LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Special Notice.

The editor of this paper will be absent for about two months from date, and his business during that time will be left in the hands of Mr. J. E. Wenk.

Rev. Elliot will preach in the Presbyterian church on Sunday next, morning and evening Sabbath School at 3 o'clock p. m.

Mrs. W. W. Grove, and Miss Ella Davis are at present quite sick. Fresh butter is in demand in our market.

Judge Taft, of Ohio has been appointed Secretary of War, and has accepted the appointment.

Those of our patrons who favored us with cash within the past few days will please accept our heartfelt thanks.

Mr. Gunning's school closes in about two weeks, and Mrs. Walter's for one week from this date.

Some galsot threw ashes on the crossing in front of the Central House yesterday, and thus checked the mud from pursuing the even tenor of its way.

Mr. Gunning's school closes in about two weeks, and Mrs. Walter's for one week from this date.

Messrs. Wheeler & Dusenbury have already commenced rafting at Newtown. They propose running four or five "Alleghenies" to the lower markets this spring.

This morning the river is bank-full, and still on the rise. If things go on this way for awhile we may expect rafting to commence soon.

A couple of young ladies hand us the following item this morning: "A Western New York paper speaks of a tape-worm removed from a lad that was 36 feet long and had over 1,100 joints."

Lacytown Correspondence.

LACYTOWN, Mar. 4, 1876.

ED. REPUBLICAN:—How beautiful is this hill-bound village, with its fringe of frost, and snow, glittering in the sunlight; her temples are the hills; her orators the "murmuring pines and hemlocks."

We noticed Dr. Coburn in town during the first part of the week attending a sick child. The Doctor has called here several times and appears to be well liked.

The population of Lacytown is now about one-fifth that of Tionesta; the increase during the last two years being nearly one-third.

We mentioned once the harboring of one raft,—now we have the pleasure of remarking that Messrs. Arner, Furman & McCray are launching the ninety-and-nine in earnest, and things look business-like.

Mr. Homer Towner is still in town, but will join his family, in Kansas in the spring. We wonder if "Forest county should go to Kansas, or Kansas come to Forest county."

Some very exciting races have taken place lately; that is, two or three hounds get after a petted tabby cat, and while the enraged owner waves a broomstick and cries "shoo!" the boys slip gravely around the corner.

We did not attend the donation of Rev. Rhodes, hence cannot give you the details; but we do know that there is a splendid place for sliding down hill behind Chase's,—so farewell until next week.

I DE CLARE.

Messrs. Grove & Hart have commenced operations on the oil well at the upper end of town, and the work is progressing rapidly. We were slightly in error last week, in giving the production of the well sunk near there some years ago.

The Tidoute News of last Thursday says that a fire was discovered in the elegant unfinished residence of Jahu Hunter this morning between four and five o'clock, which resulted in its total destruction.

Old Fred Hyren, "the prophet," is again around, and on Sunday afternoon, preached to quite a crowd which had congregated on the walk opposite the M. E. Church.

One night recently, we were coming down the side-walk, when, just above Mr. Tate's office, where the walk is about four feet from the ground with nothing to prevent one from walking right off, we heard a terrible splashing and floundering about in the mud below.

Prof. Klein's dance was unusually well attended last Friday evening, about 30 couples being present. A refreshing oyster supper was served at the Rural House, just across the street from the hall.

—It's awfully embarrassing to pass a couple of young ladies whom you have always tried to please, and just as they get by, have them "alien!" Then when you come to examine find your necktie on crooked.

—The Democratic County Committee met on the 28th ult., and elected John Woodcock Senatorial, and J. M. Kepler Representative delegates to the Democratic State Convention, to be held on the 22d of March.

—Through some misunderstanding, or defect in the title to the lands sold by the Government at Tionesta, Feb. 25, the parties purchasing them refuse to take them until the Government "can read its titles clear," &c.

—About 500 fish were hauled out, high and dry, on Monday afternoon by several of our citizens. Of course they were caught with lines. We didn't see any of them, but a friend informs us they were "nice ones."

—M. Carpenter, the Artist, has secured the agency of a Union City house, and will receive orders for enlarging pictures to any size desired. He has shown us some samples which are as fine as any we ever saw. Give him an order.

—A Lodge of Good Templars was organized at West Springcreek, Warren county, Monday evening of last week, by D. D. G. W. C. T., G. W. Brown, called "Springcreek." It started off with thirty-eight charter members.

—Notwithstanding the mud is hub-deep, our farmers and others 'round the country are rushing in stave bolts to the mill of Derickson & Co. at a lively rate. They have nearly if not quite five hundred cords piled about the premises.

