LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

NOTICE.

There will be a meeting of the Republican County Committee at E. L. Davis' office, Monday evening, May 16th, at 7 o'clock.

TEAMS WANTED.—To draw bark from the woods, at BROOKSTON TANNERY.

The name of Hon. J. B. Agnew is this week announced as a candidate for re-election to the Assembly.

It will be noticed by reference to our announcements, that E. L. Davis, Esq., is a candidate for Congress, subject to the action of the Republicans at their Primary Meetings.

Fancy spring styles boots and shoes, just arrived at Freeman & Corbet's.

Mr. Alex. Wilson has again taken his boat Venture into the creek, and it is now tied up in its old quarters.

D. W. Agnew departed on Monday last for Philadelphia, where he takes a position as policeman, during the exhibition.

P. O. Conner is painting his residence and office, which said paint is an improvement. Alex. Henago is welding the brush.

Miss S. A. Dale has commenced painting her house. We hear, however, that she is not satisfied with the color, and will change it.

The Odd Fellows have purchased a safe of Mr. Alex. Gordon, and have moved it to their hall, for the purpose of protecting their books from fire.

Those of you who skip the light fantastic, bear in mind the Grand Centennial Party, to be given at the Lawrence House this evening. McCray's Band.

Warm rains make vegetation get up and sprout. Garden sass is beginning to look up, and trees to leave. An abundant crop of apples is predicted for this season.

The stove mill is again in operation, and will be kept going as long as the present large supply of bolts lasts. The Dithridge mill is also running, with a big stock of logs on hand.

Kirt Johnson tells a story about a litter of kittens in his possession, three of which are joined together after the manner of the Siamese twins. This must be a Captianial effort.

Selden Whitman, Jas. and Geo. Huddleson, and a couple of other men, took a raft of ties to Franklin last week. We understand the raft was sold at 45cts per tie, to the A. & G. W. R. R.

Senator Thomas and lady started for Philadelphia on Monday last, in order to be present at the opening ceremonies of the Centennial. There are places reserved for the members of the Senate and House of Pennsylvania.

A Tribute to the Memory of Louie Magill.

She has gone home! Our dear one—home to the "house of many mansions"—and though now our eyes are heavy with weeping, and our hearts dull with pain, in a little while, we will be able to hear the sweet words of consolation which, from the first, Christ has been whispering to us, that our darling has found rest.

I think that last sad night, when the shadows were slowly gathering, she must have been glad that the end was so near; she must have felt that sense of triumph so beautifully expressed by Alice Carey:

Oil Meeting.

A meeting of the stockholders of the Citizens Oil Association of Tionesta, was held last evening at the Court House. There was a fair attendance.

S. H. Haslet was called upon to state the object of the meeting, which was, to consider the propriety of abandoning the well, or putting it deeper.

Moved by Jos. Grove that the well be abandoned. This occasioned a general discussion, at the close of which Mr. Grove withdrew his motion.

The managers were instructed to circulate a subscription paper for the purpose of procuring funds to drill the well to the depth of six hundred feet.

Adjourned to meet on Saturday evening next at the same place.

At present the prospect is that the well will be put down two hundred feet further.

By the Clarion papers, we notice that Mr. T. J. Payne, of Farmington township, is a candidate for the Democratic nomination for Sheriff of Clarion county.

Mr. J. T. Dale has been appointed Deputy Prothonotary, Register, &c. The appointment is a good one, Mr. Dale being in all respects competent to fulfill the duties of the office.

J. E. Wenk, on Saturday last wounded and captured an uncommon kind of bird, which was decided to be a moor-hen. Its body was about the size of a pigeon, and its bill was beautifully marked with scarlet.

—Fresh Maple Molasses, Forest county production, for sale at $1.25 at Robinson & Bonner's.

Lacytown Correspondence.

LACYTOWN, May 5, 1876.

—Lyme Cook has removed to East Hickory, being engaged by Mr. Collins, as foreman on the mill at that place. Another of our young men will also be absent during the summer months.

—Mr. Wilcox, who ran the flouring mill here some few years ago returned last Wednesday. He talks some of making this his place of residence in the future.

