chapter in American history. No citizeu need blush over a single line. Posterity will dwell with admiration over the grand work recorded in so brief a space of time.

Grand as its past achievements are admitted to be, even by its opponents, they will be at least equalled, if not surpassed, by the work of the future.

It has delivered the nation from the hands of its enemics; its future mis-its ranks, men who desire to do right, and who earnestly seek through their votes and influence to advance the interests of their country. But they are in a hopeless, minority, powerless to control the bad elements which exert a controlling influence in the Democratic party. Honor, patriotism, respectibility, intelligence, are the exceptions in Democracy, while in the Republican party they are the rule.

Rascals will creep into the best organized society. They will get into the church, the best protected orders, the family circle. They are not invited, but they come under the guise of honor, and are known only when their acts betray them. Such men are their acts betray them. Such men are discovered from time to time in the Republican party, but as soon as known they receive the lash of indignation, or if criminally guilty, the penalties laid down in the law. They have never been sheltered by the par-ty, and they never will be. Whenev-er, or wherever discovered, they will have meted out to them the punishment they deserve.

This is all that any human organization can do. We should expect no more from a party; we should be sat-isfied with no less. To search out and punish the delinquent, to ignore the unworthy, to turn a cold shoulder to those who would use the party to pro-mote their own selfish purposes, should be the object and aim of true Repub-licans. Our ranks are filled with noble characters, men of public and private virtue, whose names have be-come bousehold words in the locali-ties where they reside. To bring them to the front, to nominate them for of-fice, to select them as leaders, is to write victory on our party banners. Let this important duty be performed.

The speech of Senator Thurman, of Ohio, which was to be the great event of his life, and an oratorial effort which would equal the best productions of Webster or Clay, has not worked exactly as was anticipated. It has effectually squeiched him, so far as Presidential aspirations are concerned, and is everywhere denounced as Carried.

The Primary Rules were read by the Chairman, after which the returns were handed in by the various return Thurman! Pendleton triumphs at last.

(The returns, as read, are published in the shape of a table in another place.)
On motion the return judges proceeded to nominate a candidate for State Senate. W. R. Dunn was nominated unanimously. On motion the following gentleman were appointed

Its record has become the most brilliant charles in Account the most brilliant the scene armed with a revolver and discharged two shots at him, neither of which took effect. It has a public debt to pay, pledged faith of the country to maintain, a currency to reduce in coin, an emancipated race to protect, before it can retire from a work to which it was called by the voice of the people.

It is not tille beasting, but a recognized truth, when we say that the Republican party represents the fitelity gence, the wisdom, the patriotism, the honor of the nation, as founded among all classes, among men of culture, wealth, inclustry, the true governing chemonis of nations. THE SUN.

WEEKLY AND DAILY FOR 1875.

WEBKLY AND DAILY FOR 1875.

The approach of the Presidential election gives unusual importance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully, and fearlessly.

THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained a circulation of ever seventy thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Territory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not enly endeavor to keep it fully up to the old standard, but to improve and add to its variety and power.

THE WEEKLY SUN will continue to be a thorough newspaper. All the news of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at full length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive man-moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive manner.

It is our aim to make the Weekly Sun the best family newspaper in the world. It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every sort, but will print nothing to effend the most scrupulous and delicate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and romances of the day, carefully selected and legibly printed.

The Agricultural Department is a prominent feature in the Weekly Sun, and its articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer.

The number of men independent in politics is increasing, and the Weekly Sun is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys ne dictation, contending for principle, and for the election of the best men. It exposes the corruption that disgraces the country and threatens the overthrow of republican institutions. It has ne fear of knaves, and seeks no favors from their supporters.

The markets of every kind and the fashions are regularly reported in its columns. The price of the Weekly Sun is one dollar a year for a sheet of eight pages, and fifty-six columns. As this barely pays the expenses of paper and printing, we are not able to make any discount or allow any premium to friends who may make special efforts to extend its circulation. Under the new law, which requires payment of postage in advance, one dollar a year, with twenty cents the cost of prepaid postage added, is the rate of subscription. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have the Weekly Sun at this rate. Anyone who sends one dollar and twenty cents will get the paper, post-pasd, for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

IN POLITICS,

1875.

The COMMERCIAL will hereafter, as heretolare, be devoted to the support of Republican principles, maintaining its indepence within the Republican Party, and claiming the right at all times to speak freely and fearlessly on the merits of men and measures. Party government is essential to a constitutional country, and journals claiming to be independent of party are usually independent of principle. Faithful to the great convictions and aims upon which the Republican Party was based, it is the mouthpiece of no clique or faction, supporting the party solely because it believes that party is founded on principles of Right and Justice,

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

Of the COMMERCIAL will contain, from day to day, centributions from able writers upon all subjects—Political, Literary, Scientific, Legal, Commerciel, Foreign and Local—in which its views will be set forth plainly and independently, keeping in view the prime aim of the paper, which is the advancement of the best interests of all sections of the country.

ITS NEWS DEPARTMENTS

Will always contain brief but accurate reports of all the occurrences of the day. Liberal expenditures will be made in securing special telegrams and correspondence from the great news centers of the country, so that readers of the Commerzeal can always rely on being served with early and reliable news.

In the department devoted to the publication of Local News will be found a complete daily history of the city and its environs, gathered by a corps of careful writers and set forth in attractive style.

THE MARKETS

Will, as heretofore, receive careful attention. Full telegraphic reports of the State of Rusiness, with Prices Current, will be received daily from the Trade Centers of this country and Europe. The Pittsburgh Market, in all its branches, will be reported fully and accurately. As a commercial journal the Commercial stands second to no paper in the country.

The Financial Column will give daily the ruling rates for money, and the prices of Stocks and Bonds at all the great trading points, with much interesting statistical matter.
