Jake Bradish went into Sitzer's saloon the other day, and called for a eigar. He placed the eigar on the counter and began viewing it from various points. "Vas ish der mad-der?" inquired the keeper. "Noth-ing," said Bradish; "only I was thinking that I don't care so much for a smoke just now as I do for a drink. Will you take this cigar for a drink?" he inquired, "Zertainly," said Sitzer, as he passed out the decanter. Jake poisoned himself, turned on his heel, and was walking away when the keeper called out: "I say, Shake, you tidn't bay me for dot trink!" "Why, yes I did," he replied, "I gave you the cigar for it." Sitzer was in doubt for eigar for it." Sitzer was in doubt for a moment, and as Ja.ce's hand was on the latch, he yelled, "Yaw, but you tidn't bay me for de cigar?" "Well, you don't suppose I'm fool enough to pay you for the cigar and let you keep it, do you?" And Jake went out and lammed the door. slammed the door.

"You keep postal cards here, don't you," asked a little woman of the stamp clerk at the post-office yesterday. "We do, madam." "I'll take one, if you will write on it for me." Much has been written against the BUSINESS Much has been written against the use of tobacco, but the are very few cases where it can be charged fairly with abridging life. In consequence of its power of relieving nervous excitability, of rendering the mucus membrane of the air passages less susceptible to the influence of cold and damp, and the cause, whatever it may be, of influenza, it must, when used in moderation, rather tend to promote longevity. "Sir," asked an attorney yesterday of a witness who was testifying in a case of assault and battery, "have you been in this court before?" "Yes, sir!" said the witness, "I have been here often." "Ah, been here often, have you?" said the attorney in a triumphant tone. "Now tell the court what for." "Well," replied the witness slowly, "I have been here at least a dozen times to see you to try and culdozen times to see you, to try and col-lect that tailor's bill you owe."

Flowers nearly always begin to fade and droop after being kept for twenty hours in water; a few may be revived by substituting fresh, but all may be restored by the use of hot water. For this purpose place the flowers in scald-ing water, deep enough to cover about one-third of the length of the stems. By the time this is cold the flowers will have become erect and fresh. Then cut off the shrunken ends of the stems and put them into cold water.

"Henry, why don't you keep a sup-ply of cloves in your pocket?" said an Albany young lady to her escort at the Opera House recently; "you wouldn't then have to run out after every act; and I don't see why you are so awful fond of cloves, anyhow!"

Our business is exclusively PIANOS and ORGANS, which enables us 'to give our whole time and attention to this exclusive trade. Thus where other dealers sell from five to ten instruments a week, our sales very often exceed these numbers in a single day, so that we can better afford to sell at 10 per cent. profit on cost, than they can at 20 and 25 per cent.

EveryInstrument we sell is as good as an agent for us, as they invariably introduce us favorably to all who see them. We have sold and in uso in and about Pittsburgh alone. They are not some new Organ, the growth of a few months, but are old reliable makes, that are constantly adding every meritorious improvement. The really Grand Slimmons & Clough's Combination Organs have been manufactured for Twenty-five years, while the Celebrated Taylor & Farley Celestes Organs have been manufactured over Twenty years. And now for the purpose of introducing them more thoroughly throughout all the country towns of the State, we have made new and very heavy contracts for large numbers of them, which we propose to sell on their merits, and without the sesistance of AGENTS OR MIDDLEMEN, giving the purchaser the benefit of commissions and wholesale discounts, we are thus enabled to offer these Organs at the following prices, at which we shall sell for a short time,

CABINET CASES, Double Reed, 4 Stop Organs, Regular Price, $145.00 at $ 85.00 155.00 at 90.00 165.00 at 95.00 FULL RESONANT CASES, Double Reed, 4 Stop Organs, Regular Price, $165.00 at 175.00 at 100.00

Testimonials of Waters' Pianos and Organs.

"Waters' Concerto Parlor Organ pos-sesses a beautiful and peculiarly soft tone. The Concerto Stop is, without doubt, the best ever placed in any organ. It is pro-duced by an extra set of reeds, peculiarly volced, from which the effect is most charming, and its imitation of the human voice is superb. For sweetness of tone and orchestral effects it has no equal."— N. Y. Times.

The Concerto Parlor Organ' is something entirely new; it is a beautiful parlor ernament, possesses a sweet and powerful tone is a most commendable invention and holds a high place in public favor."—N. Y. Excuting Post,

AN ORCHESTRA IN THE PARLOR.—The orchestral organ is the name of a new reed organ recently announced by Horace Waters & Son. The instrument takes this name from its recently invented orchestral step. The voicing of this is peculiar, producing the effect of a full sweet contralto voice. Its finest effect is produced when the stops are drawn, so that an orchestral effect is given, The case is unique and makes a handsome article of furniture."—N. Y. Sun.

The Waters Planes are known as among the very best. We are enabled to speak of these instruments with confidence, from personal knowledge,—N, Y, Evangelist.
