LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

NOTICE.

There will be a meeting of the Republican County Committee at the Arbitration Room in the Court House, on Tuesday evening, May 22d, at 8 o'clock P. M.

—Rev. Allen will preach at the M. E. Church on Sunday evening next.

—The Superior Mills are being started up this week under the management of Mr. Richards.

—Peter Lovel has moved back on the Oldtown farm where he lived and moved for so many years.

—Golden Maid is getting away with all the other animals in the trotting races (this season, as usual).

—Mrs. Hinton, who is stopping with her mother somewhere in York State, is reported much worse, and it is doubtful whether she will recover.

—A young lady named Rebecca Michael, committed suicide by hanging, at Pioneer, on Saturday last. She was undoubtedly insane.

—A strange fish was seen on Monday last from the bridge. It was perfectly white and over two feet long. No one could tell what kind of a fish it was.

—The man Cummings, who was so badly beaten by highwaymen at Elk City last week, has died of his injuries. The lamp-posts should bear fruit over there.

—The Democratic County Committee will meet in the Prothonotary's office on Wednesday evening of Court week, to choose delegates to the Democratic State Convention.

—The Knox mill is slashing out a good deal of lumber just now, and Samuel Clark is rafting part of it in. He will wait for high water, however, before he runs it down the river.

—One of the prairie dogs which Mr. Freeman brought with him from the West, escaped from its box last Wednesday and was tramped on and killed by Selden Whitman, in mistake for a weasel.

—Another daily paper is, or is about to be, issued in Edenburg. That is crowding the territory a little. It will not be long before one or the other of those dailies will cease to pay the owner.

—Buds are bursting, blossoms blooming, and garden sass is just large enough to cause a shudder of apprehension to run up the back of the gardener who sees white frosts on the grounds these cold mornings.

—Three thousand persons have signed the Murphy pledge. We are inclined to believe that of the parties who have signed this pledge more are proving faithful than is usual with the signers of temperance pledges.

—Some of our young chaps started out yesterday morning for Salmon and Minister creeks, where they expect to take in an immense amount of beautiful little trout. The jaunt will probably do them good at all events.

—The Central House is raising a good-sized barn erected on the lot next Blum's blacksmith shop, on Church St. This will be much handsomer than the barn they have been using heretofore, on account of its proximity to the hotel.

We notice that a number of our exchanges are proposing and endorsing a move for a convention of the country editors of Western Pennsylvania "to straighten up some crookedness at Pittsburgh in the agency business."

We did business with J. Weaver & Co. long enough to get swindled out of about thirty-six dollars, which we can substantiate by their own letters. When in Pittsburgh shortly after learning that the members of that advertising firm were thieves, we asked Messrs. Bakewell & Co. if they would take a judgment against Weavers for stationary, and they informed us that the blank paper on which the judgment was written would be worth more than the judgment itself.

—Mr. Geo. S. Lacy, of Allegheny, was up in this country last week. He was much improved in health, and goes back with the intention of starting up a planing mill at Lucy Furnace, above Pittsburgh.

—We clipped and published a synopsis of the game laws from the Derrick last week. Mondays paper makes the following correction: "In a recent issue we published a brief synopsis of the Pennsylvania game and fish laws, in which it was stated that it was lawful to take bass at any time with a rod and line."

—Mr. E. M. Canfield, of Tidouete, one of the gentlemen who got up an excursion from this section to Chautauque Lake last summer, called upon us on Friday last. He informs us that he has been solicited to get up another excursion to the same place during the coming summer, and has concluded to do so.

—The Clarion Democrat says: "The New York Sun is patting Brother Blaine on the back. He must look out; he has had one sunstroke which nearly killed him."

—Morris Einstein returned from the Eastern cities on Monday, and in the evening a job was put up on him by dressing up one of the boys as a young lady, and sending him in to make Morris overhaul his stock.

—If anybody can tell how the eastern war is progressing from reading the dispatches, we would like to get acquainted with him. When there is a big battle we may hear who whipped but until then, we don't know just how the old thing is working.

—The Tionesta Twp. Road Commissioners had the road from Selden Whitman's to the Clarion line viewed with a view to vacating the same if it was not deemed necessary.

Decoration Day.

The following order for the observance of Decoration Day has been issued from headquarters. This day has not been publicly observed here for three years, and we hear of no steps being taken to so observe it this year.

In accordance with the annual custom Wednesday, May 30, 1877, will be observed as Memorial Day, in commemoration of our dead comrades. It is fitting that we should turn aside from our accustomed pursuits to do honor to those who have given the strongest testimony of patriotic devotion, and for a general observance of the day the active participation of the members of societies, the children of the various schools and citizens generally, is earnestly invited.

