Time of Trains

Table with 2 columns: Train No. and Time. Includes Train 22 (South) and Train 53 (North).

Train 22, south, and 21, north, are 1st class; the others are accommodation freights. These trains only are allowed to carry passengers.

On the River Division, i. e. from Oil City to Irvineton, up the river is North; down the river, south.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Rev. Elliot will preach in the Presbyterian church on Sunday next, morning and evening. Sabbath School at 2:30 o'clock p. m.

Nearly all the towns and cities in this section of country will celebrate on the 4th of July.

As far as we have been able to learn there have been no Centennial passengers from this place during the week past.

Samuel Brandenburger departed on Saturday for Indiana State, where he has some relatives living. He will be gone about two weeks.

We are under obligations to Hon. J. B. Agnew for a copy of the Report of the Secretary of Internal Affairs, of Pa., for 1874-5.

It appears that we were misinformed in regard to Mrs. McKay's trip. She went to Iowa direct, and not by way of Philadelphia.

The bridge toll house is again under the care of Geo. Scott, who attended to taking the tolls for several months after the bridge was completed.

Geo. Robinson started for Pittsburgh yesterday, where he will remain a few days, on business. The business at home will be run as usual, by "the boys."

The plastering of Van Giesen's house was finished yesterday, the work being done by R. Struken. We believe the house is now completely finished, ready for occupation.

Col. L. F. Watson, of Warren has received the Republican nomination for Congress in Warren county, and C. W. Stone, Esq., the nomination for State Senate. Both are good men.

Refreshing rains have moistened the earth for a day or two past, much to the delight of grangers and farmers generally. Moreover it puts a stop to croquet for the time being.

The Treasurer's Sales on Monday were well attended, and some of the lands sold well. The sale was adjourned until July 10, to be continued from time to time until all the tracts are sold.

Geo. Sawyer was bitten, or stung, by a large spider on Friday last, and the result is a swelled head and stiff neck. He was laid up until yesterday morning. We do not anticipate that it will give him much more trouble.

The well at Jamieson's is doing from six to eight barrels daily. Fifty barrels were shipped from this well last week. The well is now owned by Quaintain Jamieson, and is a nice little income for a young man to have.

We were last week informed that the railroad officials had made arrangements to fix the wagon road, along the railroad, from Jamieson's to the Tionesta depot, in a first-class manner, and that the township officers were to keep said road in repair thereafter. Whether such arrangements have been made, of course we cannot say, but tell us as was told to us.

Fourth of July Meeting.

The meeting on Saturday evening was called to order, and the various committees reported progress. The committee on oratory, history &c., reported that they had secured the services of M. W. Tate and W. E. Lathy Esqs., as orators; S. D. Irwin Esq., as historian; E. L. Davis Esq., to read the Declaration of Independence; Mr. W. C. Merven, to read a poem.

A committee of four special policemen was appointed, consisting of W. J. Roberts, Justin Shawkey, G. W. Boyard and H. A. Adams, to be under the direction of the marshal of the day.

The Table Committee of ladies was ordered increased to twenty-five, to be appointed by the chair and published. The following is the list:

- Mrs. J. G. Dale, Chairman.
Mrs. P. D. Thomas, G. W. Dithridge.
H. H. May, J. L. Craig.
A. Weller, T. J. Van Glesen.
S. H. Haslet, Jas. Woodington.
W. J. Roberts, John Hart.
J. B. Blaine, Julius Rock.
P. O. Conover, Miss Alwidia Adams.
A. A. Proper, Clara Heath.
J. D. Hullings, Florence Knox.
W. C. Coburn, Ella Davis.
J. A. Dale, Clara Hunter.
Justin Shawkey, Polly Hood.

Instructions were given to the committee on invitations, and another meeting was appointed for Saturday evening next.

Hot weather and fly-time are here. Ice cold lemonade and alpaca dusters are in good demand. Those who are well supplied with adipose tissue, perspire. Thin people get feverish. Summer hats, and light-colored cool dresses once more meet the eye. Our hills are clothed with verdure and garden sassa grows finely. As Esq. Irwin says, "The blue bird sings his sweet song on the gate-posts, and begins to set up in business for the summer." Industry thrives, indolence pants. Beauty blooms, and vice ferments. Canary birds sing, hens lay and the heart of man is glad. "Tired nature's sweet restorer" is indulged in, in season and out of season. If it were not for the primary elections we might look forward to a kind of a short millenium until the weather gets cooler.

