Time of Trains

AT TIONESTA STATION, on and after July 2, 1876.

Table with 3 columns: Train No., Direction, and Time. Includes Train 22 (South) at 9:55 a.m. and Train 51 (North) at 5:00 p.m.

Train 22, south, and 21, north, are 1st class; the others are accommodations freights. These trains only are allowed to carry passengers.

On the River Division, a. from Oil City to Irvineton, up the river is North; down the river, south.

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Rev. Elliot, having almost fully recovered from his late illness, will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian church on next Sunday morning and evening.

WANTED.—Two good Carpenters, at Brookston Tannery, near Sheffield. G. Brooks & Co.

The long deferred letters of Tilden and Hendricks are out. They accept the compliment of a Democratic nomination.

Blackberries are a good crop this season, and rather earlier than usual. Many of our good people, who love berries, and do not dislike work, will go into the woods with cans &c., and put up a great amount of these berries.

A little daughter of Wm. Kilmer, an adopted daughter of Capt. Clark, of Hunter's Run, aged about four years, died on Sunday last, and was buried on Monday. The child was very intelligent, and was cared for by the Captain and his wife like one of their own, and will be sadly missed by them.

S. D. Irwin, Esq., has in his yard the greatest curiosity we have seen for some time. It is a mountain ash tree, grafted with scions of the pear, and the grafts are growing thriftily, and undoubtedly, in time will bear fruit. It is a strange sight to see the two varieties of limbs and leaves on the same tree.

Mr. Mathew Elder, an old pioneer of this section, whose present place of residence, is Cambridge Boro, Crawford Co., was in town on a visit to his old friends last week. He is looking and feeling well, and bids fair to live for many years to enjoy the scrip for which he sold his farm during the first oil excitement in this section.

The N. Y. Sun, (it shines for all) which furnishes several of our Democratic exchanges with campaign thunder, and which, since its bargain with Tilden has opposed Hayes, said this of him, May 9, 1876, before its Tilden bargain was made: "Governor Hayes is a man of talent; he is a gentleman; he is rich and independent; he served with credit as a soldier in the war, and his record as Governor of Ohio is without a flaw or spot."

We paid Edenburg a visit a few days ago, and we must say, although it pains us, that business is more brisk there than here, and every man you meet seems to have at least two dollars. Wages are pretty good there, pumpers getting from $2.00 to $2.50, and drillers from $2.50 to $4.50 per day. Jobs, however, are hard to get, except a man be a good tool-dresser, than he has no trouble. There is less poor territory about Edenburg than any oil district we ever visited. We saw over there, Chas. Harrington, Lou. Speer, T. J. McGill and S. C. Sloan, from this section, all of whom are busy and apparently doing well. We don't advise any of our readers either to go West, or to Florida. Edenburg's the place.

The Excursion.

The Chautauqua Excursion having occurred yesterday, and this being our regular day of publication, we will not be able to give an extended notice of the affair, but will briefly mention the principal points:

At 6 o'clock in the morning, the excursion train, consisting of a locomotive, baggage car and eight passenger coaches, pulled up at Tionesta Station. Of course there were a number of excursionists just a little behind time, but the conductor was an accommodating gentleman and waited until all got on. From this station there were between seventy-five and one hundred excursionists. At Hickory and Trunkville perhaps two dozen were added, but at Tidioute upward of two hundred, including the Rescue Cornet Band, boarded the cars. At Thompson, Irvineton, Youngsville and Garland, several more came in, and we were whirled away to the lake in fine style.

We arrived at Mayville at about 10 o'clock, a. m. and took the steamers Col. Phillips and Mayville, and enjoyed a splendid ride to Fair Point. Once inside the grounds (admittance 25cts.) our party scattered like a flock of sheep, each group following the basket which contained their dinners. Our particular group had the freedom of Elder Leslie's cottage, which was a favor duly accepted. We are also under obligations to Elder Leslie for piloting us about the grounds and explaining the apparatus to us.

When we arrived, Dr. Vincent, of New York was delivering a "review," and lectured on Sunday School lessons. We did not catch all his remarks, but what we did hear, were to the point, and well received by the audience.

After dinner, the North Carolinians, a troupe of plantation negroes of both sexes, sang several selections, all plantation hymns and melodies, which were thoroughly enjoyed and vociferously applauded.

Rev. Alfred Taylor, of New York delivered a lecture in the afternoon, which was one of the best we ever heard.

