-We copy a petition, which was presented to the Legislature lately, which is a curiosity in its line. It came up from Cherrytree, in Venango Co. It is as follows:

Mr Park presented the following, which was read :

CHERRYTREE, PA., Mar. 7, 1876. To the Honorable Representatives of 91101 3

"We, the undersigned citizens of Cherrytree township and taxpayers of this Commonwealth, we will be held for the indebtedness of Vennugo county, which we will be stricken from by such a bill into the said new countywhich the indebtedness of Venango If some D. D. S. could get a contract county is now two hundred and sixty thousand dollars at seven per cent interest.

"All the suits of Venango county occur from Allegheny, Oil Creek, and townships adjoining Oil Creek; and all the suits in Crawford county before the court originate from the city of Titusville and vicinity. They have all the facilities by railroad to their they are fit subjects.

Now we the undersigned, do ever pray that the Honorable Representa-tives will set aside any such bill." Numerously signed.

The above was scarcely drawn up by a schoolmaster, yet it is a heavy hit at somebody -especially Venango and Crawford counties, with a side slam at Forest; with a "God forbid that the poverty stricken town (Titusville) should be struck into Venango Co.' We do not object to receiving Titusville, as we could make her citizens rich in a short time. Titusville by being attached to Forest for judicial and school purposes, could be improved brought out of her moral and financial misery ; but Cherrytree would be a bad pill, as it would require so heavy a school tax to be levied to bring them up to the standard of the 19th century, that they could not afford to pay any taxes for county androad purposes.

Southern Travels.

At Sand Point Landing, on Indian River, are two stores, Pace's and Dr. Seymour's. The former sells Dry Goods, Groceries, and all the necessaries of life, except sp. frumenti, which, together with tobacco and Indian River curiosities, is sold at Dr. Seymour's. Venango county, Pennsylvania, Wm. The Dr. is a northern man, and a Den-Hasson, J. M. Dickey, John P. It is strange, but true, that you will scarcely meet a native of Florida, outside the larger towns, with good teeth. of filling with gold the unsound teeth of that people, he could snap his fingers at hard times and orange groves, and live like Boss Tweed. The reason they give for this unsoundness, is the use of syrups, oranges &c., from babyhood to age.

We were speaking of the stores of and the meintides by railroad to then own county seat, also to Warren and county seat of Forest county, Tionesta and Venango county. God forbid that the poverty stricken town should be struck into Venango county. We would advise them to be struck into Forest county, for which we think tobacco, and oranges. Ou our way there, however, one of Magrudor's dogs took a small hold of one of Paget's legs, and he gave a terrible kick at the animal, and landed on his shoulders. It reminded us of the way we used to play foot hall. Nobody was burt, however, and after supper we listened to Mr. Magrader until nearly ten o'clock, and this time he discoursed to us on the subject of lands, some of which he had for sale, all along the river.

If the "Majah" were located in the North her vote against Democracy. Next! he would be a life insurance agent ; one of the kind that Max: Adler writes about.

> We started with a fair wind, and passed Titusville about noon. Here we saw our first "turtle crall," which consists simply of an enclosure made of slats or boards driven close together in the water, in which turtles are put when they are caught, until they are wanted for the table. This "crall" contained two turtles, perhaps fourteen inches in width and eighteen in length. Instead of the fore legs, are a pair of "flippers, resembling the picked wing of a chicken. These were used as paddles, and enable the turtles to go through the water quite swiftly.

About fifteen miles from Sand Point, is simply a plantation with one house, in which the P. O. is located. The proprietor had a fine grove of orange trees, only five years old, which were bearing abundantly. Here also, we saw the pomegranate, the guava, the sugar apple, and some other curious plants, among which was the century plant, the Spanish bayonet, and the aloe. The house was pleasant and the grounds well kept. The "Majah" showed us this plantation just to let us owing me to call and settle before the know what we could do in five years, first of April. After that time all acland he had for tale.

Brooks, Schumaker and King, and now Pendleton and Belkuap are examples of this fact. This is the more. surprising in the latter case, when it is known that the Clymer Committee to numerous to mention never intended to bring Pendleton out, but were driven to it. Criminaltiy of Pendleton's conduct was, in some respects, greater than that of Belknap's. The latter did not rob ALL GOODS WARRANTED the Government, while the former did. He pushed through a claim that was fraudulent and corrupt in every particular. So corruption, as applied to individuals, has an even trade off between the two parties, -Previous to the New Hampshire election, the Democratic leaders were happy ! One would have thought the Southern Confederacy had come back to life, or that Jeff. Davis had received the war portfolio, so happy were the Bourbon leaders over the shortcomings of Belknap. Judas betrayed his Saviour, but he did not kill Christianity, and Democracy will soon temper its unseemly joy by the discovery that the Belknap betrayal has not injured the cause of Republicanism. Men may fail, but just principles will live forever.
