Ice Cream and Strawberry Festival.

The Presbyterian Sunday School have concluded to give an ice cream ED. REPUBLICAN:and strawberry feetival, and a general committee of arrangements was appointed on Sunday Inst, which committee met on Monday evening and their order of business was about as follows: It was decided to hold the festival at Partridge's Hall, on Friday evening next, June 22. One committee was appointed to procure strawberries and cream; another was appointed to procure ice and see to the making of the ice cream, and do the other necessary labor. It is the intention to have prize cakes for sale; also, a flower and boquet stand. Tickets will be for sale at 25 cts., children under 10 years, 15 cts., which will entitle the holder to admission into the hall, one dish of strawberries, cream and three pieces of cake. It is the determination to have good berries and cream, and give all their money' worth. The proceeds are to be applied in purchasing new music books and papers for the school.

-Judge Cook, of Cocksburg, and one Mr. Ewing, of Pittsburgh, will brobably put down four wells near Cooksburg during the present season. The arrangements are about perfected, and we must not be surprised to hear of a new oil field being opened up in Forest county. Should this be the case, we doubt not but the new railroad will be built forthwith. Judge Cook is also, putting up a new circular saw mill on Maple creek, to do some of his own and custom sawing during the coming fall and winter. Boat building is quite lively over there, Cook having sent down eleven boats during this season, and H. P. Spence, a few miles above has sent about a doz en to market. The margin is not large, but the builders make fair profits,

-- Saturday night's Murphy Meeting in the Presbyterian church, was well attended, but the speaker who was to address the meeting, by some means or other failed to put in an appearance, which was quite a disappointment to some. However, the evening was pleasantly passed by music and a few appropriate remarks from several, among whom were Rev. Elliot, S. D. Irwin Esq., Mr. Kelly, and others. The number of singers was small, only seven, which was probably owing to the fact that nearly all present had been previously gathered into the fold. Another meeting was appointed for a week from next Tuesday evening, when prominent speakers will be on hand without fail.

-Dr. Towler, of the Towler & James well, at Marienville, is at work putting up a new rig, some little distance east of that venture, and calculates, when the time, which he considers the right time, comes, to put down several wells, to thouroughly test that territory. It will be recollected that gave a synopsis at the time, expressed the opinion very decidedly, that he did not consider the Towler & James operations tend to confirm the idea that he is in earnest. We wish him good luck, in or out of Forest county.

We are a little auxious to know whether othey will all be dropped at the same time, or be compelled to sit around like customers in a barber shop each follow waiting for his "next."

-Mr. Chadwick killed a rattlesnake on the railroad track the other day which had nine rattles. Mr. Saul killed a copperhead, also on the railroad, measuring nearly four feet. -We take the following dispatches from Tuesday morning's Derrick:

"Big Ingin" is still flowing steady and strong. No oil is going to waste.

SUMMIT CITY, June 18-11 P. M.

Two pumps are working to take the oil from her tanks, one of a capacity of sixty barrels and the other eighty barrels per hour, and she is gaining on both of them. The excitement is intense. She is the largest well ever struck, no territory excepted.

This well is flowing 3,500 barrels per day.

FRANKLIN, June 18. Mrss Crawford, a lady aged ninety years, the mother of Mayor Crawford, of Franklin, and J. P. Crawford, of Parker, well known operators, while visiting her son-in-law at Martinsburg, Butler county, Saturday, bad the misfortune to fall and fracture her thigh bone. She has always enjoyed perfeet health up to this time. Her condition at present is critical, her physicians are entertaining but slight hopes of her recovery.

EDENBURG, June 18. At half-past eleven o'clock this morning, Mr. O. H. Happer, of the Wigwam, and of the firm of Painter & Happer, while engaged in oiling a loaded revolver, accidently shot himself, from the effects of which he died almost instanty.

-Around the stave mill of Derickson & Co., at Tylersburg, is an immense amount of bolts which almost hide the mill from view. Mr. Adams, however, the superintendent, makes it very lively for the haulers, and a great number of staves are turned out at that mill under his direction.

-James Doyle, South ward street commissioner, has put the road along the creek in a better condition than it has been for a number of years, and with but little work it can be kept so having the highest number of votes for a great many years to come. We believe Mr. Doyle gives good satisfaction in his office.

-Several of our young ladies are at present teaching school in various parts of the county. Miss Clara Heath well a fair test, and still lead confi. -The condition of Hon. J. A. Dale -The Mollie Magnires who are to is not materially different from last week. Dr. Blaine informs us that some of the symptioms are better, but Freeman and Hays are in town.

-Peter Youngk, whom we mentioned last week as having received a severe kick from a horse, and who at one time was reported dead, is getting along well, and will soon be able to attend to affairs about his farm again.

-Mr. Kelly announced at the Murphy meeting last Saturday evening that fifty had signed the pledge at Whig Hill, and an order for fifty more cards had been sent which would probably be signed forthwith.

-In these days of hot weather, it is refreshing to turn to such a light, breezy, wholesome Magazine as Ballou's, and read it all through, from beginning to end. There is such an end--Mrs. C. M. Cott, of Columbus, less variety in the Magazine that all parties are sure to be suited. Tales, adventures, and all that goes to make | ing prices : reading lively.