During the day, we walked through Palestine, explored Jerusalem, examined the Tabernacle, within which was the Golden Candelsticks, the Ark of the Covenant, and the Mercy Seat. Also a pyramid, which was got up on a plan one-thirtieth the size of the original. Numerous other sights we saw, which, to fully describe, would take up more space than we have to spare.

Fair Point is a place where a person of ordinary good taste may enjoy himself for weeks, or months, with none to molest or make him afraid. During the hot weather we have been having, this place has been cool and comfortable. It is a place where the weary can rest, the invalid recuperate, and the pleasure-seeker enjoy himself, all at a moderate price. Moreover, the man in pursuit of knowledge, particularly scriptural knowledge, can here learn more in a week, than he can by his own researches in a year.

Our party left Fair Point in sections, but all boarded the cars at Mayville at about 7 o'clock, p. m. All went well until within about four miles of Irvineton, when some of the machinery of the engine was broken, causing a delay of about an hour. The Tionesta delegation arrived at home about 12 o'clock at night, tired, but happy.

One thing needs explanation: Messrs. Canfield & Raydure, who projected the excursion, sold on the train, some two or three hundred tickets from Fair Point to Jamestown and return. The boat was to leave at a certain hour, and left about an hour before time, thus leaving several who had purchased tickets, at Fair Point. This was the result of a misunderstanding, for which, we understand, the captain of the steamer, Mr. Grandin, takes the blame Mr. Canfield redeemed all the tickets he could find, which were not used, and did his best to rectify the mistake.

The excursion was a complete success, and we venture to say that none who participated in it have since regretted their action.

This from Danville, Ky.: "The Democracy to-day celebrated the anniversary of the first battle of Bull Run by holding a Tilden and Hendricks ratification meeting." And thus the Democracy preserves the eternal unities. The rebels hope in November to again win a victory over the cause of Union and Liberty.

Lacytown Correspondence.

LACYTOWN, AUG. 7, 1876.

ED. REPUBLICAN:—Some of our young people are off for Chautauqua to-day.

The berry season is two weeks earlier than last year, and prices are moderately low for the first selling.

We notice in the Herald of last week that Mr. Clark killed a large rattlesnake on the road from Tionesta to Titusville. He had been trouting here the same day which accounts for his bravery in the snake affray.

We observed that the flourishing mercantile firm of Robinson & Bonner were represented here on Wednesday.

Miss Cook a most pleasing lady from Santa Barbara Cal., is visiting her brother Lyme in this place.

A party of ladies and gentlemen took advantage of the last days, and went trouting on Friday; they cooked their fish, fifteen trout and one chub, in the woods.

The startling report that Tom Stover had his head sawed off at Lacy's Mill reached us some time last week. They had better put a head on him.

Mr. Holbrook has been in town for some time past attending to his Forest Co., interests; he leaves for Cincinnati to-day.

Ed. Chase is home for a short time, he has been painting for the past two months in Edenburg; his business is a paying one in that place at present.

I DE CLARE.

On Thursday of last week, we accompanied Papa Baldwin, Horace Jones and Milo Goodrich, of Tidioute, on a woodcock hunt, on the river islands, beginning at Dustin's, and ending at Holeman's. The party had two dogs, which were as necessary as the guns, or the men to shoot them. Without these trained animals, no woodcock would rise, and no fine wing shooting would be displayed. On Dustin's island, we had a fine opportunity to display our marksmanship, the dogs having scared up a bird directly in our bailiwick. We aimed, pulled the trigger, and the gun snapped—and saved our credit. So it was throughout that blessed day. Whenever we got a fair sight on a bird, our gun snapped, and we had the satisfaction of grumbling over our gun, instead of our poor marksmanship. Each of the other hunters did good shooting, bringing down woodcock at nearly every crack of the gun. In company with Papa Baldwin, we left the party at Holeman's Island, and came home on the evening train. There is no better sport in this country than hunting woodcock, and if we are living and well, in September, we expect to join this party in another hunt. When that time comes we hope to have our gun in good order, and let our reputation as a shootist take its chances. There are no better men in the world to hunt with, than Papa Baldwin, Horace Jones and Milo Goodrich.

At a meeting of the School board of this place, held on Monday evening last, the following teachers of the various departments were chosen. Upper School; Mr. T. D. Dunn, of Crawford Co. Intermediate School; Miss Emma E. Arner, of Nebraska. Primary School; Mrs. Durcas Walters.

