Time of Trains.

AT TIONESTA STATION, on and after July 2, 1876.

Table with columns for Train No., Direction (South/North), and Time (a.m./p.m.).

LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

A Concert, consisting of singing, in which the children of the Sunday School will assist, will be given in Tionesta by Rev. E. Harvey, on Monday evening of Court week.

Mrs. Walters' school, the Primary department, started up on Monday last, with a fair attendance.

It is said by parties who have examined into the matter, that chestnuts will be a short crop this year.

Another child of Jas. Selziger's died a few days ago, of diphtheria.

McCray's Perry's Victory Dance is said to have been well attended, and was a success in every particular.

The wife of Christopher Cropp, of Green Twp., died on Sunday last, leaving a large family, including twin infants.

J. D. W. Reck and family have moved up to the mouth of Little Coon, above Lacytown, temporarily, where Mr. R. is taking out some square timber, which he will run to market on the spring flood.

Mrs. Alexander, a sister of Hon. J. B. Agnew, died on Wednesday evening last, at her home in Newmarket. The funeral took place on Friday.

May, daughter of A. B. Kolley, Esq., who accompanied her father to Philadelphia last week, was taken down with measles shortly after her arrival there, and is now at Mr. Benj. May's residence, at Norristown, convalescing, we believe.

A boy named James Hutton, aged fifteen years, had one of his arms torn off below the elbow, in Coefield & Hammond's boiler manufactory in Franklin, last week. Surgical assistance was promptly rendered, and it is believed that the boy will recover.

Nicholas Baker, who was on trial last week in Franklin, on a charge of murder, was found guilty of murder in the second degree. Also, on a charge of stabbing, to which he plead guilty, he will have twenty years in the penitentiary.

Mr. Brockway, Co. Supt. of schools, informs us that the Forest County Teachers' Institute will not be held until some time in December or January next. The Institute was held in October last year. The reason for the change is that Mr. Brockway thinks the attendance will be better later in the season.

The Indians, who really attract very little attention, now are believed by the military authorities to have broken up into small bands, most of them intending to reach the reservations and winter there, while Sitting Bull and his followers, if pressed, will cross over into Canada. No Indian fight is expected again this year.

The meeting of the Hayes and Wheeler club, on Saturday evening last, was largely attended, and the constitution amicably signed. Several members were called upon for remarks, nearly all of whom responded, and an enthusiastic meeting was the result.

"Home, Courtship and Marriage," A Book for the Times, by Rev. J. Q. A. Weiler, is a book, the reading of which will be a real benefit to any one, old or young, who will take the trouble to peruse its pages.

The Cincinnati Enquirer the leading Democratic paper of the West, of June 6th, 1876, had the following concerning Mr. Tilden: "There are a few things concerning Mr. Tilden, which we trust will sink into the minds of Western and Southern Democrats."

Tweed, William, Boss, was captured in a sailing vessel off Vigo Spain, by Spanish authorities, on the 6th inst. The secretary of the American legislation has requested his extradition, and he will consequently be handed over to the American authorities.

It is hoped that he will come back in time to take part in the Presidential campaign. He was said, shortly after his flight, to have been in Forest County, but it is not supposed that he took time to do any electioneering for Tilden at that time.

"Patrons of husbandry?" said Mrs. Parfington reflectively in reply to a remark of the Doctor's concerning the order, "Yes, I do seem to remember hearing of them; but I never have used any. The best patrons that I know of are the 'Domestic.'" I have used lots of those to cut out my clothes by—and here Isaac broke into her remarks with the information that the old ones made bully kites; and then went gravely on with his work of decorating the cat's tail with patent clothespins.

Thursday, the 28th inst. has been set apart by the Governor, as "Pennsylvania's Day," in the Centennial. It is the 100th anniversary of the signing of the Pa. State Constitution, in Philadelphia, on the 28th day of September 1776, by the representatives of the people of the State under the Presidency of Benjamin Franklin.

