

WEDNESDAY MORNING, SEPT. 12, 1877.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

FOR SUPREME JUDGE,
HON. JAMES P. STERRETT,
OF ALLEGHENY COUNTY.

FOR STATE TREASURER,
CAPE W. B. HART,
OF MONTGOMERY COUNTY.

FOR AUDITOR GENERAL,
HON. J. A. M. PASSMORE,
OF SCHUYLKILL COUNTY.

REPUBLICAN COUNTY TICKET.

FOR TREASURER,
WM. LAWRENCE,
OF TIONESTA.

Maine!

Maine had her State election on Monday last, and elected Conner, Republican, for Governor by upwards of 6,000 majority. The Senate stands 28 Republicans, 3 Democrats; the House 97 Republicans, 26 Democrats, and 2 Greenbacks and 26 not reported. And all this notwithstanding Hayes' Southern policy, and that Maine is the home of Blaine—Jim.

Republican State Convention.

The Republican State Convention met as per announcement, at Harrisburg, on the 5th inst., and put in nomination for Supreme Judge, Hon. Jas. P. Sterrett; for State Treasurer, Capt. W. B. Hart, and for Auditor General, Hon. J. A. M. Passmore. The nominations are eminently satisfactory to the party at large, and the ticket will be found at our mast-head this morning. The following is the platform adopted:

THE PLATFORM.

1. While we recognize and respect the difference of opinion existing among us as to the course pursued by President Hayes towards the South, we are in hearty accord in honoring the patriotic motives which have guided him and in hoping that the results of his policy will be peace, good-will, and the complete recognition of the Equal Rights of all men in every section of the country; and to the efforts of his administration to carry into effect the principles of the platform upon which he was elected, we pledge our hearty and cordial support.

2. The Electoral Commission having been created at the urgent solicitation of the Democratic party and after the often-repeated declarations of its leaders in both Houses of Congress that no faction could cavil at its decisions, we witness, with profound astonishment, the assaults of that party upon the august tribunal of its own creation, because its decisions disappointed their expectations of official patronage. Such assaults, so far as they seek to impair the confidence of the people in the just title of the President to his high office, are equally childish and foolish, but may become extremely mischievous in assisting to diminish the popular respect for the decisions of lawful tribunals.

3. We respectfully but earnestly entreat all members of the National and State Legislatures to assist the return of prosperity to this great and rich country by adopting such measures to that end as are in their power; to devote less attention to partisan strife and more attention to the business interests of the country, in order that wise and proper laws may be passed to lessen the burdens of labor and increase its rewards; to encourage and restore to activity legitimate industrial enterprises, and to enable the country to find a foreign market for its surplus products and manufactures.

4. That the Republican party, in passing the Homestead Law, inaugurated and is firmly committed to the policy that the public lands belong to the people and should be sacredly reserved to actual settlers, free of cost to whoever will occupy them in good faith, and that all laws permitting the acquisition of more than one hundred and sixty acres of such public land, by any one person, should be repealed.

5. That we are opposed to the policy, heretofore prevailing, of renewing patents by act of Congress, and we favor such a revision of the patent laws as will hereafter prevent the renewal of any patent.

and established an almost exclusive gold standard; and we therefore favor a return to the free use and unrestricted coinage of the dollar of 1793, and its restoration to the position it held as a legal tender during eighty years of our national existence, thus preserving the equality of the commercial value of the silver dollar with the gold dollar, and keeping both in circulation.

7. That the administration of Governor Hartranft calls for our warmest approbation. He has established a State policy which has justly endeared him to the people of this Commonwealth, and has amply justified the confidence placed in him. The steady reduction of the State debt during his administration, and the successful refunding of a large portion of the debt at a lower rate of interest, are the best possible evidences that the State has been well and economically governed, and that the people have everything to hope and nothing to fear from a continuance of the Republican party in power.

8. We are in favor of law and against lawlessness and anarchy, with all their attendant horrors and crimes. Equal Rights in making laws impose equal duties in obeying them when made; and we tender our hearty thanks to Governor Hartranft and the officers and soldiers of his command for the prompt, and, we hope, the effectual suppression of the lawless disturbance which recently occurred in this State.

9. That we hold in equal respect the rights of capital to control its investment, and of labor to determine the value of its services; that we deprecate any assertion by violence of the rights of either, and we assert as the duty of all citizens to hold their respective rights within the just limitations of law, and that any attempt to coerce others by unlawful means should be promptly repressed by such lawful authorities as the exigency demands.

10. We regret to observe that the Democratic party of Pennsylvania is afraid to express a decided opinion on any question of present political importance, except its open declaration in favor of Free Trade, and that it still cherishes the delusion that expressions of political opinion ought either to mean anything or nothing, as may best tend to secure the restoration of that party to the control of the offices and the Treasury of the Commonwealth. We are confident that the intelligent citizens of this great State will continue to entrust the conduct of its affairs to the party which has been zealous in the maintenance of its credit, vigilant in defense of its honor, prompt in the enforcement of its laws, and whose past administration of its government has been honest and competent, and fearlessly faithful to the best interests of all men, as well as all classes and conditions of men within her borders.

11. That we renew our oft-repeated declarations in favor of adequate protection to American industry, and now that manufactures are languishing and workmen are out of employment, the common interest demands a still closer adherence to the protective policy which the Republicans of Pennsylvania have always sustained. The country has never yet prospered under Free Trade, and never can or will; and as all tariffs are levied primarily for revenue, it would be a poor government which could not be just enough to its people to arrange its revenue imports so as to encourage and build up the growth of home manufactures.

12. That we favor such legislation in State affairs as will, first, substitute adequate salaries for fees as a compensation for county officers; second, secure our municipalities from the dangers that attend the existing facilities for contracting debt; and third, provide adequate guards against a recurrence of the frequent and large losses to which the people who do business with banks and banking institutions have heretofore been subject.

13. That State legislation is inadequate to regulate the transportation of the vast sea copy State railroad traffic of the nation, and we call upon Congress—in the exercise of its unquestionable power to regulate commerce between the States—to prescribe such regulations as will promote safety and certainty of transportation, and prevent all discrimination in charges, and secure fair returns to the capital invested and fair wages to the labor employed.

Red Hot! Spicy! Newsy!
Oil City Daily Derrick,
For 1877.
Better Than Ever!
More and Fresher News, and More Reading Matter than any other Daily Paper in North-Western Pennsylvania!

The OIL CITY DAILY DERRICK will begin the new year with a larger circulation than ever attained by any daily newspaper in Pennsylvania outside of the large cities. It has gained this by giving all the freshest news, and sparing no expense in obtaining items. It has correspondents in every portion of the Oil Region, besides several reporters who are constantly traveling. The proprietors, editors and reporter staff, are all young and energetic men, whose aim is to make the Derrick the leading newspaper of Western Pennsylvania.

The Derrick will be better than ever for 1877. It will have special reporters at Washington and Harrisburg, who will send daily specials of all important events. Its readers will be kept posted on all the political news of the day, as reported from an independent standpoint, while a large reporter force will keep them informed on local matters. It will also, as it does now, take the lead in discussing questions of importance to oilmen, and work faithfully for the interest of the Oil Region. It will maintain its position as authority in oil statistics, and its market quotations will always be found reliable.

If you want a spicy reading, fresh news, and a red-hot paper, subscribe for the OIL CITY DAILY DERRICK. Terms, $10 per year; six months $5; $1 a month in advance. W. H. LONGWELL & CO., 39 3/4 Publishers, Oil City, Pa.