Messrs. Cyrus Hunt and S. S. Towler have leased a large body of land adjoining Marionville, on which they propose to have a well put down, for oil, at once; having sub-leased to other parties who are to commence operations this week. The well is to be put down about two miles south of Marienville, on the belt which has been surveyed through from Edensburg to Bradford. On this tract, there were, at one time, two wells sunk, in one of which the tools are still fast. We understand the show was good when these wells were abandoned. We will endeavor to keep our readers posted in regard to the developments in that section.

We publish to-day the programme of Commencement at Beaver College, Beaver, Pa. Dr. R. T. Taylor, for many years its efficient President, has rendered the school famous for its musical advantages, and as a most desirable place for young ladies. Recently a Boys' Preparatory Course has been established, where young boys may be prepared for College or business. Several of our ladies have been students at Beaver and cherish an ardent love for their Alma Mater. Mr. H. H. May of our town has been a member of the Board of Trustees for several years. A sixteen hand piece with four pianos and grand organ accompaniment is to be a feature of the Concert the 21st.

By the Derrick of Monday we learn of a terrible accident which occurred at Miller's Eddy on Saturday last, whereby a little girl named Emma Plunkett, was instantly killed by the discharge of a gun in the hands of her grandfather, David Foringer. He was shooting rats, and just as his finger touched the trigger, the little girl ran in front of the gun, and received the charge in her forehead. The old gentleman is nearly crazed in consequence of the unfortunate and terrible affair.

Mr. Blaine, who at the present writing seems to have the lead at Cincinnati, was taken with a severe illness, something resembling sunstroke, on Sunday last. His friends were very uneasy about the result, but he is now recovering rapidly. Sunday was a very warm day in Washington, and the intense mental strain on Mr. Blaine for some weeks past, made him an easy victim to the stroke. He is on the high road to health just now, and his friends are duty thankful.

Lacytown Correspondence.

LACYTOWN, JUNE 9, 1876.

We understand that Tionesta intends celebrating the 4th of July in a glorious manner. Lacytown had thought of having a celebration, but now will send her big guns to assist at Tionesta, and perhaps the A. S. B. may join the parade.

A piece of machinery fell on Sam. Botton's right hand, smashing the three first fingers. Sam. is as obliging as ever in giving a lift with the left.

Mr. and Mrs. Weaver are absent on a visit to their friends at Red Bank.

Mr. J. Furman and Miss Emma Arner, our representatives at the Centennial, have returned. The latter spent about three weeks there and was highly pleased with the exhibition. More of our townspeople will go later in the season.

The valuable Kentucky hound belong to Mr. C. M. Arner broke loose on Thursday last, and it is feared has been shot by some malicious person. A large reward has been offered for his recovery if alive.

A party of four men left here for Edensburg, in quest of the work and high wages reported there; three of them returned and are working at the mills of Ford & Lacy. Moral: "Home, sweet home."

Peter Young had a horse shot and wounded. Yesterday he and Joe. Harrison made a visit to Tionesta, and we believe affairs were settled in a good neighborly way.

They do say that Frank Sanford is the swain that did the swine reporting in the Press. Please avoid any changes in the common nouns. I DE CLARE.

Beaver College.

The following is the programme of the Twenty-First Annual Commencement of Beaver College and Musical Institute, Beaver, Pa., from June 18th to 22d, 1876:

Sunday, June 18, 3 p. m.—Baccalaureate Sermon in College Hall, Rev. Riram Miller, D. D.

Monday, June 19, 7:45 p. m.—Under Graduate Exercises.

Tuesday, June 20, 7:45 p. m.—Annual Address, by Rev. E. B. Snyder, Allegheny City.

Wednesday, June 21, 8 p. m.—Annual Concert.

Thursday, June 22d, 3 p. m.—Annual Meeting of Trustees.

Thursday, June 22, 7:45 p. m.—Commencement. Address to the Graduating Class, Hon. J. W. F. White, Pittsburgh.

Examinations from Tuesday morning to Thursday noon.

The next Session will begin September 12th, 1876.

From the returns of the Venango county Republican primary elections, held on Saturday last, present appearances indicate that the nominees are as follows:

Congress, J. H. Osmer; President Judge, Chas. E. Taylor; State Senate, W. S. McMullen; Assembly, Jas. M. Dickey, Geo. E. Mapes and Wm. Gates; District Attorney, Wm. M. Francis; Jury Commissioner, Frank D. Nolan.

Ferd. Wenk is putting down a water well on his farm on Dutch Hill. A good vein was struck at forty-two feet, but the well is being put down sixty feet to form a basin to hold a good supply of the water. The hole is five inches in diameter. The well is being drilled by John Grubbs, who has several other contracts of the same kind on the hill, when this one is completed.

