Our Washington Letter.

Special to the REPUBLICAN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 2, '78 No explanation accounts for the otherwise inexplicable relapse suffered by nearly every one of our great industrial and commercial interests after the convening of the 45th Congress in extra session last October, except the general distrust entertained of its abilproblems confronting it and requiring mittance. wisdom to solve. All through the spring, summer and early autumn signs of a business revival, which, following every preceding panic had proved the certain harbingers and fore runners of a complete restoration of confidence and prosperity, continued to multiply; and the feeling was general that we had seen the worst of it, and were almost out of the woods. A meeting of Congress, and in a few weeks it was found that we had, somehow retrograded into the very depths of stagnation. At a cost of hundreds of thousands of dollars just two bills, rendered necessary by the partisan malignity of the preceding House, were perfected and passed. The extra lapsed into the regular session, and in the two months since elapsed, not one practical step has been taken to encourage a return of confidence and turn again into the channels of profitable trade the hoarded means of our capitalists. Excluding a very few whose practical statesmanship has been demonstrated in past years, it is felt that Congress has developed a degree of wisdom that would hardly suffice for the conduct of ordinary township affairs.

The passage of the Matthews silver resolution after the waste of many valuable weeks on a matter that only amounts to an expression of opinion, has elated the advocates of the Bland bill and depressed its opponents. Despite assurances telegraphed hence from time to time that the measure was steadily losing strength, and of the "Metropolitan" press to the same effect, it appears that precisely the reverse was true; and the remonetization of silver seems now assured, even against a Presidential veto which is not at all certain, -not probable, indeed, many think. The vote in the Senate stood ayes 43, to pays 22 Among the former were 19 Republicans, and the latter 7 Democrats. In the House the vote stood ayes 189-116 Democrats and 73 Republicans; nays 76-56 Republicans and 20 Democrats.

The Whiskey Ring suffered a severe defeat on Thursday in the House, as he Southern Pacific ring did on Tuesay. The initiatory step to a reducion of the tax on this Democratic bevage was, as charged, generally beeved, attempted under cover of a bill extend the time for withdrawal of hiskey in bond to July 1, 1878. Blackburn, a name always suggestive Every loathsome malady and always ounted on to support every Bourbon teasure calculated to restore the Govmment to medieval practices; Rermer Banning, who holds his place y the grace of Eph. Holland's repeat-Harris, of Va.; Tucker, from the me Commonwealth; and, in short, out every Democrat of the pachyermatous order, especially distinshed themselves in advocating the II. It was estimated that its passage ould postpone the payment of several illion dollars taxes, the deficit to be nade up by taxing other articles, necessary to the poor man's living; because, as I said, it was regarded as the first step toward the reduction of the whiskey tax from 90 cents to 50 or ven 25 cents per gallon. Great failliarity with the principles of politi-I economy is unnecessary to see that our revenues are now barely sufficept for holding a Court of Common Pleas Quarter Sessions, &c., at Tionesta, for the County of Forest, to commence on the County of Feb. next, being the 25th day of Feb. 1878. Notice is therefore given to the Coroner, Justices of the Peace and Constables of said county, that they be then and there in their proper persons at ten o'clock, A. M., of said day, with their ment to the effect that any reduction of the coroner, inquisitions examinations and other remembrances, to do those things of the tax was inexpedient. The vote stood ages 145; nays 112—nearly all and to those who are bound in recognizance barnocrats.

but even that has thrown the lobbies present here in full force, into the greatest consternation. But, notwithstanding this formal commitment of members by their own votes to an opposition to which they were already pledged by party conventions, those opposed to the steals engineered thro' Congress almost every session, should understand that adroit managers, supplied with funds to bribe their way into the Treasury vaults, are here.

The vote of the other day excluding all from the floor of the House not privileged to go there, was also a heavy blow to the lobby. Even ex-Members are now required to register their names and to affix that they have no ity to successfully cope with the grave interest in pending claims, before ad-

Even Eastern public sentiment appears in sympathy with Beck's resolution prohibiting any further taxation for the extinguishment of the national debt till further orders by Congress. Not because a national debt is regarded in the light of a blessing, but because it is held that the generation that fought the war for unity to a successful termination and has already feeling of insecurity came with the diminished the debt by several hundred million, has done its part, at least till the present stringency is relieved.

Western Correspondence.

LONE ROCK, RICHLAND Co., WIS., Jan. 31, 1878.

ED. REPUBLICAN :- As the weather t present is pleasant and has been during the season, the prospect is good for an early spring: We have no snow and the ground has been bare since last November. The farmers prowed and sowed wheat during the last week in December. In fact this has been one of the most peculiar winters on record, and the predictions of our oldest settlers have proved false in every Times are rather dull here at present owing to the low price of produce and the scarcity of money. The markets here at present are as follows: wheat, 85 cts.; Rye 40 cts.; corn 25 cts.; oats 15 cts. per bushel, and other produce in proportion.

Emigration from the Eastern States has been brisk during the winter, and many are seeking new homes in the West. And we say let them come; there is plenty of room for all.

The law makers of this State are W. E. Smith was installed at the capital during the first part of the present month. In the Assembly the Democrats and Greenbackers have united,

There are two things that the Western people pride themselves on : costly churches and stylish school-houses, and I think that Wisconsin will compete with any other State in her school buildings. The schools in this State are in a prosperous condition, and as our heaviest taxation is for school purposes we do not intend to be second in this particular.

This has been a poor winter for hunters and trappers, although a great many deer have been killed,-yet not as many as usual. Wolves are plenty and large bounties are paid by the State for their capture. If the wolves were killed off sheep-raising would be a profitable business here. I've known wolves to come into a farmer's barnyard during the day and kill several sheep before they could be driven away.

Fishing has been quite interesting this winter, as the Wisconsin river has not been frozen over yet, and large quantities of fish have been caught. Pickerel, Redhorse and Buffalo Suckers are most numerous.

The weather is mild to-day, but we may have close weather yet, and we all dread the Western "blizzard."

Respectfully yours, N. B. Hood.

PROCLAMATION.