Charles Francis Adams has been nominated by the Democracy of Massachusetts as their candidate for Governor. Seeing that some of his friends earnestly advocated his nomination for the Presidency, at Cincinnati, he has been converted swiftly to the Democratic ranks. He stands more chance of being struck by lightning than he does of being made Governor of Massachusetts.

Peter Berry has an engine and boiler on the ground at Balltown and will proceed at once to develop that section, and see what is below the surface. He is not working for the Hulings and Howe company, but is running and independent machine, in connection with one or two other individuals of our county.

A Hayes and Wheeler club meeting was broken up on Friday evening last, by Democratic roughs, in Baltimore. The speaker of the evening was badly beaten about the head and face. Several shots were fired, and one man was wounded. This Ku-Kluxism is getting into the higher latitudes. By the way, did any one ever hear of a Democratic meeting having been broken up by Republicans?

Clarington Correspondence.

CLARINGTON, Sept. 9, 1876.

It is night. Clarington slumbers. We write. J. B. Pearson and lady and some others from this place will start on a special pleasure and sight-seeing trip during the coming week.

The Republicans of Clarington met at the school house, on Saturday evening, Sept. 2d, for the purpose of organizing a Hayes and Wheeler Club. E. C. Mays was elected temporary Chairman, and J. E. Hilliard Secretary. W. J. Armstrong, A. J. Slaughter and J. K. Clark were appointed a Committee to draft constitution; to report at next meeting.

We understand that Messrs. Thompson & Darr will soon raise the frame work of their new mill, at the mouth of Coleman Run. The timber is on the ground and framed, and by the aid of pulley and ropes, crowbar, hand-spike, physical strength, horse-power, &c., it will soon stand upright, another monument to American industry, and, as we trust, a source of income to the surrounding country, as well as a profitable investment to the owners.

The 53d anniversary of Perry's Victory was observed at Sigel yesterday. Old people—young people—middle-aged people—flowers—wreaths—flags—banners—ribbons—horses—wagons—gaily decorated marshals on gaily decorated horses—cakes and pies—estabes of every kind—handsome people with handsome appetites—music, instrumental and vocal, and speech-makers in abundance, were there—and made a success of it.

We understand that at a meeting of the Tilden and Hendricks club, of Sigel, Jefferson Co., not long since, Hon. G. A. Jenks, who was present, made the statement, that through his efforts during the last session of Congress, every man, woman and child in the U. S. has been saved sixty-three cents. In what manner this saving was effected we don't know; perhaps by refusing to grant pensions to the wives and children of the victims of the Sitting Bull massacre; but then he shouldn't brag about that.

The busy season is over, and now comes potato-digging, corn-cutting—and who says apple-cutting? The United Brethren hold their third quarterly meeting at Cooksburg, Sept. 9th and 10th.

Lacytown Correspondence.

LACYTOWN, Sept. 11, 1876.

Your correspondent was indisposed last week, hence the doings of a worthy people were not recorded. We adopt the old form of excuse, i. e. a promise to do better in the future.

Mr. Holbrook is again in Lacytown. His oldest child, Wales, whom all will remember as a bright, interesting boy, has lost the use of his limbs from paralysis. It will be some time before he recovers from the attack.

Jim Weaver came home last week with a sore hand. He had been threshing at Pleasantville and caught his hand in the cog-wheels of the machine, smashing the thumb and fore-finger. Every one remembers the low water. There is scarcely enough in the creek to run the saw-mill any length of time. Leakage at the dam has about stopped the sawing for the present.

Mr. Collins has given the Sabbath School a library of one hundred books for children. We are pleased to notice all such favors. The school lost its Superintendent and best worker in Miss Arner, now of Tionesta.

Mr. Furman, who has interests at Edenburg, purposes building, and moving his family there before long. Mr. and Mrs. S. H. Haslet spent Saturday here, calling on their numerous friends.