The Schools will commence on the first Monday of September next, and hold four months, when a vacation of one month will be had, followed by a three months' term. The teachers chosen bring with them experience in the latest methods of teaching, and we can confidently hope for good schools for the next seven months.

In Forest county the Sunday school scholars carry revolvers in their pockets. While riding to Sunday school last Sunday one of them fired at a squirrel and bit a comrade in the thigh.—Derriek.

We rise to remark that all Sunday School scholars in Forest county do not carry revolvers, only those who live in those regions infested by the beligerent bear, and the wicked wildcat. It might be well for the Derriek to select out some of the big bears of the Oil Exchange, and send them up here for our Sunday School scholars to shoot at. The shots do not always wound the scholar; sometimes they hit the mark.

TEAMS WANTED.—For bark hauling at Brookston Tannery. 18 St. G. Brooks & Co.

Information for Voters.

Many voters are annually deprived of the right of suffrage by a neglect to comply with the requirements of law relative to assessments and the payment of taxes.

All persons, to secure the right to vote in Pennsylvania, must be assessed two months before election, and have paid a State or county tax (either will do) within two years. In case the tax is paid this year, it must be a month preceding the election.

Foreign born citizens wishing to vote next November, must take out their naturalization papers a month before election. They must also be assessed two months previous to the day of voting.

The election will be held on "the Tuesday next following the first Monday of November," being this year on the 7th day of the month.

Monday, September 4th, is the last day for being assessed.

Tuesday, October 5th, is the last day for securing naturalization papers.

Tuesday, October 5th, is the last day on which taxes can be paid in legal time to vote.

The above dates should be carefully remembered and acted upon by all voters.

An Albany dispatch to the New York Times says Major P. H. Grady, a war Democrat and veteran, having been elected Captain of a Tilden Club, just organized, has declined the position in a letter to ex-Mayor Eli Perry, President of the club. He says:

"I always have been a Democrat, and have not been accustomed to bolting regular nominations; but I have also been a Union soldier, and I may as well confess that I find it very difficult to work up any great degree of enthusiasm for a Presidential candidate who pronounced the war for the Union a 'disgrace,' a 'failure,' and who did all he could to discourage enlistments to the army in the field. As a war Democrat I claim the right to vote for a patriotic and honest Union soldier in preference to a man whose selfishness and partisanship have always been more conspicuous than his patriotism; and I claim further that I do not forfeit my rights as a member of the Democratic party by so doing."

The Commercial Advertiser, of New York, deals with Tilden's railroad operations in very plain terms. It says: "The record shows him to be a thief—only this and nothing more—a common thief. A stockholder of the Alton and St. Louis road, placed in a position of trust, he issued in 1867, $194,000 of bonds in excess of what was authorized and pocketed this, at the same time charging the stockholders $20,000 for his services. This is theft—at least honest men call it so. The matter is in the Courts and the evidence is there, but the accused is a reform candidate for the Presidency."

It proves that there has been no unnecessary delay in prosecuting the parties guilty of the Hamburg murder. A coroner's jury has rendered its verdict, charging murder on General M. C. Butler, Col. A. P. Butler, Pierce Butler, Rev. J. Meeling and fifty-three others in South Carolina, and thirty others in Georgia. Warrants for their arrest have been issued, and requisitions have been made on the Governor of Georgia for those residing in that State. Governor Chamberlain is evidently ready to push the prosecution vigorously.

From the New York Graphic: "Governor Tilden has waited too long. The moral effect of his delay in writing his letter has damaged his prospects more than its pertinency can possibly help them. His silence tells against him. It raises a question as to his sincerity. It betrays his old weakness, which is to let courage wait on caution. He is too timid and hesitating by half for his own good. People don't take stock in men who need to calculate so much. If the Governor does not speak soon it will be a matter of comparative indifference what he says when he opens his lips."

The Westliche Post says: "Never, since Lincoln's first election, have Liberal Germans been as true Republicans, as unanimous, as resolved and ready for the combat as at this moment. The strength of the German vote of St. Louis to be cast for Rutherford B. Hayes will exceed by far the late dreams of the Republican party."

Hendricks will have to explain why he said this about the emancipation proclamation in 1863:

"I do not know whether that proclamation is going to be taken back or not; I am going to vote to take it back the first opportunity I get. It was a wicked thing to have issued."

Hon. Galusha A. Grow, who was one of the leading Greeley Liberals four years ago, is now a supporter of Hayes and Wheeler, and candidate for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Bradford district.
