-Mosquitoes were singing around until Monday, but no one has beard any of their cheerful ditties since. This time we guess they will stay dead until spring.

The Legislature met last week, heard the Governor's Mersage, and took a recess until yesterday. The solid work will doubtless commence immediately.

More shooting matches are talked If his not been decided who is the best shot in tuwn, but there are numbers who claim to be the champion poor shot.

-There's hardly a gate off its hinges in town; but just wait until next summer, and our hardware merchants will sell hinges enough to be able to attend the Centennial on the profits.

-A report was current a short time since that Capt. J. M. Clapp, of Tidioute had sold his entire production of oil in 1876 for $2.50 a barrel. The Titusville Herald denies the report.

-Two men were hanged in Pittsburgh last week for morder. The papers of that city are a tittle disposed to brag over the neat job the Sheriff local column is fixed accordingly. I a residence on west side of Eim St., given out as hard times and the low price of lum-

-During our absence last week, well-written communication from Lacytown came to our address. Our letter, did not open it, and hence it did not appear in last week's paper. As the communication is descriptive a year, including premium. of Christmas festivities, it is now a little too late to publish it. We would be pleased to hear from our Lacytown correspondent often, in regard to the local news of that place.

-They are having hot times in Congress at present. The Democracy headed by Randall and Cox sant "general amnesty," and the Rapubli-cans want the same thing, except that they do not wish Jeff. Davis to be in-cluded. A great deal of wind is be-ing wasted, and a great deal said that is not meant. It will take a twothirds vote to pass the "general amnesty" bill, and the Democracy cannot raise that amount.

-It has been some time since have heard anything in regard to the oil developments which were to go on the eastern part of this county. The parties having the husiness in charge will undoubtedly pat it though in good shape, but just when, is one of those things that no fellow can find out. In all probability operations will commence as soon as spring opens.

-The committee of conference on unfinished business of the Legislature agreed that such business should not be considerd unless introduced anew. This disposes of that question without difficulty. The question of expediency seemed to have governed the committee, and the policy of starting afresh was regarded as sure to avoid
