Withdrawal.

We are requested by Mr. S. J. Zents, to withdraw his name as a candidate for County Commissioner. We would further say that we hear Mr. Zents very highly spoken of by his neighbors and acquaintances as an intelligent and honest man, who would have made a good Commissioner, had he been elected.

From all parts of the State comes the cheering news of the prospect of a grand Republican victory in November next. Even Alex. McClure's paper the Times, is forced to say, "that Pennsylvania is undoubtedly a Republican State to-day, on a full vote 'honestly polled in accordance with the political convictions of the people.'" In view of this fact, it should be the object of every earnest Republican to bring out a full vote and thus insure the success that belongs to our party.

The most reliable predictions are made from the West that the Republican ticket will be successful this Fall. Every where our party is united and determined to wipe out the stigma of last year's defeat. Democracy is exultant though badly disorganized, and some of the most prominent members of that party make open statements of their belief that the Republican ticket will be successful. In Ohio, Wisconsin, Iowa, and all through the West, the report is the same. They are Republican still, and this Fall's vote will demonstrate it.

Governor Tilden's visit to Long Branch has apparently been the means of stopping the mouths of the small fellows on the New York Democratic press, who annually regale their readers with vile charges of neglect of duty on the part of the President. The Albany Evening Journal charges that the editor of the World was closing a brilliant leader of President Grant at Long Branch, when he heard that Tilden had just departed for that retreat. The article did not appear. The style of partisan clamor answers no purpose, except to afford dull writers a thread-bare theme for Summer work.

Senator Sargent made a neat little computation in his recent speech at San Francisco. "Have you," said he, "thought, fellow citizens, that the reduction of the national debt has been $120 a minute since you have sat here and I commenced talking? Taking the average of the whole time, the reduction of the debt has gone on at that rate. Why, take your watch and look at it. See the second hand as it flies, at each tick of the second hand, $2 during the whole time since Grant's inauguration, by day and by night, upon week day and upon Sunday—$2 per second in gold has gone off the national debt." Comment is superfluous.

Democratic financing in Tennessee is thus pictured in the Louisville Courier-Journal: "The State finances are in such a condition that the propriety of calling the Legislature is much discussed; but it will hardly be convened, as it is believed by many that it would do no good. State Treasurer Morrow says the July interest cannot be paid this year, if ever. By November, when the taxes fall due, a debt of $1,000,000 in State warrants for borrowed money will accumulate, and will have to be paid. It is very doubtful whether the January, 1876, interest can be met. It is believed that the debt will finally be settled by low-rate bonds, scaling or repudiation."

On Tuesday afternoon last, Peter Schmidt, a barber, and a resident of the First Ward, of this city, was accidentally drowned in Frenchcreek, below the dam. In company with another person he went to the dam for the purpose of bathing. He took off all his clothing except an undershirt and pantaloons, and plunged head first, into the water, remaining below the surface fully one minute. He then swam to the centre of the stream and rested for an instant upon a log which projects from the dam. After leaving this position he swam only a short distance, and seemed to be struggling to prevent himself from sinking. Several boys were swimming near him, and, noticing his struggles, asked him if he needed assistance, to which he replied, "no." In a few moments, however, he was seen to sink and did not rise again to the surface. Efforts were made immediately to recover his body, but the water is very deep, and nearly an hour passed before it was brought to the surface, and taken to the shore.

Dr. S. G. Suowden, Coroner, being notified, proceeded to the spot, empaneled a jury, and held an inquest. A verdict of accidental drowning was rendered.

The deceased leaves a wife and one child to mourn his loss. The former was absent from home, visiting relatives in Clearfield.—Yenango Citizen.

The following items we take from the Clarion Jacksonian: At a celebration on the 3d inst., at Perry Chapel, in Ashland township, a disturbance ensued between some inebriated boys, in which a young man named Linnamen lost a part of one of his cheeks. We understand all parties concerned have been arrested.

On Thursday night, the first inst., the store of Mr. F. Bell, in Elk township, was entered by burglars and all the money in the drawer was stolen and several webs of cloth. After which they stole a horse from the stable of Mr. Geo. Black, but being unable to ride the horse with a curb bit, left the cloth lay in a wagon, and the horse tied thereto.

