Those who are arranging for their home papers for the next year, will do wisely to send for sample copies of the Pittsburgh Gasette, Daily or Weekly, as it will be seen to be the best paper published in Pittsburgh. It is oldest, being nearly ninety years old, and has kept pace with all phases of and has kept pace with all phases of modera newspaper progress. It is printed in new type, and on clean, white, handsome paper. Its news is specially full, and accurate. It receives Cable news from Europe, and Dispatches from all parts of the country. It has Special Correspondents in Washington, during the session of Congress, and at Harrisburg during the session of the Levislature, and will session of the Legislature, and will give full reports of all that is interesting in the proceedings. Its Local news is complete and varied, yet chaste and pure. Its Editorials contain trenchant discussions of all current subjects, and deal independently with all the issues of the hour. The paper is Republican in Politics, but holds that the party is superior to cliques and rings. Its Market Reports are specially full and complete, and have a reputation that is widespread, for accuracy and reliability. Its reports of the Live Stock market are also the best in the city. In frequent instances, parties in the country have saved or made considerable sums by following the accurate reports of prices, given in the Gazette, in making their sales. It also contains Agricultural, Household, and Family, and in the contains agricultural, thousehold, and the contains agricultural that the contains agricul It also contains Agricultural, Household, and Family reading, carefully selected. Thus it is a family paper of great excellence and rare cheapness, as to price. Its circulation is the largest of the Pittsburgh press. The Gazette is furnished at the following rates, and we claim that they afford the cheapest newspaper published, when the size and quality of the paper are considered: per are considered : TERMS:

The life of a farmer is not necessarily hard or slavish. Thought, skill and care have their reward here as surely as elsewhere, and in as large measure. Men who lack these find any business hard and slavish enough. but the fault is in the man, not in the occupation. It is rare to find men honest enough to see and confess their failures. Were they to do so the anskillful and therefore unsuccessful farmer would be compelled to say:
"Farming is not a bad business. It is,
when rightly conducted, honorable and profitable. Money has been made in it by men who have the faculty of

The idea that milk is "feverish" has exploded, and it is now the physician's great reliance in bringing through typhoid patients, or those in too low a state to be nonrished by solid food. It is a great mistake to scrimp the milk pitcher. Take more milk and buy less meat. Have large-sized, well-filled milk pitchers on the table each meal, and you will also have sound meal, and you will also have sound flesh and light doctors' bills.—Ez.

"What do you do for a living?" asked a farmer of a burly heggar who applied at his door for cold victuals and old clothes. "I don't do nothing much but travel about," was the answer. "Are you good at travelling?" asked the farmer. "Yes," replied the beggar. "Then let's see you travel," said the farmer.

"Come in, there's fire in the parlor," were the words we heard as we passed hurriedly along the street en route for home from our office, the other even-ing. WHY IS THIS THUS?

Because 1st, Mr. Wise pays no large figures for rent, as he owns the building he occupies. 2d, he doesn't pay a cutter $2500 to $5000 a year, but does his own cutting, and is not excelled in this line in Western Pennsylvania. 3t, he have cloths for cash, thus getting a reduction on ordinary rates. 4th he sells for cash, and thus has no bad debts to make up.

The fare is 650, from this place to Tidicate, and at the present time, you can go up in the morning and back at 3:30, having three hours in Tidicate to select your goods and leave your orders.
