No one who has been at all conversant with the tendency of events, need be told that the whole drift of popular feeling is steadily against the Democracy.

The Democratic majority in Ohio last year was 17,202; in Pennsylvania 4,679. If 17,202 can be swept away, 4,679 should prove no obstacle with practically the same questions presented.

With thorough reconstruction, equal rights to all men, resumption of specie payments, and a strict discharge of all National obligations, yet to contend for and maintain, the Republican party has not yet fulfilled its mission.

The Cincinnati Commercial says figures from all the counties on Governor, official and semi-official, have been carefully footed at the Republican headquarters, showing the following result in the whole State:

From this time out, few converts will be made. Our reliance must be on a full vote. The most energetic measures should be adopted to bring out this vote.

It is gratifying to see so many of the honest Republicans who went over to the ranks again—satisfied that they can not feel "at home" outside of the Republican party.

The howls of the Democrats in Ohio, that they were beaten by money and fraud, would be amusing, were they not evidently uttered for the purpose of hiding their own fraudulent misdeeds.

ry in that State was in the face of of frauds evidently perpetrated. The cry of repeaters was started before the canvass closed, as a means of diverting attention, but the evidence is too clear to admit of doubt as to the real facts in the case.

We do not know what has come over the New York Tribune, but it allows its Philadelphia correspondent to utter the truths as to the canvass in this State with a candor that is absolutely refreshing.