The infant son of John Matha died on Whig Hill last Friday. The funeral services took place yesterday. The season opened with a surprise party last week, at Mr. Button's. Sleighting is anticipated by some next week. School closed last Monday, to the delight of all the youngsters who have a vacation until late in the fall.

Mrs. John Gillilan, of Tidouite, is visiting her sister and sister-in-law, of this place.

We have been having a spell of genuine fall weather for some days past, until yesterday, and when the weather was the nastiest, our muse perpetrated the following:

The melancholy days have come, Laden with tears and cares; It's a little too dry for pond-floods, And a little too wet for fairs.

Mr. Brooks, for some time manager of the Superior Lumber Co. Store, is moving to the Edenburg oil regions this week, where, we understand, he will embark in the real estate business. He is a good citizen, and we wish him good luck in his new enterprise.

Mr. Butler, who, in company with Chas. Hill has for some time been running the blacksmith shop south of Council Run, departed for Edenburg the first of the week.

Mr. Perry Hill starts for the same place this week. At this rate our section will soon be scarce of able bodied men who are willing to work.

Squirrel hunting is not now what it was a few weeks ago; but still there are those who will tramp these hills from early morn till dewy eve, in search of this excellent game. The pheasant season opens the 1st of October, and we expect to hear of some excellent hunting.

Two sons of Henry Weaver, at Nebraska, both deaf mutes, have gained admittance into the Pennsylvania Institution for the Deaf and Dumb, Philadelphia, through the efforts of Hon. J. B. Agnew. The county is at no expense for their education. The expenses are paid by the endowment fund and by appropriations from the State.

H. C. Harlin, known in this section as the "Swede Tailor," and who lost one of his legs by a railroad accident, since he left here, was in town last week and part of this. He moves around lively on crutches, and says he has ordered a wooden leg to aid his locomotion.

Teachers' Examinations.

Public examinations of teachers will be held as follows: Clarington, Oct. 14, 1876. Tionesta, " 17, " Neilltown " 18, " Teachers who need certificates for next term, should attend. Directors are especially invited to be present.

H. S. BROCKWAY, Co. Supt. Sept. 12, 1876.

GRAND REPUBLICAN RALLY!!

A GRAND REPUBLICAN MASS MEETING

WILL BE HELD AT THE COURT HOUSE, TIONESTA, PA., ON TUESDAY EVE, SEPT. 26. ALL ARE INVITED.

Gen. Harry White AND Hon. J. H. Osmer,

of Franklin, and other good speakers will address the meeting. Come out, Republicans and do honor to the honorable men who are your candidates for positions of trust, and let the people see that you are steadfast and earnest in your support of Hayes and Wheeler and honest Government.

Come out, ye who are "on the fence," and hear the truths that will land you on the side of Principle and Right, and lead you to vote for Hayes and Wheeler, the advocates of true Reform, and not boon companions with Tweed, Morrissey, and Wall Street gamblers. Come out, Democrats, and hear the whole truth, and turn from the errors of your ways. Hayes and Wheeler are the men you had ought to vote for, and we will prove it to you. Come out, everybody, and we will do you good.

Ben. Hogan has challenged Allen to a friendly pummeling match, either for fun or for $1,000 a side. If the challenge is accepted, and one or both of these pugilists are lucky enough to be killed in the struggle, it will do a great deal toward ending these brutal exhibitions.

The October number of Ballou's Monthly Magazine is the best one that has been issued for some months, and deserves the praise which the press of the country has so liberally bestowed upon it. From all parts of the United States and the Canadas Ballou's Magazine is welcomed because the people know that it is full of just such reading as suits the popular tastes. There are domestic stories, sea yarns, tales of adventure, love stories of the most ardent nature, poetry of real eloquence, fine illustrations, and a nice article of fashions, with engravings to show how garments look after being made up and worn. We cannot say too much in praise of Ballou's and hope to see it in the hands of every household in the land. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley Street, Boston, at $1.50 per annum, postpaid, and sold at all newsdealers at 15 cents per copy. Back numbers can always be obtained at the office of publication in Boston.