A box of boots and shoes, marked Steiner & Bartlett, Tionesta, Pa., was lost or stolen from a wagon between Newmanville and Tionesta, on the 24th day of June. Any person delivering said goods to the above mentioned firm at South Hill, or giving information where the goods may be obtained, will be liberally rewarded.

BOOK AGENTS wanted to sell "The People's Common Sense Medical Adviser." It is the cheapest book ever published; 885 pages, over 250 illustrations, $1.50. Thousands buy it at sight who could not be induced to purchase the high-priced books treating of Domestic Medicine. Unlike other books sold through agents this work is thoroughly advertised throughout North America. This fact, together with the large size, elegant appearance, and many new features of the book, causes it to sell more rapidly than any work ever published in this country. Those of my agents who have had experience in selling books, say that in all their previous canvassing they never met with such success or made so large wages, as since commencing the sale of my work. For terms and territory, address (inclosing two postage stamps and stating experience) R. V. Pierce, M. D., World's Dispensary, Buffalo, N. Y. Note.—Mark envelope "For Publishing Department." 14-4

THE SUN.

WEEKLY AND DAILY FOR 1875.

The approach of the Presidential election gives unusual importance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully, and fearlessly.

THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained a circulation of over seventy thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not only endeavor to keep it fully up to the old standard, but to improve and add to its variety and power.

THE WEEKLY SUN will continue to be thorough newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner.

It is our aim to make the Weekly Sun the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing to offend the most scrupulous and delicate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and romances of the day, carefully selected and lightly printed.

The Agricultural Department is a prominent feature in the Weekly Sun, and its articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer.

The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the Weekly Sun is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation, contending for principle, and for the election of the best men. It exposes the corruption that disgraces the country and threatens the overthrow of republican institutions. It has no fear of knaves, and seeks no favors from their supporters.

The price of the Weekly Sun is one dollar a year for a sheet of eight pages, and fifty-six columns. As this barely pays the expenses of paper and printing, we are not able to make any discount or allow any premium to friends who may make special efforts to extend its circulation.

Under the new law, which requires payment of postage in advance, one dollar a year with twenty cents the cost of prepaid postage added, is the rate of subscription. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have the Weekly Sun at this rate. Anyone who sends one dollar and twenty cents will get the paper, post-paid, for a year.

We have no traveling agents. THE WEEKLY SUN.—Eight pages, fifty-six columns. Only $1.20 a year, postage prepaid. No discounts from this rate. THE DAILY SUN.—A large four-page newspaper of twenty-eight columns, daily circulation over 100,000. All the news for 2 cents. Subscription, postage prepaid 55 cents a month, or $6.50 a year. To clubs of 10 or over, a discount of 20 per cent.

PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL

A POLITICAL, LITERARY, COMMERCIAL AND GENERAL NEWS-PAPER.

Devoted to the Best Interests of the People.

IN POLITICS.

The COMMERCIAL will hereafter, as heretofore, be devoted to the support of Republican principles, maintaining its independence in the Republican Party, and claiming the right at all times to speak freely and fearlessly on the merits of public and private measures. Party government is essential to a constitutional country, and journals claiming to be independent of party are usually independent of principle. Faithful to the great convictions and aims upon which the Republican Party was based, it is the multiplication of no clique or faction, supporting the party solely because it believes that party is founded on principles of Right and Justice.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

Of the COMMERCIAL will consist, from day to day, contributions from able writers upon all subjects—Political, Literary, Scientific, Legal, Commercial, Foreign and Local—in which its views will be set forth plainly and independently, keeping in view the prime aim of the paper, which is the advancement of the best interests of all sections of the country.

ITS NEWS DEPARTMENTS

Will always contain brief but accurate reports of all the occurrences of the day. Liberal expenditures will be made in securing special telegrams and correspondence from the great news centers of the country, so that readers of the Commercial can always rely on being served with early and reliable news.

In the department devoted to the publication of Local News, will be found a complete daily history of the city and its environs, gathered by a corps of careful writers and set forth in attractive style.

THE MARKETS

Will, as heretofore, receive careful attention. Full telegraphic reports of the State of Business, with Prices Current, will be received daily from the Trade Centers of the country and Europe. The Pittsburgh Market, in all its branches, will be reported fully and accurately. As a commercial journal the Commercial stands second to no paper in the country.

The Financial Column will give daily the ruling rates for money, and the prices of Stocks and Bonds at all the great trading points, with much interesting statistical matter.
