"Damfino" is the euphonious title of a postoffice in the Idaho mining regions.

How Patrick proposed to get over his single blessedness—By proposing to Bridge it.

Senator Cameron's residence in Harrisburg was erected about one hundred and seven years ago.

Mr. S. L. M. Barlow, of the New York bar, has been chosen to write for the American Cyclopaedia the article on whist.

The indications are that the new census now in progress in New York will not give that city a population of over a million.

An Iowa court has decided that it is not legal for a farmer to hitch his wife up with a mule, no matter how anxious he is to plow.

Said a Detroit young woman to a bashful lover, the other day, "Matrimony is an awful long word to spell, isn't it?" That settled it.

There is a lawyer in Akron, Ohio, who, when he wishes to quote from the Mosaic law, says: "Now, your Honor, I will read from the first Egyptian reports."

"Sir," said John Henry's wife, to a gentleman treading on her dress, "you are delaying the train." "Madam," said he, "your conductor should pull the bells."

Two small boys were hauled before the Preston, (Conn.) Police Court and fined one cent each for the heinous offense of calling one Wm. Armstrong a "sunflower."

Alexander H. Stephens is to deliver the Fourth of July oration at Atlanta—or perhaps it would be more correct to say, an oration beginning on the Fourth of July.

It is a subtle remark of the discriminating Chicago Journal that "there is often just as much difference between two sisters as there is between a trailing arbutus and a horse-radish plant."

Helen M. Cooke, writing verses for a New York paper, says that kisses on her brow are the richest diadem her woman's soul aspires to wear. All right, Helen. Bring on your brow and take your diadem.—Er.

He had a jockey-style of cap on, a leather band around his waist, his trousers legs tucked inside his boots, and was aged fifteen. "Milk and spelling-matches for babies," he exclaimed, curling up his upper lip; "but as for me, gimme base ball!"

Peter McNamara, of Rochester, who thought he could mesmerize a bull by looking him in the eyes, changed his mind when he found himself on the woodshed roof a moment afterward, and saw his wife coming with a step-ladder and a club to get him down.

One of our merchants the other day, gave a boy a ten cent silver piece among some change. The youngster eyed the silver a moment, then handed it back to the dealer, saying: "Look here, mister, none of your fooling with the Dutch. You can't stick any of your old breeches buttons on me."

An old servant who had lived with Scott for nearly a lifetime, became very much spoiled. Sir Walter at last, out of patience with his sins of omission and commission, said: "Donald, I think we must part." "Part! why? where's your honor going?" Of course peace was made, and Donald remained.

An Oregon paper says: "When a young lady living on the line of the California & Oregon Railroad wants to get married, she only takes one refusal to give consent from her 'stern parents,' and then seeks her lover true with the remark: 'Smithie, old boy, I guess we'd better enter down to the gospel-shop; it's no use waiting for those idiots to become sane again.'"

Passing a house on Abbott street about six o'clock last evening, a gentleman noticed a boy hopping around and exhibiting great delight, and he paused and asked: "Why, bub, what ails you?" "Ails me?" grinned the lad; "see there, house shot up,—no supper, uam off gadding, and there comes dad around the corner. It'll be worth $50 to see the fur fly when he opens this gate!"

Miss Anna Dickinson has just sustained a loss in a court of law in New York. A secretary of a lecture bureau sued her for $500, alleged to be due him for his services in advertising and arranging her lectures. Miss Dickinson did not appear, but her sworn testimony was read, in which she denied any such contract as claimed by the plaintiff, but the jury returned a verdict against her for $282.60.

Jones went to a theatre the other evening. The play was bad, the acting worse. On all sides Jones' friends were hissing both. "You take it comfortably," said a friend to Jones. "I came in with an order, and I don't feel at liberty to express an adverse opinion," was the reply. Presently, however, Jones rose, hurriedly, indignation in every line of his face. "By Jove, I must go out and pay!" he exclaimed.

Immense Reduction to Suit the Times!!

At the Wholesale and Retail Piano and Organ Emporium of

S. HAMILTON & CO., 77 5TH AVE., PITTSBURGH, PA

OUR MOTTO IS AND HAS BEEN

QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS.

Our business is exclusively PIANOS and ORGANS, which enables us to give our whole time and attention to this exclusive trade. Thus where other dealers sell from five to ten instruments a week, our sales very often exceed these numbers in a single day, so that we can better afford to sell at 10 per cent. profit on cost, than they can at 20 and 25 per cent.