By order JOHN F. HARTRAUFT, Commander-in-Chief.

ROBT B. BETH, Adjutant General.

—Prof. Weber made his reappearance in town on Wednesday last, looking no older than when he started across the briny waters to visit the old home, in Germany, two years ago.

—There are a couple of fellows over at the Superior Mills called by their comrades Moody and Sankey. The name was not given them because of any intense piety on their part.

—The Edenburg correspondent of the Derrick, in Monday's paper says, that W. W. Mason, Esq., a prominent lawyer of Sharon, Mercer county, is in town prospecting.

—Azro Copeland, who has sold crude oil here from an old well of his for several years, has secured a lease out in that neighborhood which exactly suits him, and he is now, by one single gulp, going to make his everlasting fortune.

—We have received from the managers of the International Exhibition Company, who occupy the Centennial Grounds and Buildings, a complete description of what the Exhibition is to be, in Forney's Press of the 23d ult.

—Hon. Geo. A. Jenks has been designated by the Democracy as their first choice for Judge of the Supreme Court. Mr. Jenks has made a big name among the Democracy of Pennsylvania, during his one term in Congress, but we would rather the Democracy wouldn't nominate him, simply because we would rather beat some one else.

—Crazy Horse has surrendered again. The surrender was made at Camp Robinson, Nebraska, on the 6th inst. 1,300 persons and 2,500 horses were the proceeds.

—Selden Whitman informed us on Wednesday last that the men who were to put down the well at the foot of Haskell hollow, on his place, were on the ground, and would commence work at once.

—Robinson & Bonner have been replenishing their stock of Dry Goods and Notions and are selling at bottom prices.

—Edward McPherson, ex-Clerk of the House of Representatives at Washington, has been appointed Chief of the Bureau of Engraving and Printing in the Treasury Department.

—The body of a little girl was found on Sunday last on an island near Trunkeyville. It was soon recognized as the child of Frank Davis, which was drowned at Cobham last winter.

—Mr. Kelly left for Pittsburgh last week, leaving the bank in charge of Dr. Blaine. Business called him to Louisville, and he is delayed some days more than he anticipated.

—To remove smoke and dust from wall paper, tie a large piece of clean white cloth over a broom and brush the wall down well. Then take a loaf of stale bread, cut it open, and rub the soft side all over the paper.

—Esq. Irwin informs us that the Messrs. Jamieson have taken the well on the old Sowers place off Wm. Reek's lands, and are to put the same down 1000 feet, which will be a better test, than the territory in this immediate section has ever had.

—An entertainment consisting of the play of Blue Beard, with other attractive features, will be given at the Court House on Wednesday evening next, by some ladies and gentlemen of Tionesta.

—Our thanks are due to His Excellency, Governor John F. Hartrauft, for a copy of the general laws passed by the Legislature of the State of Pennsylvania, during the session of 1877.

—Some of our townsmen got bit on a lot of ties which were sold at Sheriff's Sale last winter. It appears that the ties were made of all kinds of timber, while the R. R. Co. refused to take anything but white oak.

—Smith Foreman has put up some new gates on the court-yard fence, this time to stay, we presume. There has been a great deal of trouble experienced in getting gates on that fence that would stand the requisite amount of grief, but we guess Smith has settled all that.

—The next annual convention of the Pennsylvania State Sunday School Association will be held in the city of Harrisburg, on June 12th, 13th and 14th.

—Gov. Hartrauft has issued warrants for the execution of the following named convicted murderers, on June 21st: Andrew Lanahan, Luzerne county, Pa., for the murder of Capt. Reilly, at Wilkesbarre; also for the execution, the same day, of Molle Maguire, Edward Kelly, Michael J. Doyle and John Donohoe, of Carbo county, and Thomas Munby, of Schuylkill county.

—The Forest and Stream, and the Rod and Gun, both of them sportsmen's papers of the very front rank, have consolidated, and the new paper is known as the Forest and Stream and Rod and Gun, the American Sportsman's Journal.

—Dickinson Bros. are getting rid of their stumps in a hurry. They use dynamite cartridges, one or two pounds and costing 50 cents a pound.

—A big lot of Cane Fishing Rods just received, at Robinson & Bonner's.

—Jenkins' Java Flavored Roasted Rio Coffee at Robinson & Bonner's. Try it. 3 ct.

—Robinson & Bonner have been replenishing their stock of Dry Goods and Notions and are selling at bottom prices.
