-The Forest Press of last week pays us a compliment, which we are extremely sorry we cannot appropriate. Quoting the article headed "Its Mission not Ended," published in our last, the Press says, "The above is one of the ablest leaders that over Mr. Dunn wrote." To a person not familiar with the rules of well-regulated printing offices, it might be necessary set solid, or else credited. The piece referred to was selected from one of our exchanges, which published it as selected matter, neglecting to credit it. Knowing it to be such, we selected it, not knowing where to place the credit. As we never wish praise not do due us, we make this explanation for the benefit of those who might over-estimate our talents. As the case is, the slight reference to our wellknown modesty, is superfluous.

record" of the Republican party for the past 14 years with the Chicago well, that time has come, and, espelaration. This mistake is not strange to say, Leffler does not want strange. It is not the first time that good men and good works have been misunderstood and misinterpreted.

John the Baptist once said, "And the light shineth in darkness, and the darkness comprehended it not." So strange. It is not the first, time that darkness comprehended it not." So it is in this instance; the light which print, and no amount of lying will has been shining on the benighted in- wipe out the record of it. Besides, tellect of the Democratic party for the past fourteen years, has, because of All of us whose recollections go back been mistaken for a disastrous conflagration. Even the Egyptian darkness failed to make them comprehend the light which "shineth in darkness." came to pass. He has no business to be alive, to-day; and if he has been light which "shineth in darkness." We pity them, but cannot consent to have the darkness spread over the entire land, simply because they fail to take advantage of their opportunities for culightenment.

Of the exceptions to "honor, patriotism, respectability, intelligence," &c., the Press points, "with pride," we dare say, to "Tweed who was sent to the penitentiary for his crimes," and, the Press might have added, was released from his imprisonment by a decision of the Court of Appeals, a majority of that court being Democratic. Sweeny, Connelly, Garvey, Genet, and Ingersoll, are also mentioned, as exceptions, but not a word about the Democratic M. C., prizefighter and gambler, John Morrissey, who, even now, is the head and front of the Democracy in New York. Not a word about Ex-Gov. Bigler, of this State, who made speeches in Clearfield county, against giving the government "another man or another dollar" to preserve the Union; this untrammelled Democratic press refuses to say a word against this "exception," who is to-day the conceded nominee of the Democracy of Pennsylvania for the highest office within the gift of her people.

No, but "Boss Grant," is pointed to as an "exception" on our side, who is robbing and oppressing the people. Such charges as this are peurile, as President Grant never "robbed" anybudy, living on his salary, which was voted to him by a majority of Democrats as well as a majority of Repub-

Further, "a subsidized press dare cot denounce him." When we have anything to denounce, we will commence. Our party, as well as the press, have declared against a third term, but not from any fault in Grant's administration; does this have a "subsidized" look?

Now, in conclusion, please don't shock our modesty again by calling attention to our "able" leaders, and we will conduct the campaign in a comfortable, cosy way, which will bring out just as large a vote as though REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET. we complimented each other several times in each issue. Thank han alled

Consistency.

Shepherd Leffler is the Democratic candidate for Governor of Iowa, and, PANIC PRICES! like old Bill Allen, has been resurrected for that purpose from the grave of the past. His last appearance in publie life was in 1847, when he held a discussion with General Wilson, at Cascade, Iowa. In that debate General cost and determined to dispose of the presented one and description of the presented one and d Wilson expressed the conviction that the time was coming when men "would blush at the awful crime of human slavery [hisses and cheers], and the very men who hiss at my words to very men who hiss at my words today," said he, "will welcome the ne-gro to his freedom." To all of which Leffler made the following reply:

"My friend (pointing to Wilson) speaks of human slavery! Does he call a nigger human? Had he said "the awful crime of nigger slavery, his words would have been an insult to the intelligent audience, but when to the intelligent audience, but when he speaks of nigger slavery as 'human slavery,' he but adds falsehood to insult—or else superior ignorance of that least intelligent of all the brute creation-the nigger. He would have you turn these animals loose upon the community-yes, more, he would make them free citizens of Washington's and Jefferson's Great Republic, and then, no doubt, he would send them to to explain that original matter is of it, and then after my fauntical friend had freed the niggers, he wanted to free the dogs—saying with just as much propriety that it was too bad to much propriety that it was too bad to keep them in 'human slavery' [cheers and cries of 'good'], and of the two animals, I believe the dog is the most intelligent. This is a white man's government, and dogs and niggers shall never run it. Nor abolitionists either! He says the time is coming when I will blush at these words. The gentleman mistakes me. I love my country and her Godgiven institutions country and her God-given institutions too well for that; may this arm fall lifeless by my side, if I ever tolerate The Press compares the "brilliant that time comes I want to die. I shall

to die. He wants, on the contrary, to him. The debate, as it occurred, is in does it not sound perfectly natural? to that date, can recall the memory of their defeat year after year at the polls, dozens of such specches, and Leffler was no better than the rest. But he should have kept his word, and died of the Democratic House last winter, when the event he so much dreaded mortal coil when the negroes were enfranchised, he might, at least, have the grace to stick to what he said a generation ago. It was mean enough to refuse to die, as he promised; but it is still meaner to deny the utterances that came so naturally from his lips.-Pittsburgh Commercial.
