LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. W. O. Allen will preach in the M. E. Church next Sunday, morning and evening. Services to commence promptly at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7 P. M.

—Lent begins on the 6th of March and ends on the 20th of April.

—They had a representation of the debilitating effects of intemperance in Tidioute last week.—Conver was up.

—The M. E. Sociable at the Lawrence House last evening was an unqualified success, financially and socially.

—Hon. Ben. Wade, one of Ohio's most prominent statesmen, is seriously ill, and it is doubtful whether he will recover.

—Another wreck off Cape Hatteras is reported, and the crew all lost. This makes the third wreck at that point this winter.

—Mr. J. B. Legnard, of Waukegan, Ill., is at present in town visiting his friends. He is in good health and spirits.

—We noticed quite a number of ducks on the river on Thursday last. We believe it is lawful to kill them with guns at any time.

—It is said by those who are accustomed to prophesy on such matters, that the maple sugar crop will be a large one this season.

—Greenback tickets were elected in Meadville, Titusville, Scranton and several other towns and cities of the State. In Washington Silver Bill was elected.

—Mr. T. J. Payne, of Tylersburg has put a stove saw into his mill, and will shortly commence the manufacture of staves, which will be shipped from this point.

—Brigham Young's heirs talk of contesting his will. He left a vast estate, and if litigation is commenced there will be a rich harvest for the lawyers.

—The dance at the Lawrence House on last Friday evening was not as well attended as it would have been had the weather been favorable, but those who attended had a fine time.

—The pigeons still remain in the neighborhood,—perhaps not the main body but a goodly number. This is the first season for a number of years that they have remained in the country over winter.

—The river is on its "high horse" at present, and is liable to remain so for some days. It is most too early to run timber and lumber, and it is to be hoped that we will have our regular spring flood in addition.

—Dr. R. V. Pierce, who is a member of the State Senate of New York, has introduced a free pipe bill in that body. It is thought that the bill will pass, as several of the leading papers of the State favor it.

—The voters of Clarion County, at the elections held a week ago yesterday, decided that they didn't want any poor house erected in the county. The citizens of Farmington township decided by vote that they didn't want their township divided.

—The sale at the Superior Lumber Co. Store continues, but many of the most desirable goods have been sold, at fair prices. There are still several varieties of goods on sale, but at the present rate of selling they will not last long.

—Forest County has a debt of only about $4,000, after deducting her assets. Armstrong County's bonded indebtedness is $115,741.68. Oil City has a debt of $75,000, and Titusville owes an immense amount of money. Forest is not a large nor a thickly settled county, but she's mighty independent. In a year or two she will owe no man.

—Those of our readers who have never seen any perfect specimens of the deer that roam our forests, and cause so many men to leave the comforts of home for a season each winter, to endeavor to slay them, can see three fine ones, a buck and two does, at the farm of Mr. G. Jamieson, a mile above town. He has a beautiful park for them and they are in fine condition.

—Mr. L. Keister, of East Hickory, writes to inform us that a Committee of the Free Methodist Church, which met at Oil City on Saturday last, decided to hold their camp-meeting for 1878 at Tionesta. The meeting will commence on or about the 7th of August, no preventing Providence. It will be held in some convenient grove, probably back of the Court House.

Court Proceedings.

Court Convened on Monday, 25th inst., President Judge Wetmore and Associates Dale and Kerr on the bench. Up to the time of going to press the following business had been disposed of:

Eloan vs. Overlander; withdrawn. The following cases were also withdrawn:

Wm. Jones for use vs. Harmony Twp.; Wm. Richardson vs. Harmony Twp.; Catherine Dougherty vs. Harmony Twp.

The following cases were continued: D. Beatty vs. Jno. Fitzmorris et al. Selden Whitman vs. J. W. H. Reisinger et al. J. H. Derickson & Co. vs. Thompson & Conroe. Geo. Morgan vs. J. G. Root. Jas. Carl vs. J. Overlander. Catherine Noble et al. vs. P. Day et al. J. B. Agnew for use vs. S. H. Haslet. Joanna B. Sill vs. S. H. Haslet et al.

Superior Lumber Co. vs. T. J. Van Giesen et al.; continued at cost of plaintiff for term.

Jno. D. Hunt vs. County of Forest; continued at cost of plaintiff for term.

J. D. Ainger, Trustee, &c. vs. Joshua Douglass et al.; continued at cost of plaintiff for term.

Wm. Haslet vs. Jas. Conley; on motion of defendant's counsel nonsuit granted.

H. Anshurtz & Co. vs. L. R. Freeman et al.; appearance and plea withdrawn and judgment entered for plaintiff.

A. Bean vs. Wm. Howe et al.; verdict for plaintiff for $638.15.

Achre, Wick & Co. vs. J. G. Dale; verdict for defendant.

The following business has been disposed of by the Grand Jury: Com. vs. P. O. Conner; libel. Not a true bill, and prosecutor, Jno. Hutton to pay costs.

Com. vs. J. B. & J. W. Murphy; cutting timber. A true bill. Indictment quashed by Court.

