LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Regular services at the M. E. Church on Sunday evening next. Rev. Allen will occupy the pulpit.

Mr. Geo. O. Morgan left with some very fine cucumbers last week. One of them, which was in good shape, measured 10 1/2 inches in length.

The Seventh Division N. G. P. has not crossed the Balkans yet. Several of the command balked at Franklin and some at Pittsburgh. Court Martials are in order.

Oil is firm. The market on Monday closed at $2.50. It is altogether probable that the market will go to $3.00 soon. The sooner the better for Forest County territory.

The Clarion Mail now stops over night in Tylersburg, instead of staying alternate nights in Tionesta and Clarion. This is an advantage to the Mail Carrier who lives in Tylersburg.

The Brockville Graphic comes to us in a bright new summer dress. The proprietors deserve credit for their enterprise. The Graphic is one of the liveliest little papers in this neck of woods.

The Evangelical Camp Meeting at Lickingville, will convene on the 10th inst. The grounds are the best in this section, and no pains will be spared to secure a quiet and orderly session.

The National Guards of Pennsylvania are learning why muskets cartridges &c., were issued to them by the State. This little brush will probably have the effect of making a number of them resign.

We believe that Mr. Chadwick's gang of railroad laborers struck one morning last week, and went to work again at noon. There were no fears of a general outbreak indulged in on account of this particular strike.

Mr. Murphy, our new Merchant Tailor is getting somewhat cramped for room in his present location, and will move into the building above the Central House during the present week. We hear his work highly spoken of.

The misunderstanding on our road, the P. & B. R. R., was amicably arranged on Thursday evening last and the trains commenced running as usual on Friday morning. They didn't have a very heavy attack of the epidemic here, and soon recovered.

"Quiet." Jamieson and Jas. Huddleston are at work on the Reek well on Jamieson flat, and propose to put the same down 1000 feet if they do not get third sand sooner. There were some good wells in that section during the first excitement, and this well should get oil.

The Presbyterian Sabbath School has received new singing books, the title of which is "Songs of Love." The School at Stewart Run have also just invested in a new singing book, which we believe is called "Welcome Tidings." W. Y. Siggins is interested in that school, and the singing is bound to go off with a vim.

To some of these heroic chaps who were so fast in condemning the soldiers at Pittsburgh for firing too quick, it may be interesting to know that investigation has shown that one of the Philadelphia soldiers was killed before the troops fired. It is not supposed that raw troops are going to stand with loaded guns in their hands to be killed off without replying.

Petroleum V. Nasby will deliver an address at the Fair at Sugar Grove on the 14th of September. Here is a good chance to hear the great reform politician of Goodfellow Cross Roads.

Beside the excursion from this point on Saturday next, one goes from Warren on the same day, for the benefit of the Baptist church of that place. Those who take in the excursion will see a large crowd.

Supt. Prather of Venango County received a call to the Presidency of the Carrier Seminary, but was obliged to decline because those interested declined to release him from his present situation.

Derickson & Co. are about to move into Mr. Haslet's Store room, which has been thoroughly fixed up in good order for setting goods. Of course, after the change is made we may expect to get some good bargains at the new store.

Now make up your parties for the blackberry woods. These berries will be ripe in the course of a few weeks, and the crop is reported plentiful. Parties from this place go out in regular picnic style, prepared to camp out and eat their berries while fresh and good.

Chautauqua Lake bids fair to be more popular than ever this season. In another place we give the details of an excursion from this place, which is to come off next Saturday. Francis Murphy will be present and speak on that day.

Huidekoper's diversion, which was ordered to camp at Franklin last week, was ordered away on Saturday morning last, and left for Pittsburgh. Their destination is not known, but it is supposed that they are to go into the mining regions, when things look a little troublesome.

Circuses are giving neighboring cities all they want to do to raise money to attend them. Three or four of these mammoth charge catchers are promulgating the oil regions this season. We have only had one circus here this summer, and the question of the demonetization of silver has agitated the public mind ever since.

"Hanna," a queer individual who furnished amusement for the boys at old spots last winter by singing, dancing and lung music, was in town yesterday, looking much better than when he depended on the nickles he earned in that manner. He is now working for some of the farmers on Dutch Hill.

A. B. Kelly, Esq., returned from Pittsburgh on Thursday last, fully convinced that railroad strikes, particularly when accompanied with rioting and incendiarism, are bad things for the communities in which they take place. The fire reached within a few squares of his father's residence.