John Reek, who has for some time past been shipping meat from Oil City and selling it here, lost about fifty pounds of the same, which was left on his hands over Sunday last. This is unfortunate, but does not discourage John, who will continue his good work, and keep us well supplied with beef.

The time of the morning freight north, and the morning mail-south, has been changed, the two trains meeting at Tionesta depot at 9:10 a. m. Those contemplating Centennial journeys will please take notice.

It is said that Mr. Chas. McCray has purchased the Lawrence House property, the consideration being $10,500. We have not the authority of either of the parties for making this statement, but give it as we hear it.

The School Board of this place met on Monday evening last, and decided to open the public schools on the first Monday of September, to remain open four months. A month of vacation to follow, after which the schools are to be re-opened for three months. We believe there have, as yet been no applications for the positions of teachers.

Young man! Don't waste your spare change in frivolous amusements, but save it up and buy your mother or sister a new "Domestic." If you have no mother or sister, find some good-natured fellow that has, and he and the machine together may help you to a comfortable place in the family if you shine up to the sister right.

The town council met on the banks of Council Run yesterday morning, and decided that the foundations for the wing walls at the lower end of the bridge were insufficient, and should be made more solid, and in accordance with the contract. This we believe was done during the day.

Mr. Dingman has attached a hose, in some manner to the stove mill boiler, so that at a moment's notice he can throw a powerful stream of water all over the mill, and even upon the Lawrence House. The principle of this attachment is original with Mr. Dingman, and is a complete success.

Garden truck is being gobbled up by little black bugs, potato bugs and chickens, and the voice of mourning is heard in the land. Cabbage plants are in demand, and the sun wills them, so that the raisers of hot-bed plants do quite a rushing business.

Coming down the river on Saturday, we saw a fish, which was caught between Tidioute and Trunkeyville, which we judge would weigh fifteen pounds. On Saturday evening Ira Van Giesen caught one which weighed twenty-two pounds. Both of these fish were spoon sturgeons.

Thus far, we believe, there have been fewer fires in the woods of this county, than any year since we have taken up our residence here. The only fires we know of have been kindled by sparks from the locomotives, which of course, are unavoidable.

The boys have already commenced to celebrate the Fourth, and the snap of torpedoes and the report of fire crackers greets the ears of the people at all hours of the day. Of course this is somewhat of a nuisance, and of course it has to be put up with.

SHERIFF'S SALE.

BY VIRTUE of a writ of Fieri Facias, issued out of the Court of Common Pleas of Forest County, and to me directed, there will be exposed to sale by public vendue or outcry, at the Court House, in the Borough of Tionesta, on at 10 o'clock, a. m., the following described real estate, to-wit: Tr. Lambertson & C. W. Gillifflin vs. Geo. S. Hunter, Et. Al. No. 1 September Term 1875.—Gillifflin.—All that certain piece or parcel of land in Tionesta Township, Forest County, Pennsylvania, bounded and described as follows: One Island in the Allegheny River, about one-half mile below the Borough of Tionesta, commonly known as the Duzin Island, containing about twelve acres of land, more or less, of which about nine acres are improved and under cultivation.

Also, A double Island in the Allegheny River about two miles above the Borough of Tionesta, in Tionesta Township, Forest County, State of Pennsylvania, and originally named by the said Geo. S. Hunter, and originally known as the Jesse Dale Island, adjoining, contiguous to each other, containing in all about twenty-five acres, of which about 18 acres, more or less, are improved and cultivated.

Also, The undivided one-half of a certain piece or parcel of ground situated and being in the Borough of Tionesta, Forest County, Pennsylvania, containing three different lots as laid off in the plot made by Sickles, the proprietor, and situate at and below the east end of the Tionesta Bridge. Bounded on the west by the Allegheny River at low water mark, and on the south by lots and land owned by John A. Dale, and on which is erected one two-story frame house. Containing altogether one acre more or less.

Also, All the right, title and interest of Defendant in and to a certain piece or parcel of land in Tionesta Township, and west of the Allegheny River, being the southwest part of the tract of land surveyed on a warrant signed to Arlun Eck, and all that portion of the south and southwest of that portion of the same doled by Poland Hunter to his grand-daughter Ann Range. Bounded by the Allegheny River on the southwest, and on the southeast and the west by the lines of the original tract. Containing one hundred and fifty acres, more or less, of which about twenty-five acres were cleared and cultivated, but now partly grown up to brush. Taken in execution and to be sold as the property of Geo. S. Hunter, at the suit of H. Lambertson and C. W. Gillifflin & Co. Terms cash.
