October 10, 1877. Our party has suffered an apparent disaster in Ohio. The result has only local and temporary significance. The Republicans of Pennsylvania will be neither disarmed nor dismayed. The great and patriotic record of the party in the past is not to be obscured, nor will it be arrested in its progress until Only One Price for Cash, and a low one. it shall have finished its mission.

Our November contest involves State questions of great importance. A Judge of the Supreme Court is to be elected. For this position you have presented the faithful incumbent of that high office, Hon. James P. Sterrett, a candidate of undoubted learning, ability and integrity, who has already fully illustrated these qualities by long service on the beach.

The financial agents of the State are to be elected, and in presenting Hon. John A. M. Passmore for Auditor General and Captain William B. Hart for State Treasurer, you have chosen gentlemen who combine every qualification necessary for the competent discharge of their duties, and the record of whose private and public lives is unsullied.

In this branch of your interests your party has given the highest evidences of skill and honesty. Since your advent to power you have reduced the State debt from $41,000,000 in 1861, to $22,000,000 at the present time, with assets maturing and pledged for the payment of the State debt amounting to $8,000,000, leaving a net debt of only 14,000,000 to be provided for, showing an actual reduction under Republican administration of $27,000,000. We have given the most unquestioned assurances that our nominees will go on with the policy of retrenchment and financial honesty. At this day not a dollar of State taxes is levied upon the real estate in the Commonwealth.

In national matters it remains to be demonstrated that the equal rights of all have been completely vindicated. HARD It is not yet true that a Republican in the south enjoys all the political privileges of a Democrat in the north. The great Repoblicau party, either in this State or in the nation, will not have CHANGE YOUR SURROUNDINGS. closed its labors or accomplished its urposes until all the rights guaranteed by the Constitution of the United States are practical facts, fully incorperated into the daily life of north and south alike.

The coming struggle in Pennsylvania is of supreme importance with the welfare of the people, who through the busy efforts of demagogues, have been kept uneasy and restless. Much as we deplore the prostration of industrial deplore the prostration deplored of excellent Vineyat 8, Orchards and Farms, can now be seen.

The location is only 34 miles south of Philadelphia, by Railroad, in a mild, delightful climate, and at the very doors of the New York and Philadelphia Markets. Another Railroad runs direct to New York interests in the land, we remind you that this condition of things is not the result of governmental policy, and that England and the other nations of Euope are all suffering in like manner nd from like cause. The constantly ncreasing signs of freshly awakened resperity show that the Republican dministration of affairs during an important crisis has been prudent and acious. Should the continuance of and all modern improvements for the accommodation of visitors.

Agriculturist, Solon Robinson:
All the farmers were of the "well to do"
sort, and some of them, who have turned their attention to fruits and market gardoning, have grown rich. The soil is loam, varying from sandy to clayey, and surface gently undulating, intersected with small streams and occasional wet meadows, in which deposts of peat or muck are stored, sufficient to fertilize the whole upland sur-face, after it has been exhausted of its natural fertility. It is certainly one of the most extensive fertile tracts, in an almost level position, e, but have placed the garlands of ing, that we know of this side of the Western prairies. We found some of the old est farms apparently just as profitably productive as when first cleared of forest fifty or a hundred years ago,

The geologist would soon discover the cause of this continued fortility. The whole country is a marine deposit, and all through the soil we found evidences of calcarcous substances, generally in the form of indurated calcareous marl, showing many distinct forms of ancient shells of the tertiary formation; and this marly substance is scattered all through the soil, in a very comminuted form, and in the exact condition most casily assimmilated by such plants as the farmer desires to
