing up in unprecedented numbers on the strength of the success of last November. For the better paying positions there are indeed more aspirants in the Democratic than in the Republican ranks." The same is true in Crawford county, and Titusville Democrats are already in the field with one, at least, of their favorites for a good county office. But they may reckon without their host. Last year was an off year, a "hard times campaign," and the best Republican strongholds in this country behaved badly. This year they are likely to think better of it.—Herald.

—The political situation in New Hampshire is getting more interesting. Yesterday the Senate held a session, which resulted in a division—the Republicans withdrawing, and effecting a separate organization. This is but a legitimate result of the outrage perpetrated upon the people by the Governor and his clique, in declaring vacant the seats of two Republicans, and recognizing in their places two Democrats. The issue has thus been squarely made, and the result will be looked to all over the country with the greatest interest.

—We are informed that a highway robbery was perpetrated between Bloomington and Curwensville, this county, on Friday night, May 28th. On the evening in question, Mr. Claudius M. Bailey, of Knox township, started from home to pay some money on a purchase of land; intending that evening to go as far as J. R. Caldwell, Esq.'s, and on the following day to where he had to pay the money. At about 11 o'clock, and when within about one hundred yards of Squire Caldwell's residence, he was met by two men, one of whom threw some red pepper into his eyes, and the other knocked him down. The robbers then tied Mr. B's hands upon his back and stuck a rail between them, and thus secured, robbed him of $1,350. After somewhat recovering from the effects of the blow given him by the highwaymen, Mr. B. began to call for Mr. Caldwell, who finally heard him and came to his relief. Mr. Caldwell thinks that, but for his timely arrival the unfortunate man must have perished in an hour or two from the critical condition in which he was left by the robbers. It is to be hoped that the scoundrels may be discovered and punished as the heinousness of their offence deserves.—Clearfield Journal.

—In reply to the criticisms that have been made about the publicity that has been given to Mrs. Lincoln's insanity, the Chicago Tribune says: "Such publicity was unavoidable. Under the laws of this State no person can be committed to an insane asylum or hospital unless upon the verdict of a jury upon evidence presented in open court and in the presence of the person whose sanity is questioned, to whom the court assigns counsel, if none be selected by himself. The public trial was therefore a legal necessity."

—Judge Jenks announced in court, the day licenses were granted, that if drugged or impure liquors were sold at licensed houses, the court would at once revoke the license. All agree that would be right. But who is to tell whether there is bug juice and stychnine in the whisky or not? It is generally supposed that all the liquor sold is more or less contaminated. If the court can devise some means of preventing adulteration it will be doing a good service to the community.—Clarion Democrat.

CLOTHING!

Best Cloths! Best Make! Best Fits!

The question in these hard times is not only "What shall we do for grub to eat?" but

"WHEREWITHAL SHALL WE BE CLOTHED?"

It is a notorious fact that in most towns and cities round about us, clothing made to order is not sold in accordance to the depreciation of other necessaries of life. There is, however, an honorable exception to this rule in the person of

N. WISE, Merchant Tailor, TIDIOUTE, PA.

Who makes clothing of the very best kind, fits guaranteed, from 25 to 30 Per Cent. Below the prices of other dealers in this part of the country.

WHY IS THIS THUS?

Because last, Mr. Wise pays no large figures for rent, as he owns the building he occupies. 2d, he doesn't pay a cutting $2500 to $3000 a year, but does his own cutting, and is not exceeded in this line in Western Pennsylvania. 3d, he buys cloths for cash, thus getting a reduction on ordinary rates. 4th he sells for cash, and thus has no bad debts to make up.

The fare is 5c. from this place to Tidioute, and at the present time, you can go up in the morning and back at 3:30, having three hours in Tidioute to select your goods and leave your orders.

Give him a trial, and you will not only save money, but will get perfect fits, and any style or quality of cloth you want.

Remember the name and place, 7 1y N. WISE, Tidioute, Pa.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY AND DAILY FOR 1875.

The approach of the Presidential election gives unusual importance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully, and fearlessly.

THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained a circulation of over seventy thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not only endeavor to keep it fully up to the old standard, but to improve and add to its variety and power.

THE WEEKLY SUN will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in clear, interesting and instructive manner.

It is our aim to make the Weekly Sun the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing but the most scrupulously and delicate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and romances of the day, carefully selected and legibly printed.

The Agricultural Department is a prominent feature in the Weekly Sun, and its articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer.

The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the Weekly Sun is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation, contending for principle, and for the election of the best men. It exposes the corruption that disgraces the country and threatens the overthrow of republican institutions. It has no fear of knaves, and seeks no favors from their supporters.

The markets of every kind and the fashions are regularly reported in its columns. The price of the Weekly Sun is one dollar a year for a sheet of eight pages, and fifty-six columns. As this barely pays the expenses of paper and printing, we are not able to make any discount or allow any premium to friends who may make special efforts to extend its circulation. Under the new law, which requires payment of postage in advance, one dollar a year, with twenty cents the cost of pre-paid postage added, is the rate of subscription. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have the Weekly Sun at this rate. Anyone who sends one dollar and twenty cents will get the paper, post-paid, for a year.

We have no traveling agents. THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty-six columns. Only $1.20 a year, postage prepaid. No discounts from this rate.

THE DAILY SUN.—A large four-page newspaper of twenty-eight columns. Daily circulation over 120,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription, postage prepaid 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent.
