CORRECTION.

Last week, in publishing the call for the "Republican Primaries" we made the date on the 17th of June, when it should have been the 24th.

Withdrawal.

TRONESTA, May 30, 1876.
ED. REPUBLICAN:-
Dear Sir:-My name was announced some weeks ago, through the columns of your paper, as a candidate for Congress, subject to Republican usages.

Rev. Elliot will preach in the Presbyterian church on Sunday next, morning and evening. Sabbath School at 2:30 o'clock p. m.

Charlie Brooks is down with measles.

Robinson's addition, which shuts out our south view, goes bravely up, and will soon be ready for business.

The rising man for the United States District Judgeship seems to be R. G. Carmichael, Esq., of Pittsburgh.

Croquet, at the Central House grounds is patronized somewhat, but not with that enthusiasm it once produced.

Roads are getting good, and teaming is lively. Tolls on the river bridge come in briskly, and business promises well.

C. C. Thompson, Esq., of Tidoute, Pa., called upon us on yesterday morning. He is a successful lawyer and a successful Insurance Agent.

Messrs. S. H. Haslet, Jno. Peterson, and J. M. Kepler, are announced in the Forest Press as candidates for the Democratic nomination for Assembly.

Ex-Sheriff Van Giesen is putting the finishing touches on his house, and it will soon be ready for occupation. It is a roomy, comfortable, and tasty-looking house.

Attention is called to the new advertisement of Miles Smith, dealer in fine furniture, Franklin, Pa., which appears in this issue. When in Franklin, give him a call.

Even at this early period the question of having a grand celebration in Tionesta on the 4th of July is agitated. If we have one, let it be an old rouser.

Mr. Brush has moved into part of the Wagner house, the other part being occupied by Mr. W. G. Irwin and family. Mr. B. starts in right, and proposes to live at home.

TRONESTA, May 27, '76.

ED. REPUBLICAN:-Reading your paper of the 24th inst., I found that the proceedings of the Grand Jury, called on the 15th of May, were furnished to you by S. D. Irwin Esq., and as Sam, has tried to make some of the proceedings ridiculous, I thought it my duty to correct them:

First, the Jury did not act according to the instructions received from the Judge. As far as the school houses and female teachers are concerned, nothing was said of the latter, and it must appear in the eyes of every reader, that S. D. takes a great deal of interest in the said teachers; am sorry that Sam is married and cannot come in. The Dithridge & Co. dam matter is also sarcastically alluded to. Now this dam was reported, and two witnesses examined, who testified that it was a nuisance for those living along the line of the creek; and Mr. Irwin suggests and recommends that those men haul their lumber, by brute force, to the bridge, and thence to the Railroad depot. Now Sam, that is not fair. In regard to the recommendation to make Tuesday the proper day to convene the Court, this was done to save the county a heavy expense. Last Court we almost lost a whole day on that very account, and had the Grand Jury had jurisdiction, the Judge would have been fined, and I think the Jury was very mild in this case. Speaking about the Court House, would say that we did not inspect S. D.'s office; probably it does settle a little there. In conclusion, Mr. Irwin, please don't talk any Latin to us poor devils;—we don't understand that language,—give it to us in plain English, and much oblige us.

Respectfully, PETERSON.

Lacytown Correspondence.

LACYTOWN, May 26, 1876.

ED. REPUBLICAN:-

On Sunday morning a horse stepped on Alby Gillfillan's foot, injuring it quite badly. Dr. Colburn, who was passing at the time, took a few stitches in the wound, and at present, although not painful, his foot has a serious look.

A stray loon lighted in the pond Sunday, and Sam Walker shot it through the neck; since then he has prepared and stuffed the skin, which has a very loony appearance.

Mr. F. C. Clark and family of Titusville spent three days here, enjoying our good fishing and boating. They returned home with about forty brook trout, also kind regards of host and friends.

A woman passed through here the other day in search of her husband.

Miss H. M. Arner returned from Union City the first of the week. Mr. and Mrs. Arner left this morning for Parker. They intend to pass about ten days in the oil regions.

Mrs. Sanford, an old lady who lives on Weant Hill, is said to be very ill and quite destitute.

The swamp by the race is inhabited by millions of frogs. They are equal to the Swiss bell-ringers; such thrilling bass and heavy soprano; we think with two week's training under Prof. Ogden they would astonish the world.

Yesterday was observed by the Catholics. Some of our citizens of that creed had kept the Thursday before. They should have a reward of merit.

I DE CLARE.

List of Letters

Remaining in the Post Office, at Tionesta, uncalled for, May 31, 1876:

John Anderson 2, Geo. Bush, Russell Brown, Fred. Barisch, John C. Dempsey, Geo. Harrington, H. D. Hickok, John Olson, John Smith, John W. Smith, Wm. West.

J. M. McKAY, P. M.

We this week announce the name of Gen. Harry White, for Congress, subject to Republican usages. It is but proper to state that Gen. White, having carried Clarion county, has now no Republican opposition in the district. We publish the withdrawal of E. L. Davis Esq., of this county, in to-day's paper. Let the General have the full vote of the party at our primaries on the 24th of June.

Messrs. Wm. Lawrence, Davy Hillands and Jno. Hulings, had a grand old "trout" last week, going to Sheffield, and floating down the creek. They caught lots of trout, and had heaps of fun.

Old Mrs. Allie was in town on Saturday last, and walked around as spry as a widow of forty-five. This lady, who lives with her son, in the Huddleson Settlement, in this county, will be one hundred and one years of age some time in August next. She was interviewed in regard to the Centennial. She said she believed she would not go, as it was so far, she might die on the way; and if she did get there, it would be so crowded that she couldn't breathe. Her husband, one hundred years and five months old, died last summer.

