-Weil! The Democracy met in in Erie according to contract, anddidn't nominate Bigler! That was a cruel blow at the old gentleman, who, after having been chased all over the State, and allowed no rest until he gave his consent to have his name go before the convention, to be thrown overboard! He was forced out, and now give his whole attention to his duties as Centennial Commissioner, which is preferable to spending time beaten in November.

On the eleventh ballot Cyrus L. Pershing was nominated for Governor, and on motion the nomination was made unanimous.

The balloting for State Treasurer was then proceeded with. We take the following in regard to the grand good feeling which reigned during the convention, from the Associated Press reports:

At the conclusion of the first ballot for Treasurer, the Chair said time was needed to inquire into the untecedents of the candidates, and announced a motion to adjourn, put it, and declared it carried amid wild shouts and cries of "No" from every part of the house. He took his hat and was hurrying away, when McMullen, of Philadelphia, and several others, leaped upon the stage and demanded that he return and continue the balloting amid shouts and threats of violence. Mc-Mullen held his stand and forced the Chair back to the chair.

The Chair then called a division on adjournment, and not one vote was given in the affirmative. Order was at length restored and the ballot proceeded with.

Two ballots were then taken, without a nomination. The third ballot proceeded amid much confusion and and ineffectual efforts of the in the dropping out of most of the continued absence led to an investiga-weaker candidates. Playford, 54; tinn His trail was followed and Noble, 47; Peolette, 123 -- a majority of all the votes cast. Peolette was then declared the nominee of the Convention for State Treasurer.

The platform was adopted after a good deal of trouble, and, as a prominent Democrat of this place says, is calculated to catch the "snow-flakes," or loose votes of the State. It was fixed up for that purpose, but will be pretty thoroughly shown up before the teenth amendment. election. The party in power is blamed with the hard times, the late Co. Commissioners' Land Sale rains and the low price of oil. Although, if any one believes that the platform expresses the feelings of the people, or the candidates, he will find himself mistaken. Pershing is a hard money man, running on a greenback platform, and he will probably have as hard work to explain himself satisfactorily as Thurman has in Ohio. The platform don't "point with pride" to the record of the Democratic House last winter, but confines itself to picking imaginary flaws with the party in power. If old birds, or even young ones are caught by such chaff, why that's just the kind of chaff to catch rains and the low price of oil. Althat's just the kind of chaff to catch them with. In the meantime we want to give the Democracy all the string they want-it will tighten up on them in November.

-The Doylestown Democrat, not finding anything in Governor Hartranft or his administration to criticise, ins concluded to make war on the curpets with which the Executive Attest: D. W. CLARK, Clerk.

Mansion is furnished. It is hefty on carpets. Axminster, velvet and Brussels, and even plaid linen, are cut and sheared with a savageness that is truly wonderful. The looms of England were not constructed to provide carpets for Executive Mansions,-and if they were, do they not operate in mon-archal countries? Therefore, their products are tinged with monarchism, and ase dangerous in Republican America. To find them on the floors of an Executive Mansion,—what greater proof that the tendency of the Governor is adverse to the plain, simple habits of Republican America? There is nothing like getting at the bottom of things.

What they think of Judge Pershing in his Old Home.

The Johnstown (Cambria county) Tribune says:

"Cyrus L. Pershing, formerty of this place, has been nominated for Governor on an inflation platform. This nomination was made not because Pershing was considered the proper man, but because the friends of the prominent candidates spoken of could unite on no person who had a political character. There are some people here who imagine he will make a strong candidate, but he has not been so before, although he has been benefited by dissensions in his own party, just as he was at Eric last night. He was elected several times a member of the Legislature from this county, but there never was a time within our recollection that the Democrats could not elect their nominee, provided he received five-sixths of the party vote. He has been whipped for Congress, for Judge of the Supreme Court, and for Judge of the District Court for the Southern District of Cambria, by an overwhelming majority, and was only elected Judge of the Schuylkilli District Court because there were divi-sions in the party there. He has prooverboard! He was forced out, and fited greatly by office, and is consider-then he was forced back. He can ed worth about $75,000, although no man who knows anything about his practice here believes that it averaged $1,800 a year, and he had no other sources of income except his profesand money in the canvass and being sion and his politics. He is a cunning, close-mouthed little man, who can worm himself into more places, say less, do less, and make more money by this course than any man on the continent. Here he is considered very thin material."

THE SUN.

The approach of the Presidential elec-tion gives unusual importance to the events and developments of 1875. We shall endeavor to describe them fully, faithfully, and fearlessly. THE WEEKLY SUN has now attained a circulation of ever severty thousand copies. Its readers are found in every State and Terrifory, and its quality is well known to the public. We shall not only en-deavor to keep it fully up to the old stand-ard, but to improve and add to its variety and power.

be a thorough newspaper. All the vews of the day will be found in it, condensed when unimportant, at fail length when of moment, and always, we trust, treated in a clear, interesting and instructive man-

It will be full of entertaining and appropriate reading of every bort, but will print nothing to offend the most scrupulous and delicate taste. It will always contain the most interesting stories and romances of the day, carefully selected and legibly printed.

The Agricultural Department is a prominent feature in the Weekly Sun, and its articles will always be found fresh and useful to the farmer.

The number of men independent in polities is increasing, and the Weekly Sun is their paper especially. It belongs to no party, and obeys no dictation, contending for principle, and for the election of the best men. It exposes the corruption that disgraces the country and threatens the overthrow of republican institutions. It has no fear of knaves, and seeks no favors from their supporters.

The markets of every kind and the fashions are regularly reported in its columns. The price of the Weekly Sun is one dollar a vear for a sheet of eight pages, and fifty-six columns. As this barely pays the expenses of paper and printing, we are not able to roake any discount or allow any premium to friends who may make special efforts to extend its circulation. Under the new law, which requires payment of postage in advance, one dollar a year, with twenty cents the cost of prepald postage aided, is the rate of subscription. It is not necessary to get up a club in order to have the Weekly Sun at this rate. Anyone who sends one dollar and twenty cents will get the paper, post-pash, for a year.

We have no traveling agents.

IN POLITICS,

The COMMERCIAL will hereafter, as herefoliere, be devoted to the support of Republican principles, maintaining its industrial and the support of Republican principles, maintaining its industrial and the support of Republican Party, and claiming the right at all times to speak freely and fearlessly on the merits of men and ineasures. Party government is essential to a constitutional country, and journals claiming to be independent of party are usually independent of principle. Faithful to the great convictions and alms upon which the Republican Party was based, it is the mouthpiece of inclique or faction, supporting the party solely because it believes that party is founded on principles of Right and Justice. THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT

Of the Commencial, will contain, from day to day, contributions from able writers upon all subjects.—Political, Literary, Scientific, Legal, Commercial, Foreign and Local—in which its views will be setforth plainly and independently, keeping in view the prime aim of the paper, which is the advancement of the best interests of all sections of the country. ITS NEWS DEPARTMENTS

Will always contain brief but accurate reports of all the occurrences of the day. Laberal expenditures will be made in securing special telegrams and correspondence from the great news centers of the country, so that readers of the Commercial can always rely on being served with sarly and reliable news.

In the department devoted to the publication of Local News will be found a complete daily history of the city and its environs, gathered by a corps of careful writers and set forth in attractive style.
