New York Letter.

Special to the REPUBLICAN.

New York City, June 15, 1877.

The Tammany Society gave a grand serenade and reception to Gov. Robinson at the Everett House on the 11th inst. Just what the import of this is, no one knows but the Tammany leaders; yet there is no doubt it is intended to have a direct bearing on the issues between Mayor Ely and Boss Kelly. Mayor Ely will not do the bidding of Kelly in the matter of appointments, and as Gov. Robinson has in the past, been indebted to Kelly for political favors, last night's grand action may have been gotten up to flatter Gov. Robinson into committing himself to Tammany rule.

Gov. Hendricks and wife dined with Gov. Tilden Monday evening. They will sail for Europe in a few days. The movements of Hendricks, Tilden and Robinson, and the flutter in Tammany hall just at this time, has lead many to guess that there was some great national political earthquake about to burst forth; but Robinson's reception was only a move on a local political board.

The committee appointed by Collector Arthur to reduce the force of employees last Saturday, discharged four deputy collectors, and I am today informed by an employee in the Custom House, that the discharged officers have been reinstated and are now in their old places again. There is an effort being made to have a special Art Department established in the Custom House, to be in charge of some person competent to judge of Art. It is alleged that the Government is defrauded out of millions from a lack of such a special Department.

SOCIETY FOR THE PREVENTION OF CRIME.

This organization held an interesting meeting at Rev. Dr. Hepworth's on Monday evening. The principal business discussed was the temperance question, which was the temperance agitator is coming to New York in August, and this meeting is the first of the preliminary meetings which will be held previous to his coming. Brooklyn is also agitating the temperance question, which indicates that the early fall will witness in these parts a great Temperance revival.

SOCIETY OF DECORATIVE ART.

This is the title of an Association lately formed here for the purpose of aiding and encouraging women's work in the field of Art. The plan adopted is to open a Bazaar for the sale of articles, and to invite women to send their articles which are to be subject to the inspection of a competent Committee. All goods accepted will be placed on sale, ten per cent of the proceeds going to defray the expenses of the society. The officers of this society are among the prominent women of the city, and no doubt this organized effort will stimulate the art laborers of women all over the country.

JUVENILE LITERATURE.

There are constant complaints being made about the demoralizing effects of a certain class of "Boys Story Papers." The subtle poison instilled in the minds of boys all over the country by reading these publications is a fit subject for agitation. The papers which are but the organs of "Robbers," "Murderers" and "Villains" ought to be suppressed; even if they are published under pretense of furnishing amusement and entertainment for boys.

"SANDWICH" MEN.

On every block along Broadway now, you meet the traveling till boards, sometimes called "Sandwich Men." This method of advertising is too common to be longer effective, for it has ceased to be a novelty.

ATHLETIC SPORTS.

Who can account for the habit New York papers have got into of advertising wrestling and boxing matches and other manly (?) sports? The papers will gratuitously publish "challenging cards" from contestants, and otherwise advertise this kind of low sham business by giving liberal reports etc. Readers are no more interested in these contests than they are in performances given in the various variety shows in the city. This free advertising of low public performances, is a bad habit, and one which newspaper people ought to break themselves of.