Every Instrument we sell is as good as an agent for us, as they invariably introduce us favorably to all who see them. We have sold and in use

2,000 OF THESE ORGANS

In and about Pittsburgh alone. They are not some new Organ, the growth of a few months, but are old reliable makes, that are constantly adding every meritorious improvement. The really Grand Stimmons & Clough's Combination Organs have been manufactured for Twenty-five years, while the Celebrated Taylor & Farley Celestion Organs have been manufactured over Twenty years. And now for the purpose of introducing them more thoroughly throughout all the country towns of the State, we have made new and very heavy contracts for large numbers of them, which we propose to sell on their merits, and without the assistance of AGENTS OR MIDDLE MEN, giving the purchaser the benefit of commissions and wholesale discounts, we are thus enabled to offer these Organs at the following prices, at which we shall sell for a short time.

- CABINET CASES, Double Reed, 4 Stop Organs, Regular Price, $145.00 at $ 85.00. FULL RESONANT CASES, Double Reed, 4 Stop Organs, Regular Price, $165.00 at 95.00. 2 1/2 sets Reeds 6 " Vox Humana " 215.00 at 125.00. 3 " 8 " Viola " 275.00 at 160.00.

These Organs are all Solid Walnut, Paneling and Carving all of Solid Walnut. Neither saw-dust mouldings nor cheap lacas trinkets are used on these instruments every-thing is of the very best, and are all fully warranted for five years.

THE BRADBURY & DECKER PIANOS WILL BE SOLD AT THE SAME RATES OF DISCOUNT.

The above are strictly cash prices, but if desired by the purchaser, either quarterly or semi-annual payments will be taken at an advance of 10 per cent. per annum on the above prices. Persons ordering by letter can depend on the most careful selection being made. If the cash price be sent with the order, the instrument will be shipped by freight, if not accompanied with the cash, the Organ will be shipped by Express, C. O. D. If time be desired, we require notes with good security, or at least good references.

Address for Catalogue, and state where you read this notice.

CLOTHING!

Best Cloths! Best Make! Best Fits!

The question in these hard times is not only "What shall we do for grub to eat?" but

"WHEREWITHAL SHALL WE BE CLOTHED?"

It is a notorious fact that in most towns and cities round about us, clothing made to order is not sold in accordance to the depreciation of other necessities of life. There is, however, an honorable exception to this rule in the person of

N. WISE, Merchant Tailor, TIDIOUTE, PA., Who makes clothing of the very best kind, fits guaranteed, from the prices of other dealers in this part of the country.

25 to 30 Per Cent. Below

WHY IS THIS THUS?

Because 1st, Mr. Wise pays no large figures for rent, as he owns the building he occupies. 2d, he doesn't pay a cutter $2500 to $3000 a year, but does his own cutting, and is not excelled in this line in Western Pennsylvania. 3d, he buys cloths for cash, thus getting a reduction on ordinary rates. 4th he sells for cash, and thus has no bad debts to make up.

The fare is 50c. from this place to Tidouite, and at the present time, you can go up in the morning and back at 3:30, having three hours in Tidouite to select your goods and leave your orders.

Give him a trial, and you will not only save money, but will get perfect fits, and any style or quality of cloth you want.

Remember the name and place, 71y N. WISE, Tidouite, Pa.

Testimonials of Waters' Pianos and Organs. "Waters' Concerto Parlor Organ possesses a beautiful and peculiarly soft tone. The Concerto Stop is, without doubt, the best ever placed in any organ. It is produced by an extra set of reeds, peculiarly voiced, from which the effect is most charming, and its imitation of the human voice is superb. For sweetness of tone and orchestral effects it has no equal."—N. Y. Times.

"The Concerto Parlor Organ is something entirely new; it is a beautiful parlor ornament, possesses a sweet and powerful tone is a most commendable invention and holds a high place in public favor."—N. Y. Evening Post.

AN ORCHESTRA IN THE PARLOR.—The orchestral organ is the name of a new reed organ recently announced by Horace Waters & Son. The instrument takes this name from its recently invented orchestral stop. The voicing of this is peculiar, producing the effect of a full sweet contralto voice. Its finest effect is produced when the stops are drawn, so that an orchestral effect is given. The case is unique and makes a handsome article of furniture."—N. Y. Sun.

The Waters Pianos are known as among the very best. We are enabled to speak of these instruments with confidence, from personal knowledge.—N. Y. Evangelist.
