Shocking News from Edinburgh.

A writer in a paper published at Edinburgh, Scotland, says: The other day in the ladies' room of one of the confectioners in Edinburg I counted twelve ladies at one time, each drinking spirits, porter, or ale (none had wine); one, a girl not fourteen years old, con-sumed a bottle of stont. At the counter sumed a bottle of stoat. At the counter of the same shop, while I was buying some "sweeties," two young lalies under twenty paid for three "brandies and soda." A friend who witnessed a similar incident said the draught was followed by a liberal application of eande-Cologne to cover the offensive smell. I am credibly informed that school girls, with books in hand, go to confectioners for "nips" of cheery brandy, more than one such visit being paid by the same girl at different shops on her way home ; and in one case the owner of the shop got a severe reprimand from a young girl for having catered her brandy in the family pass book, as she intended to pay it herself separately.

A Deer Captured by Girls.

A few days ago, says the Toronto (Canada) Globe, Rosa and Gertrude Breekenridge, daughters of Mr. W. Breekenridge, of Belmont, while in the vicinity of Long Lake, noticed a large deer madly rush into the water, evidently pursued and slightly wounded. Without a moment's hesitation the two girls produced a boat, armed themselves with clubs and set after the deer. They soon encountered the aggravated animal, when the girls courageously commenced the attack with their clubs, and after a short contest brought his deership to bay, and had him conveyed to their home -a proof of their prowess.

Beatty's Celebrated Pianes and Organs.
We have been informed by good authority that the sales of the celebrated pianes and organs of Mr. Daviel F. Beatty, of Washington, N. J., for the last thirty days was by far the largest ever before made since he commenced business; he will no doubt double his already immense business during the holiday season, as Christmas and New Year's gifts. We don't wonder at his immense business, as he is offering great inducements during the holiday season. For instance, we see by his circular he is son. For instance, we see by his circular he is offering to sell a brand new $270 cabinet parlor organ for only $65; magnificent extra fine rose-word pianos, retail price $650, for only $175. He also sends them on balf-month test trial, refunding money and pays freight charges both tailly is a very fair offer Mr. Beatty is now making. We certainly advise our readers who may wish a first-class piano or organ for a holiday gift, to address him at Washington, N. This cer-J., at once, for his twenty four page illustrated newspaper and his new confidential circular to the trade, giving full information all about the piano and organ war. Both sent free to any address.

An Alpine Avalanche.

In the summer of 1864, a party of tourists, while visiting the Alps, climbed, with great difficulty, to an elevated and show-covered plateau, in order to obtain a better view of Swiss scenery, and contrast the beauty and richness of midsummer below with the blaskness and sternify of m dwinter around and above them. In play they rolled the moist snow into large balls; they crowded it over the edge of the plateau. In falling it struck softer snow, which mmediat by gave way, and soon an avalanche was tearing down the mountain side, burying and destrying every thing in its course. As the handful of show became the irresistible avaisnelse, so the hacking cough with sore throat and catarrh, if neglected, speedily develops into that dread destrover, consumption. Dr. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.:

Isap Sir I was prostrated some three years since with pleuro pneumonia, which left me with a troublesome cough, that gradually grew worse until physicians gave me up to die with consumption. I tried several remedies that are advertised to cure consumption, but without obtaining any relief or benefit. Seeing your Golden Medical Discovery and Pleasant I urgative Pellets advertised, I concluded to try there, and I found them to be all that you claim. It is them. My restoration has remained complete for over two years. Inclosed find #1.50 for a copy of your Common Sense Medical Adviser.

A Remedy that Defice Competition.

Hostetter's Stomach Ritters defy competition.

Of the host of rival tonics that have cropped up during its long career, not one has gained and retained such a large share of public favor, though many have enjoyed an ephemeral popu-larity. The reason is this, that whereas many of these medicines were advertised to perform ered a positive specific remedy for liver com-plaint, dyspepsia, malarious fevers, debility, constipation, and numerous other maladies arising from general weakness and disorders of the stomach, liver and bowels.