—Trouting as yet has not been indulged in by many; the largest trout we have heard of was hauled out by Miss Geneva Gilfillen, a young lady over whose head about eight trouting seasons have wriggled off Time's hook.

—Mr. Walker has moved his household goods into the Matha house and is making garden; we are not informed whether he intends living there.

—A flock of sea-gulls, perhaps fifty in number, alighted in the pond on Wednesday. Mr. L. Arner went after his rifle, and succeeded in reaching the pond just as they flew out of range of the rifle.

—House-cleaning is now on the programme, and there is hardly a yard or clothes-line but what is filled with carpets, quilts, &c., and the men congregate on the bridge to discuss whitewash and politics.

—Miss Fanny Siggins is visiting at Mr. J. Gilfillen's.

—Geo. Lacy Jr. says his father is improving, and is considered by the doctors to be out of danger.

I DE CLARE.

—Mr. W. C. Merven, who has taught the East Hickory Schools for some two or three seasons past, will open a subscription school in this place, on Monday next, the school building having been placed at his disposal by the directors.

—Prof. Ogden, assisted by his class, will give a concert of vocal and instrumental music at the Court House, in this place, on Tuesday evening next, 16th inst. We are given to understand that his class has made surprising progress in vocal music; also, that the instrumental part of this concert will be first-class in every particular.

—J. T. Brennan, Commissioner's Clerk, was, some time ago, appointed Deputy Sheriff, by Mr. Shawkey. Should the business of the office ever be such as to demand Mr. Brennan's full time, he will be found "on deck," able and willing to perform in a satisfactory manner all the duties incumbent upon his position.

—A Mr. Klinordlinger of Pittsburgh, informed one of our citizens a few days ago, that Max. Hilbrunner was sick in one of the hospitals of that city. He accomplished a good part of the distance between Texas and Pittsburgh, on foot. We presume, therefore, that his sickness is the result of exposure.

—Mr. John Everhart, of Lickingville, is going into blooded stock, especially chickens, extensively. He bought five pairs of blooded chickens, of Mr. Brown, of Pleasantville, on Monday last, and also took home with him a Durham calf.

—The June number of Ballou's Magazine is issued, and is as full of interest as ever. It contains a continuation of M. Quad's great story of "That Taylor Boy," one of the most remarkable series of the year, a thrilling sea-yarn, quite a number of nice domestic stories, several pieces of poetry, a dozen or so illustrations, Patent Coupler's humorous department, a household department, and other matters of interest, too numerous to mention. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley Street Boston, at $1.50 per year, and for sale all over the country.

—Fresh Maple Molasses, Forest county production, for sale at $1.25 at Robinson & Bonner's.

For Sale or Rent.

The Lawrence House property will be rented for three years, on reasonable terms, or will be sold, to a responsible buyer, with or without furniture. This is a new and large three-story house, with a dancing hall in third story; has a billiard room with two fine tables, attached. A new barn; a good house, renting for $60 per year, and the stove mill, renting for $72 a year, go with the house.

—J. O. Strong, dealer in Hardware, of all kinds, Tidioute, Pa., invites all wishing anything in the hardware line to give him a call.

Teachers' Examinations.

The public Examinations will be held as follows:

- Marienville, May 12. Clarrington, " 13. Nebraska, " 15. Newtown, " 16. East Hickory, " 17. Neillsburg, " 18. Tionesta, " 19.

MONEY.

We will pay cash on delivery at our mill in Tionesta, for white oak stave and heading bolts at the following prices: Stave bolts, 35 inches long, per cord of 8 ft. by 4 ft., $4.50.

FOR SALE.

The valuable and beautiful homestead formerly owned by Hon. Joseph G. Dale, and in which he now resides, is in my hands for sale at very low figures. Terms—one-third purchase money down, and the balance in one and two years.

—Garden seeds at Robinson & Bonner's,—just as good as Vick's. No risks to run by sending money by mail.

—Those beautiful lots just north of Mrs. Henry's residence can be bought cheap, on long time, by applying to the editor of this paper.

MARRIED.

HYFIELD-KIFFER.—In East Hickory, Tuesday, May 3d, 1876, by J. Green, Esq., Mr. John Hyfield, of Venango county, and Miss Helen Kiffer, of East Hickory, Pa.