Teachers for the fall and winter term of school in this place will be selected at the meeting of the school board on Monday evening next. The term is to be seven months. A vacation will be given about the holidays, we suppose. Only two schools are to be run this term.

Michael Ittle was in Pittsburgh, and wedged in the crowd at the time of the fight between the mob and the military; he says that a rioter was shot down right beside him. Mr. Ittle justifies the military for their acts, and claims that the firing was in self-defence, and was necessary.

The Musical Nuptial School in Meadville, which has for its instructor the best talent the country affords, seems to be well patronized, and will probably be a success in every particular. The piano recitals of William Mason are well attended and highly appreciated.

Green corn is next. Some of the more enterprising gardeners of our city have already had several messes of this article, but our corn crop has been delayed by the cool weather. If the fellow who divided the crop with us last year visits our corn patch this season, he may expect to receive our compliments and an ounce of bird shot. Then we shall expect to see the green corn dance.

The railroad strike is almost a thing of the past. It has done almost irreparable injury, and has as yet worked to the benefit of no one. The matter should however at once be made the subject of deep deliberation by the railroad companies. If the employees are not receiving a fair remuneration for their labor, the wages should be raised at once.

Mr. May's family entertained a party of their neighbors on Monday evening last. The company was in good spirits, the refreshments were excellent, and everybody went home at a seasonable hour feeling that it was good to have been there.

The Superior Lumber Co. mill is slashing away at the new instalment of 10,000 logs, and lumber is being manufactured under the superintendency of Wm. Richards, that will compare favorably with any made in this region.

We have for some weeks been expecting a communication descriptive of the Brookston tannery, which is by odds the largest establishment, employing the most men, and doing the largest business in the county. We just say this to hurry up our correspondent.

Notwithstanding the river and creek running through our town, our out-door bathing privileges are somewhat limited on account of the publicity of the good bathing pools. It takes a walk of a mile or two to get out of the sight of folks, calling for an effort that the majority of our good swimmers do not care to put forth.

Notwithstanding the discontinuance of the strikes in this section, the weather continues warm, and ice cream and cool Murphy drinks are in order. For the latter the favorite game is fly ball, which is played by placing a lump of sugar on the counter for each player and "sticking" the map whose lump is first attacked by a fly.

The independence of the free and enlightened citizens of Tionesta is shown in the way in which they have pulled down the price of potatoes in the last few weeks. The first crop brought $2 per bushel. The citizens preferred to dig their own potatoes up to paying that price, and now they are down to 50 cts.

The Twenty-Fifth Annual Fair of the Crawford County Agricultural Society will be held in Conneautville on the 3d, 4th and 5th days of October. Another society of the same kind has been organized in Cochran, with good prospects of success. In farming communities these fairs do a great deal of good. We know of no county more celebrated for improved stock than Crawford.

Mr. Geo. Watson of Red Brush killed a rattlesnake near the old church yesterday morning, which had nine rattles.

His sister-in-law, Miss Samantha Root, one day last week, killed the largest snake of this species ever killed in the county, to the best of our knowledge; it measured over five feet in length. Jan. Root skinned and stuffed the reptile, which can be seen on application.

Rev. O. B. Clark, who has been stopping with "Web," for a few weeks, started out on Wednesday evening last to look for the cows, and got off the road, up Tubbs' Run somewhere. Not returning as was expected, a lot of our citizens with lanterns, dinner horns, &c., went in search of him, and found him just after he had found the road. No ill results followed.

The Acme barrel works, of Titusville, were destroyed by fire last Friday morning. The flames were first discovered about 1.40 o'clock, and communicated from the engine fire to the shavings on the floor of the boiler-room, and thence to the other rooms. The works originally cost from $60,000 to $90,000; partially insured. About 205 men were thrown out of employment.

The most effective preservation for eggs that has yet been proposed is lin-seed oil, or cotton-seed oil may be used instead. By carefully coating fresh eggs with either of these oils, and packing them, small end downward, in any dry, porous substance, that is a non-conductor of heat, such as chaff, cork cuttings, or maple sawdust, they have been kept in perfect condition and without loss of weight for 6 months.

The Brookville Republican of the 25th ult., says: "Potatoes sold on our streets last Saturday at 30 cents per bushel. There are better prospects of an immense crop of this valuable vegetable this year than for years past, and there is little or no demand in the market, nearly every person having a small patch of their own that is furnishing them just now with all their wants require. Those being offered are first-rate in every respect, large and perfect."

