

A family feud—Reduced to a few by internal quarrels.

Somebody says if you can't get a good education and a white plug hat, get the hat.

The pull-back dresses are good in a gale of wind. It is not true, however, that they have to grease them to get them on.

"Puts" and "calls" may be properly defined thus: You put your money in the hands of a broker for the purpose of speculation and call for the profits in vain.

In Norway, the longest day lasts three months. The man who six months ago promised to call in a day or two and settle his little bill, must have gone to Norway on a visit.

A bad little boy upon being promised five cents by his mother if he would take a dose of castor oil, obtained the money, and then told his parent that she might castor oil in the street.

A man in Wyoming, Ohio, upon opening his chicken-house recently, one morning missed two birds; but then on the other hand he found two fingers in the trap. They haven't been called for yet.

A Vickburg negro woman was told that the price of sea lions had risen. "De Lord only knows what's to become of poor folks," she exclaimed, "when the nomenclatures ob life am riz clean out ob reach."

The difficulty with these dime novels is, that a boy who reads them is inspired with a more consuming desire to grow up and become a pirate and wear six pistols in his belt, than he is a minister and wear a white neck-tie.

A young beau, at his sister's evening party, began to sing, "Why am I so weak and weary?" when a little brother brought the performance to a sudden close by yelling out, "Aunt Mary says it's cause you get drunk every night and come home so late!"

A Presbyterian minister, while marrying a couple of his rustic parishioners, felt exceedingly disconcerted on his asking the bridegroom if he were willing to take the woman for his wedded wife, by his scratching his head and saying, "Ay, I'm willin', but I'd rather hae her sister."

Brigham Young seems to be as devoid of manners as he is lack in morals. He recently sat with his hat on through a whole performance at the opera house at Salt Lake City. A newspaper of that city read the old sinner a lecture on etiquette, but it was so much labor lost.

A resident of Pottsville this State, has a coin which has been decided to be a Hebrew shekel of the date of 535 B. C. It has on one side a representation of Aron's bukked rod, and on the other a priest's censer with incense. The same gentleman also has an old Saxon coin, an Elizabethan shilling of 1591, and an English coin of 1693.

"Got the phoby, have ye? Can't swallow any liquid, eh?" observed Mrs. Milliss to her husband, who had refused water for two days. "Well, we'll see," and the good woman drew the cork from the whiskey bottle and placed the muzzle to her liege's mouth. Milliss' face emerged from its gloom like a full moon from behind a cloud, and, glancing at his wife with a quizzical expression, he said: "Come to think of it, Jane, I don't believe that dog had any teeth!"

Recently a foreign embassy sought the assistance of the English police to find a young girl who had just become the heiress of many millions. The instructions were vague, and the task was necessarily given to one of the keenest detectives. At the end of six weeks the detective reported at headquarters and handed in his resignation. "Well," said the chief, "and what about the girl?" "I found her about a month ago in a dressmaker's shop," was the answer. "And what then?" "I married her yesterday, and this morning I have just received her six millions."

A Sunday school picnic was recently held in a grove near Kingston, N. Y. An ex-sheriff seemed to be a sort of "king-bee," among the people, and superintended all the arrangements. Large tables were spread and loaded with an abundance of good things. As soon as everything was nearly ready for the feast a number of the children grabbed up knives and forks and "went in," when the ex-sheriff howled out: "Hold on, you infernal hogs, will you?" Then in a milder tone he said to one of the ministers present: "Brother—, will you ask a blessing?"

A citizen who was driving along the Jackson road the other day, says the Vicksburg Herald, saw a man up a tree near the roadside, and halting he inquired: "What are you doing up there?" The man made no reply and the citizen continued: "What's the cause of your being up there?" At that moment a woman rose up from the fence corner, rested a club on the fence and remarked: "I'm the cause, stranger, and if you wait till he comes down you'll see the worst field of carnage around here that ever laid out doors!" The citizen drove on and she turned to the man up the tree and continued: "Polhemus, I can't climb and you know it; but if you'll drop down here for two minutes I'll give you a quit claim deed of the farm!"

At the Wholesale and Retail Piano and Organ Emporium of

S. HAMILTON & CO., 77 5TH AVE., PITTSBURGH, PA

OUR MOTTO IS AND HAS BEEN

QUICK SALES AND SMALL PROFITS.

Our business is exclusively PIANOS and ORGANS, which enables us to give our whole time and attention to this exclusive trade. Thus where other dealers sell from five to ten instruments a week, our sales very often exceed these numbers in a single day, so that we can better afford to sell at 10 per cent. profit on cost, than they can at 20 and 25 per cent.

Every instrument we sell is as good as an agent for us, as they invariably introduce us favorably to all who see them. We have sold and in use in and about Pittsburgh alone. They are not some new Organ, the growth of a few months, but are old reliable makes, that are constantly adding every meritorious improvement. The really Grand Simmons & Clough's Combination Organs have been manufactured for Twenty-five years, while the Celebrated Taylor & Farley Celestes Organs have been manufactured over Twenty years. And now for the purpose of introducing them more thoroughly throughout all the country towns of the State, we have made new and very heavy contracts for large numbers of them, which we propose to sell on their merits, and without the assistance of AGENTS OR MIDDLE MEN, giving the purchaser the benefit of commissions and wholesale discounts, we are thus enabled to offer these Organs at the following prices, at which we shall sell for a short time.

2,000 OF THESE ORGANS

"WHEREWITIAL SHALL WE BE CLOTHED?"

Testimonials of Waters' Pianos and Organs.

"Waters' Concerto Parlor Organ possesses a beautiful and peculiarly soft tone. The Concerto Stops, without doubt, the best ever placed in any organ. It is produced by an extra set of reeds, peculiarly voiced, from which the effect is most charming, and its imitation of the human voice is superb. For sweetness of tone and orchestral effects it has no equal."—N. Y. Times.

"The Concerto Parlor Organ" is something entirely new; it is a beautiful parlor ornament, possesses a sweet and powerful tone is a most commendable invention and holds a high place in public favor."—N. Y. Evening Post.

AN ORCHESTRA IN THE PARLOR.—The orchestral organ is the name of a new reed organ recently announced by Horace Waters & Son. The instrument takes its name from its recently invented orchestral step. The voicing of this is peculiar, producing the effect of a full sweet contralto voice. Its finest effect is produced when the stops are drawn, so that an orchestral effect is given. The case is unique and makes a handsome article of furniture."—N. Y. Sun.

The Waters Pianos are known as among the very best. We are enabled to speak of these instruments with confidence, from personal knowledge.—N. Y. Evangelist.