—And yet no missive from the boss. We hardly know what to make of this. Hope he is still among the living, and that he may soon return and shoulder the responsibilities of the institution. We're becoming very tired of it, and no doubt our readers are also.

—A great many of our readers have an idea that the market report which we publish every week is merely for show, and not for any particular benefit. To all such we can say that it is corrected weekly by Mr. Robinson, who keeps posted in the run of the markets, and the report may be relied on for accuracy.

—We see posted in conspicuous places throughout town, notices to the effect that our borough council will receive sealed proposals for the building of a stone bridge across Council Run, on Elm St. This is a much needed improvement, and one that should have been made before this in consideration of both economy and safety.

—Thos. R. Cowell, Merchant Tailor of Oil City, is just receiving his spring and summer stock of Cloths, Cassimeres and Vestings, of his own importation. These are the best and finest fabrics ever brought to Western Pa., and which he will make up in the most fashionable style, and at as low prices as you can get the same quality of goods any where.

—To judge from what took place one evening last week, one might think that our young ladies were perfectly oblivious of the fact that this is leap year. At a social gathering twelve young gentlemen were compelled to search their way home through mud and darkness, while nearly as many of the ladies did the same. Had we been there we'd have felt very much slighted.

—One day last week, while the stave mill was running at "full drive," a pulley and belt burst and scattered the fragments from one end of mill to the other. No one was hurt except Zip Guiton, and he not seriously. He was in the act of picking up the wheelbarrow when the belt broke and struck him. Zip straightened up very suddenly, and turning around exclaimed, "Who the d— hit me with that stave?"

—The Sugar Grove Journal reproduces our article in regard to the tramp printer, and says: "That won't go round! The tramp probably had a bottle of the ardents before coming into the office, and our brother begged it. If he gave him 20 cts. it was undoubtedly a bogus shin-plaster. Don't preach that into us; just think if that was logic how many wives would be drunk half of the time."

We suppose the editor of the Journal knows this to be illogical from the fact of his wife, if he has one, having so informed him.

—Mr. Merryman is the president of a Clarion county institute. Wonder if his pupils think he is that sort of a man.—Holidaysburg Standard. And Traugh is the name of the editor of the Standard. Wonder if the hogs think he is that sort of a man.—Clarion Democrat.

—"Pull down your vest" is succeeded by the equally senseless and useless "Wipe off your chin." The use of these expressions, as they are interjected into speech is as difficult to determine, as their origin.—Tidoute News.

The next will probably be "Blow your nose," which may be very appropriately applied to those who now make use of these slang phrases.

—The FOREST REPUBLICAN says that a man named Haggerty came to Oil City where he was dropped and robbed of near a hundred dollars by some Oil City cutthroats, who left him in the cold unable to seek shelter, and while in this condition his feet were badly frozen. When did this occur? We had not heard of it.—Derrick.

—Mr. G. W. Brown organized a Lodge of Good Templars at Irvineton, a few weeks ago, which is thriving nicely,—starting with 28 charter members—they now number 50. Mr. B. is D. D. G. W. C. T. of this county, and will be here in a few days for the purpose of re-organizing the old Tionesta Lodge, which has laid dormant for a long time.

—The Oil City Council voted to make the Mayor's salary one dollar per annum, and now they see where they missed it. The Derrick says:

One of our citizens wrote to the Attorney General of the State recently, inquiring about the fees to be given to the Mayor. The reply was that under the new constitution he could not receive the fees or fines from a trial of the police cases, nor could the Council change his salary after his election.

—Jakey Wenk, of the FOREST REPUBLICAN, illuminated his office on the evening of Washington's birthday, by putting his head up to the front window. The REPUBLICAN was the most brilliantly illuminated office in the borough.—Vanguard Citizen.

Much obliged, sir. But you are slightly mistaken,—it was the Press office that was illuminated. Our countenance illuminated the ball-room of the Lawrence House on the evening in question. It might be well to state that the Citizens tried to illuminate as above stated, but all that could be seen was a bright spark glittering in one of the windows,—the editor's nose.

—A lady correspondent writes to know what nation furnishes the best domestics; in reply to which we say that although we are not very well posted in such matters we feel that we can safely pronounce in favor of our country. Newark, N. J., furnishes the "Light-Running Domestic," and are to be found at any office or agency of the "Domestic" Sewing Machine Company.

Mrs. C. M. Heath has just received the largest and most complete assortment of sewing machine needles ever brought to town. She keeps the only sewing machine needles for sale in town. Her place of business is in the Acomb Building, up stairs.

All that could be done, was done restores her, but in vain. Adaline's voice soothed her in wild words of delirium, and in Adaline's voice that convinced she could yet be saved. Clara died a true Christian, in the words: "Father, mother; I come."