Col. Knox and another prominent democrat of Clarion came over here on Monday evening, on business. It wasn't long before several of the leading democrats assembled with them in one of the rooms of the Central House, and the rumor went out that a democratic district convention was going on for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Senator. It was nothing of the kind, however; they were only agreeing upon how they would explain their defeat in November.

In the Warren Mail there are announced two candidates for Congress, one for State Senate, two for Assembly, five for Associate Judge, seven for Sheriff, and two for Prothonotary, all subject to Republican usages. These gentlemen were all forced out by their friends, and so far as we can find out, they are each and every one sacrificing their individual welfare to the good of their country. There will be at least thirteen of them, however, of whom this sacrifice will not be demanded.

The nomination of Mr. J. S. Rutan for consul at Florence, will meet with the same approbation which emphatically marked the reception of Cameron's appointment to the head of the War Department. Mr. Rutan is an able editor, an excellent and honorable legislator, has won praise from all sorts of people as speaker of the Senate, and will make an unexceptionable representation at Florence, if confirmed.

Mr. Jas. McGee, of Indiana, Pa., and his bride, spent a few days with M. W. Tate, Esq., returning home on Monday morning last. Mr. Mc. is a brother of Mrs. Tate's, and is a very pleasant gentleman. His bride is fair and intelligent, and their lives bid fair to be happy and useful. While here, a few friends were invited to Mr. Tate's house to meet them, and a pleasant little party was the result.

Mr. J. D. W. Reek has placed us under obligations by presenting us with a fine mess of trout, which were devoured with grateful feelings. Mr. R. and S. Brandenburger had a regular old trout last week; going from here to Sheffield by rail, and thence floating back here by boat, and fishing the trout streams on the way. They had a fine time, and caught a nice lot of fish.

The potato vines, as they appear above ground, are covered with that striped, shell-backed pestilence known as the Colorado potato bug. It is prophesied, thus early, that the potato crop will be thin, on this account. We are inclined to believe, on account of the bug starting in so close to the tuber, that he will eventually be carried off by tuberculosis.

The Baltimore Gazette (Dem.) is terribly indignant over the action of the Ohio Democratic State Convention, and says: "Ohio Democrats must be cut out of the party—not in anger, but in cool deliberation, like cutting out a tumor. There are hundreds of Democrats who would rather vote for Bristow and hard money than for Old Bill Allen and the rag baby."

J. Billings has said that "the best time to set a hen, is when the hen wants to." It appears that nearly all the hens in town want to set just now, and there is a great deal of scrambling for suitable eggs, those which come in from the country having been jostled too much.

We said a few weeks ago that Mr. Fones would not run his fountain this summer on account of the scarcity of ice. Well, Jim has found a place to get it now, and to-day started the fountain in good shape. Just call around at the Drug Store and hear it fiz.

Mr. W. C. Merven will deliver a free lecture at the M. E. Church in this place, on Friday evening next, his subject being "Science and Theology." Mr. Merven cordially invites the public to attend.

No general move having been made to observe decoration day, the scholars and teacher of the school, yesterday afternoon marched in a body to the cemetery, where Mr. Merven delivered a short address, and the graves were finely decorated by the scholars. A few of our citizens were present as spectators. We are glad to note that the day did not pass without observation.

Mr. J. J. McGinniss left his home, about two miles west of Emlenton Bridge, Scrubgrass township, last week, since which nothing has been heard of him. He is 83 years of age, and had on dark winter clothes. Also walks with two canes. Any person giving information at the Emlenton Postoffice, or at his home, will be liberally rewarded.

Dr. Blaine met with a painful accident last evening which will partially disable him for some weeks to come. While leading his horse to water, the animal became frightened at Derickson & Co.'s steam whistle, and jumping suddenly, gave the Dr.'s right knee a wrench, which has caused him considerable pain, and obliges him to use crutches.

The Proof Sheet, for May, published by Collins & McLeester, and edited by Eugene H. Monday, has been sent us. It is the most beautiful number which has ever been issued from that office. The mechanical and editorial work on this number reflects great credit on the firm. May the Proof Sheet live long and prosper.

During the past week, most of our citizens who have "garden spots," have worn out a great deal of shoe-leather running around endeavoring to get some man to do their plowing. Those having the requisite teams and plows have been kept very busy. Seed potatoes seem to be the scarcest article in market just now.

While in Franklin, on Tuesday evening of last week we had the pleasure of attending a festival at the M. E. Church, the object of which, we believe, is to raise money to purchase a new organ. It was a grand affair, and we enjoyed it immensely. The refreshments were first-class.

Treasurer Setley has put a neat fence in front of his property, and this with previous improvements makes his a desirable residence. He proposes, some time in the near future to make an alley on each side of his lot, which will be a great convenience.

Hon. Jno. A. Dale and lady started to the Centennial last week, and more of our citizens are to follow soon. Messrs. J. T. Dale and O. W. Proper returned last Monday, and express themselves highly pleased with the exhibition.

We this week publish the professional card of W. E. Lathy, Esq., who has returned to Tionesta to resume the practice of law. His office is between the Lawrence House and Forest Press office.

"Look out for the reaction!" warns the man. "I am calm and peaceful now, and I hope you won't bring back those terrible, fiendish thoughts which burned in my heart as molten lava slips down the rugged sides of Mount Vesuvius!" "You pay for that drink!" "Now I rage again!" yelled the man. "Now the soothing influence has passed away. Nothing on earth can calm me again!"
