-And now the Grangers are de manding the resignation of Mr. Pie-lette as one of their State officers. The Grangers say they did not organize themselves into a political body, and they won't have Mr. Pielette or cans, the strength of the Democracy being largely exhausted, and that of the Republican revived by fresh and vigorous help. Carl Schurz is a host in bimself, and he has done noble work for the Republican cause. If the Republican revived by fresh and Republican vote is out, no question is entertained by any as to the result. It is not doubted that this vote will be out, and that Hayes will be the next Governor of Ohio.

-The Chicago Tribune evidently understands the "true inwardness" of our polital canvass. It makes these important statements, which have a strong flavor of truth about them: "Even the Democrats of Pennsylvania are getting sick of Judge Pershing, their candidate for Governor, and his attempt to catch the votes of both sides by adopting a half-way policy. He is not enough of an inflationist to snit the ray money Democrats who built the Erie platform, and he is not enough of a sound-money man to suit bard-money Democrats. So dissatis-fied are they growing with him that it is now rumored they will ask him to retire in order that they may place a positive man in his stead. Judge Pershing does not seem to be a positive man in enything. During the war he professed to be a Union man, and voted and worked against it on every occasion. Now that he is a candidate tor Corvernor, he refuses to resign his position on the Beach at the request of his friends, so that he can make a show at least of official decency. He is a half-way man, and, if he continues to run, the probabilities now are that he will get only half-way to the Gubernatoral office."

-It would be amusing, were it not in a sense pitiable, the confusion that has fallen on the Democratic party in this State and Ohio. Their tickets and platforms were made amid high hopes of success, and these represented their most jubilar moods. The result was, Allen and Carey in Ohio, and Pershing and Piolette here, for candidates, and platforms that were intended to mean unlimited inflation. As time goes on, there are revelations in Ohio that make the defeat of the Democracy to platforms were made amid high hopes be desired by such men as Thurman, even. His desires are entirely likely to be fully gratified. Here, such revelations have been made, as have astonished the Democratic leaders. They thought that with the aid of the "Independent" press they had allayed all feeling because of copperheadism during the rebellion, and imagining Pershing a very genteel professional gen-tleman, and Piolette a first class Granger, put them in nomination in full expectation of an easy victory. But the a co., Portland, Mc.

outburst alarmed them. They found that the people did remember disloyalty during the war, and that Pershing was possessed of a strangely erooked and tortuous record; while Prolette was too much interested in getting his mother-in-law's esteate to be valuable as a candidate. Hence we hear of many efforts to draw them off,-but they won't draw. Pershing notified them that he would keep the Judgeship, and if they could manage to elect him Governor, he would take that too. So there is anything but harmony in their ranks, or hope in their hearts.—

The Next Election.

The following points in regard to voting should be borne in mind, and attended to at once :

The New Constitution forbids all persons from voting unless they have paid their taxes at least one month before the date of the election. No one of foreign birth can vote unless, in addition to the above, he has been naturalized a month previous to the elec-

The Grangers say they did not organize themselves into a political body, and they won't have Mr. Piolette or anybody else turn their society into a partisan machine.—Scranton Republican.

—When Carl Schurz opposed the Administration, the Democrats caller him a high-toned statesman, and a patriot of the first water. But they preferred a Confederate Brigadier General for United States Senator. Now that Schurz speaks against inflation Democracy, the followers of that party suddenly discover that he is a "hireling," "selling, himself to the money power." They praised the man when they thought him an enemy to the Republican party; now that they find him its friend, they treat him with the vilest abuse.

—The contest in Ohio rapidly approaches its close, and the report that repeaters are to go there to vote for Hayes is one of the advance evidences of the coming defeat of Allen. It is perfectly evident that the tide is moving very heavily in favor of the Republicans, the strength of the Democracy being largely exhausted, and that of the Republicans, the strength of the Democracy being largely exhausted, and that of the Republicans, the strength of the Democracy being largely exhausted, and that of the Republicans, the strength of the Democracy being largely exhausted, and that of the Republicans, the strength of the Democracy being largely exhausted, and that of the Republicans, the strength of the Democracy being largely exhausted, and that of the Republicans are contacted and within the strength of the Democracy being largely exhausted, and that of the Republicans, the strength of the Democracy being largely exhausted, and that of the Republicans are contacted and within the strength of the Democracy being largely exhausted, and that of the Republicans are contacted to the transfer of the Republicans are contacted to the transfer of the Republicans are contacted to the transfer of the Republicans.
