In the evening the Institute was opened with prayer by Rev. Elliot. Mr. Gunning delivered a lecture on "Our Educational System." Dr. Coburn delivered a lecture on "Physiology." Adjourned.

Rev. Elliot delivered a lecture this morning, on the subject of "Morals and Manners."

During the remainder of the institute the evening sessions will be taken up with lectures, etc. S. D. Irwin, W. E. Lathy and M. W. Tate, Esqs. will each deliver a lecture before the institute closes.

-At this particular time, while the sleighing is good, there is a great demand for teams, to haul lumber, timmany of our citizens who have been teaming in the oil regions, especially the tracks. about Edenburg and Elk City, are coming back to do the hauling hereabouts, notwithstanding the fact that the wages are considerably lower here than there. The reason given for this is, that feed is very dear, and it is almost impossible to get comfortable stabling for their horses, in said region. Business in this direction will sleighing continues.