The Misses Jordan, of Philadelphia who have been visiting at Mr. May's for some two weeks past, leave for home to-day. The Misses Partridge of Jamestown, N. Y., who have been visiting at A. H. Partridge's for about the same length of time, leave for home to-morrow. All these ladies bear with them the kind wishes of numerous friends here.

In those places where military companies parade and martial spirit abounds, the newspapers are just now having their sport by noticing in a sarcastic way the return of occasional bold soldiers who have been disabled by the thoughts of meeting the bold rioters in battle away. The spirit of our fathers oozes out at the ends of their fingers and toes, and they come home in citizens, tress.

In the Forest and Stream and Rod and Gun, there are notices and communications occasionally from all points in the United States where there is any hunting or fishing. The following is the first we have noticed in regard to Forest County:

Correspondent G. W. D., July 8, writes us of the fine trout fishing to be found in the wilds of Forest, Elk and Jefferson counties, Pa., which are reached by wagon from Brookville, on the Red Bank Junction of the A. V. Railroad, along which the scenery is spoken of as being very charming and romantic. A good hotel, called the Central Hotel, will be found. At Brookville a wagon can be hired to take the visitor to Marion, which lies in Forest county. The road crosses the Clarion River at the old village of Clarrington, "noted for its good bass and pike fishing." C. L. Hunt keeps a good tavern at Marion, within easy distance of which place are three good trout streams called the Big and Little Salmon and Millstone Creek. Our correspondent and several friends tried all the streams and caught 105 fish the first day, but quite small in size. The next day two rods took 120. The opinion of our friend is that all the streams in the counties named are fished too much, and ought to be rested for two or three years. He adds that deer and bear hunting will be excellent next fall.

Quite a number of our readers were members of the 83d Pa. Vols. during the war. To them it will be of interest to know that the annual reunion of that Regiment will be held this year at Jamestown, N. Y., on the 21st inst., in connection with the 44th N. Y. The two regiments were known during the war as "Butterfield's Twins." The following circular has been sent to every member of the 83d whose address is known:

DEAR COMRADES:—A joint re-union of the 83d Regimental Association and the 44th New York Regiment will be held at Jamestown, N. Y., August 21, 1877. You are earnestly requested to be present, and to urge all comrades of the old regiment to answer to roll call. Let us make this the most enjoyable of all our reunions. Arrangements are being made with the different railroad companies for excursion rates.

JOHN GRAHAM, Pres't 83d Reg't Ass'n. F. H. COUSE, Sec'y.

To RATIONAL INVALIDS.—In sickness every portion of the body sympathizes with the seat of the disorder. When the stomach fails to perform its functions, the liver, bowels, nerves, muscles, veins, arteries, &c., are all more or less affected. These delinquents require a medicine, combining the properties of a stomachic, a retentive, a purgative, a tonic, and a sedative to bring them back to their duty, and all these elements, in their purest and most effective forms, are united in Tarrant's Effervescent Seltzer Agent.

The great Seltzer Remedy for Indigestion, and its concomitant consequences. Sold by all druggists. 11 1/2 For sale by G. W. BONDARD, Tionesta.

Red Hot! Spicy! Newway! Oil City Daily Derrick. For 1877. Better Than Ever! More and Better News, and More Reading Matter than any other Daily Paper in North-Western Pennsylvania! The OIL CITY DAILY DERICK will begin the new year with a larger circulation than ever attained by any daily newspaper in Pennsylvania. Outside of the large cities, it has gained the largest circulation of any newspaper, and is extending its circulation to all the oil regions. It has correspondents in every portion of the Oil Region, besides several reporters who are constantly traveling. The proprietors, editors and reporters, all are young and energetic men, whose aim is to make the Derrick the leading newspaper of Western Pennsylvania.

THE DERICKER will be better than ever for 1877. It will have special reporters at Washington and Harrisburg, who will send daily specials of all important events. Its readers will be kept posted on all the political news of the day, as reported from an independent standpoint, while a large reporter staff will keep them informed on local matters. It will also, as it does now, take the lead in discussing questions of importance to oilmen, and work faithfully for the interest of the Oil Region. It will maintain its position as authority in oil statistics, and its market quotations will always be beyond reliable.

If you want spicy reading, fresh news, information concerning the Oil Region, and a red-hot paper, subscribe for the OIL CITY DAILY DERICKER. Terms, $10 per year; six months $5; $1 a month in advance. W. H. LONGWELL & CO., 39-51 Publishers, OIL CITY, Pa.
