For County Surveyor,
T. D. COLLINS.

A year ago the Pennsylvania Democracy were in favor of "a steady effort to bring the Government notes to par with gold, and to secure a return to specie payments at the earliest possible period that redemption can be effected with safety." This year they have turned tables on themselves, and are just the other way.

The President is determined that the people of Mississippi shall be protected against the White League bands that have begun their work of terrorism. To this end he proposes, if it shall be necessary, to use the troops for a vigorous effort to suppress those vicious organizations, to bring the murderers that belong to them to justice. He will carefully operate under the Constitution, but act rigorously, nevertheless.

The New York Democratic Convention has determined on a hard money platform. It may now be a question which is to be considered the real Democratic doctrine,—that of New York, or that of this State. The New Yorkers are consistent, but those of this State have nothing sufficiently definite to make any palaver over. It is evident that the Democracy of Pennsylvania are merely seeking to trick the people into their support, but if a mystified platform and rotten candidates serve this purpose successfully, we underrate the intelligence of the American people.—Gazette.

The following are the second and third planks in the Nebraska Democratic platform adopted by the State Convention on Friday last:

That we are in favor of a sound currency, coin or its equivalent essential, and stability in business and a restoration of prosperity, steps toward specie payment and no step backward.

That we deprecate all attempts to commit the Democratic party to a system of paper money, based upon unconstitutional exercise of federal power, as a crime against the common welfare and wanton violation of a cardinal article of the Democratic creed.

The Jonhstown Tribune says: "The nomination of Victor E. Piolette to the office of State Treasurer was a fitting finale to the doings of the Convention which attempted to be on both sides of the financial question, and which nominated Cyrus L. Pershing for Governor. He is somewhat noted as a legislative rooster and demagogue in Bradford county, better remembered as Charles R. Buckalew's right hand man in the Columbia county drafts riots of 1864; as the President of the Fishing Creek Confederacy, and, in short, a traitor whom nothing but the misplaced leniency of the Government kept from spinning at the rope's end at the close of the war."

Honest toil as a farmer has not soiled the hands of Piolette, and he can't control or deliver the Grange vote to the Democratic party.

Democracy is not a unit. The Erie platform declares that the hard times are due to the policy of contraction, adopted by the Republican party. The New York Democrats are equally positive that the "present depression of business is caused by the reaction from the unhealthy stimulus of an excessive, depreciated and irredeemable currency." Those at Erie taught that a gradual expansion of the currency will heal the business ills of the country, while those of New York declare it would be "worse than ineffectual to revive prosperity, for it would interrupt the healing process of industry." The Erieites, through their Chairman, Hughes, taught that greenbacks are money, and fulfill in themselves all promises of resumption; the New Yorkers declare—"First, gold and silver the only legal tender, no currency convertible with coin. Second, steady steps toward specie payments, no steps backward. Third, honest payment of debt in coin and sacred preservation of public faith." The Democracy of New York have at least the merit of consistency and honesty.

The Democratic Platform.

The New York Herald comments as follows on the platform adopted by the late Pennsylvania Democratic Convention:

The platform is an insult to every American who believes in the sacredness of the national honor. It is a platform which means repudiation, because the policy it supports is a policy which looks toward repudiation. It will so result unless the good sense of the people should defeat it. Instead of uniting with the Democracy of New York and the East, who have shown themselves in every trial resolute in support of the national honor, who stood by the Union when it was threatened by treason, Pennsylvania Democrats, under the leadership of the worst men in the party, go wandering after the wild, hare-brained fanatics of Ohio and the West. When we look over the names of the men who controlled this convention we are painfully reminded of those Pennsylvania Democrats who, during the war, did so much to bring disaster upon the party and dishonor upon its record. These men are political tramps and vagabonds. It is fitting that a resolution which practically means repudiation should be championed by that noted tramp Francis W. Hughes, of Schuylkill. If the Democracy of Pennsylvania had been true to the proud legend of their State, that it is the keystone of the Union, they could have done more toward reviving national credit, strengthening the confidence of foreign governments in our financial integrity, aiding the administration in funding our debt, and, in the end, bringing to our burdened people the sure blessings of specie payments and a sound currency, than any other State in the Union. But the old Bourbon copperhead politicians, the tramps and vagabonds who flourished during the war, have taken possession of the party. A platform was adopted that is an insult to every American; for Americans care little about what Pennsylvania thinks of the management of the State Treasury; they care much about its record upon inflation.

The Next Election.

The following points in regard to voting should be borne in mind, and attended to at once:

The New Constitution forbids all persons from voting unless they have paid their taxes at least one month before the date of the election. No one of foreign birth can vote unless, in addition to the above, he has been naturalized a month previous to the election.

Friday, October 1st, is the last day on which they can pay taxes.

Friday, October 1st, is the last day for taking out naturalization papers.

Each of these important duties can be performed any time before the days mentioned. Let our friends see to it that the matter is attended to before it is too late.

1875. THE 1875.
PITTSBURGH
COMMERCIAL
A POLITICAL, LITERARY, COMMERCIAL and GENERAL NEWS-PAPER.
Devoted to the Best Interests of the People.

IN POLITICS.
The COMMERCIAL will hereafter, as heretofore, be devoted to the support of Republican principles, maintaining its independence within the Republican Party, and claiming the right at all times to speak freely and fearlessly on the merits of men and measures. Party government is essential to a constitutional country, and journals claiming to be independent of party are usually independent of principle. Faithful to the great convictions and aims upon which the Republican Party was based, it is the mouthpiece of no clique or faction, supporting the party solely because it believes that party is founded on principles of Right and Justice.

THE EDITORIAL DEPARTMENT
Of the COMMERCIAL will contain, from day to day, contributions from able writers upon all subjects—Political, Literary, Scientific, Local, Commercial, Foreign and Local—in which its views will be set forth plainly and independently, keeping in view the prime aim of the paper, which is the advancement of the best interests of all sections of the country.

ITS NEWS DEPARTMENTS
Will always contain brief but accurate reports of all the occurrences of the day. Liberal expenditures will be made in securing special telegrams and correspondence from the great news centers of the country, so that readers of the Commercial can always rely on being served with early and reliable news.

In the department devoted to the publication of Local News will be found a complete daily history of the city and its environs, gathered by a corps of careful writers and set forth in attractive style.

THE MARKETS
Will, as heretofore, receive careful attention. Full telegraphic reports of the State of Business, with Prices Current, will be received daily from the Trade Centers of this country and Europe. The Pittsburgh Market, in all its branches, will be reported fully and accurately. As a commercial journal the Commercial stands second to no paper in the country.

The Financial Column will give daily the ruling rates for money, and the prices of Stocks and Bonds at all the great trading points, with much interesting statistical matter.

INTERESTING MISCELLANY.
Embracing Poems, Sketches, Incidents of Travel etc., will find a place in the columns of the Commercial, furnishing abundance of instruction and amusement for the family circle.
