Republican Record.

Frank Leslie's Illustrated Paper, one of the most ultra of the Democratic journals in the country speaks of the Republican record in this wise:

"The Republican record during these fourteen years it is useless for us to discuss. It has certainly been a brilliant one. The party has carried on its shoulders a weight of responsibility never before assumed by a political party in a free republic. It has been followed by a majority of the people of the North with almost religious ardor, and the negroes of the South bless it as their almost divine emanci-

"It is impossible for an American, be he Northern or Southern, to contemplate the history of this great poof admiration, however much he may oppose the principles, and however bitterly he may suffer in consequence of its success.

This is noble testimony; and given unsolicited by a political opponent, is all the more trustworthy and emphatic. The record is of the Republican party, the party whose ascendancy has been jeopardized by the apathy and neglect of Republicans. Such a record illustrates the admirable fitness of the party to deal with the questions which 10th day of August, 1875, at 2 o'clock, bear so deeply on the country's wel- P. M.

-The New York Tribune, which is chary of praise, and seldom tells the truth about a Republican now-a-days, when the truth, so told, redounds only G. Dale, and in which he now resides, to the honor of its subject, pays a high compliment to Governor Hartranft in the following terse and foreible language: "In his three years' service in the Executive office Governor Hartranft has played a role of extraordinary difficulty, and played it so successfully as to demonstrate his possession consisting of men's, women's and chil-of great original force and a remarka- dren's underwear; Balbriggan, Iron ble genius of political management. He has fully redeemed a tainted reputation and convinced even his worst enemies that the assaults made upon his personal character in 1872 were unjust, and at the same time he has neckties, &c., &c., at the Hat Store; kept the friendship of the reckless and corrupt politicians whose schemes he has repeatedly balked. No Gov-ernor of Pennsylvania ever vetoed so many bad bills as he has done. No one ever succeeded to such a remarkable degree in attracting the virtuous element of his party by his good con-duct, and compelling that of the vicious by his skill in combinations and most approved form, for sale at this in controlling men. Govs. Curtin and office.

Geary had to struggle hard for their renomination, but Gov. Hartranft se cured his without an effort. That cir-cumstance, if nothing else, proves him to be a man of talent and resources."

-On page 112 of the Pamphlet Laws of Pennsylvania, passed and approved in 1874, will be found an act requiring the Auditors of the several townships and boroughs of this Commonwealth to meet on the first Monday of June of each year, to audit, settle and adjust the accounts of the supervisors, road commissioners, school, borough and township treasurers. The second section of the act requires these Auditors to publish, by printed or written handbills, posted in five public places within their respective townships or boroughs, an itemized annual statement of the receipts and expenditures of their township or borough, and to file a copy of the same with the clerk of their respective districts and also with the Clerk of the Court of Quarter Sessions. The penalty for neglecting this duty is a fine of twenty dollars upon each Auditor.

-Here is that cut-worm preventative. The Uniontown Genius says: Ellis B. Woodward, of Menallen township, informs us that alder leaves, or leaves from the wild cherry tree, strewn through a corn-field in bunches, say twenty-five feet apart, is a sure preventative against the cut-worm cutting off the corn. He says he has tried it for thirty-three years, and never knew the remedy to fail in a single instance. Mr. Woodward alleges that he has frequently tried the experiment in his corn-field about the time the cut worm was making the attack on his corn, when they would shortly gather on and under the bunch of leaves, where they can be killed by the hundred. Mr. W. vouches for the truth of the above, having frequently tried the remedy, and it never failed in producing the desired result.

-Gen. Spinner's approaching retirement from the Treasurer's office is calling out the tributes his long and faithful service deserved. The St. Louis Republican says: "Francis E. Spinner has been Treasurer of the United States for 14 years. In that capacity he has been the guardian and distributor of more money than probably ever passed through the hands of a single man since money was invented. And not a single cent has ever stuck to his fingers. So faithful has he been to his great trust, that not even in the hottest periods of po-litical antagonism, or the darkest periods of popular suspicion, has a breath of slauder sullied the fair mirror of

Tionesta, Pa. CLOTHING!

Best Cloths! Best Make! Best Fits!

The question in these hard times is not only "What shall we do for grub to eat?"

"WHEREWITHAL SHALL WE BE CLOTHED?"

It is a notorious fact that in most towns and cities round about us, clothing made to order is not sold in accordance to the depreciation of other necessaries of life. There is, however, an honorable exception to this rute in the person of

N. WISE, Merchant Tailor, TIDIOUTE, PA.,

Who makes clothing of the very best kind, fits guaranteed, from 25 to 30 Per Cent. Below the prices of other dealers in this part of the country.

WHY IS THIS THUS?

Because 1st, Mr. Wise pays no large figures for rent, as he owns the building he occupies. 2d, he doesn't pay a cutter $2500 to $3000 a year, but does his own cutting, and is not excelled in this line in Western Pennsylvania. 3d, he buys cloths for cash, thus getting a reduction on ordinary rates. 4th he sells for cash, and thus has no bad debts to make up.

The fare is 55c, from this place to Tidloute, and at the present time, you can go up in the morning and back at 3:30, having three hours in Tidioute to select your goods and leave your orders.

Give him a trial, and you will not only save money, but will get perfect fits, and any style or quality of cloth: ou want.

THE SUN.

WEEKLY AND DAILY FOR 1875. The approach of the Presidential elec-tion gives unusual importance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully, and fearlessly.

THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained

a circulation of ever seventy thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not only endeavor to keep it fully up to the old standard, but to improve and add to its variety and never.

and power.

THE WEEKLY SUN will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive mana clear, interesting and instructive manner.

It is our aim to make the Weekly Sun the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing to offend the most scruptious and delicate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and romances of the day, carefully selected and legibly printed.

The Agricultural Department is a prominent feature in the Weekly Sun, and its articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer.

The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the Weekly Sun is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation, contending for principle, and for the election of the best men. It exposes the corruption that disgraces the country and threatens the everthrew of republican institutions. It has me fear of knaves, and seeks no favors from their supporters.

has no fear of knaves, and seeks no layors from their supportors.

The markets of every kind and the fastions are regularly reported in its columns.

The price of the Weekly Sun is one dellar a year for a sheet of eight pages, and fifty-six columns. As this barely pays the expenses of paper and printing, we are not able to make any discount or allow any premium to friends who may make special efforts to extend its circulation.