Com. vs. W. E. Lathy; adultery. A true bill. Case continued until next term, and defendant held in $1,000 bail.

Com. vs. Jno. Peterson; selling liquor without license. A true bill.

The balance of business before the Grand Jury has been in regard to defective roads and bridges. A true bill was found only in case of a needed bridge over Coleman Run in Barnett township.

—The Commissioners' Land Sales yesterday attracted quite a number of land buyers to our place. It is our firm belief that the day is not far distant when these lands will be valuable property.

—Buckwheat cakes are getting out of season, but ham and eggs are getting a bad racket just now. And the combination is one which seems to tickle the palate of the average consumer.

—A young man named Marlin Scott, of Brookville, while fooling with a revolver, a week ago Sunday, discharged it and caught a bullet in his leg. No bones were broken, but perhaps a bad habit was.

—The latest dispatches on the subject are to the effect that peace will be concluded and the treaty between Russia and Turkey signed in a few days. It is hardly probable that other powers will mix in.

—Anderson, of the Louisiana Returning Board, has been sentenced to two years in the penitentiary, at hard labor. It was generally conceded before the trial, that he would be convicted and sentenced, whether innocent or guilty.

—A cane was presented to our retiring Burgess, Mr. G. W. Robinson, on Friday evening last, S. D. Irwin, making a neat and appropriate speech of presentation, to which Mr. Robinson replied, returning thanks in a few well-chosen words.

—The Silver Bill with the Senate amendments having passed the House, the question which now agitates the public mind, is, "will the President sign the bill?" It will make very little difference in the final result whether he does or not, as the bill is bound to become a law.

—A correspondent of the Pittsburgh Telegraph has interviewed Hon. Geo. A. Jenks in regard to his candidacy for the Governorship on the Democratic side. Mr. Jenks is reported as being indifferent about the matter, and is credited with saying that the approaching campaign would be "laborious, responsible and uncertain."

—Mr. W. W. Thomas, of Lacy's Mills, informs us that the Messrs. Lacy have drawn about 2,700,000 feet of lumber to the landing at Lacytown, and have about 700,000 feet at the mill yet. The mill is not running at present.

—Two-thirds of the Senate, three-fourths of the House and about nine-tenths of the people have declared for silver coin, and yet there may be found here and there an editor or a spouter, who persists in playing a role in the "Three Tailors of Tooley Street."—Pitts. Telegraph.

—Within the last year we have received a number of subscribers from among the Democracy of Forest, and we place their names on our list with pleasure. And we must say for our wayward brothers that they are promptly paying and appreciative subscribers.

—"It's an ill wind that blows nobody good." This has been an unfavorable winter for lumbermen, on account of the mild weather and absence of snow, but in has been very favorable for economy of fuel. Many of those who laid in their usual amount of coal last fall, will have considerable quantities of it to summer.

—By the returns from the election at Elk City, we see that Mr. E. C. Mays, formerly of Clarington, has been elected Constable of Elk township, in which Elk City and Shipperville are both located. It is probable that he will have considerable business, and he will undoubtedly make an efficient officer.

—The ground-hog is a delusion and a snare. On the 2d inst. he had ample opportunity to observe his shadow, and we have had no cold weather or sleighing to speak of since. Weather-prophets, ground-hogs and "Old Probabilities," have all been at fault this winter, and their predictions hereafter will be taken with a considerable degree of allowance.

—The amount of timber put in for the Pittsburgh market will not be nearly as great as usual in Forest County, hence it is likely that it will bring better figures than it has for a few years past, as, of course, it should, the expense of putting it in being considerably increased on account of the scarcity of snow. Judge Cook, of Cooksburg, has a larger amount to run than any other man or firm that we have heard of.

—During the pigeon-hunting in this section last fall, there were a couple of breech-loading shot guns lost in the woods, so we are informed, under the following circumstances: The parties were in the woods at night, when it began to rain. Setting their guns up beside some trees; while gathering some firewood the rain put their fire out, and they could not, in the darkness, find the place again, and finally got lost themselves. We have never heard of the guns being found, and presume they are still standing up beside those trees.

—The Standard Oil Company, the monopoly which is credited with keeping down the price of oil, is in trouble. Several of the silent partners of the concern, notably H. L. Taylor & Co., are suing the company for their share of the "drawbacks" or "rebates" on the transportation of oil, which have been paid the company in violation of the Constitution of this State. It is believed that the Standard will have a hard struggle to maintain its position as arbiter of the fate of the oil producers.

—A number of our readers are interested in the California glass ball shootist, and as an instance of his skill we clip the following:

"At Oakland, near San Francisco, Dr. Carver, with a rifle, broke 885 glass balls out of 1,000, tossed from a point twenty feet distant. The time, including all stoppages, was three hours and three minutes. Several Eastern men were present."

The match between Dr. Carver and Bogardus seems to hang fire, and it looks as if the latter were not as keen for the contest as he might be. The Dr. once defeated him in a match of this kind, which may account for his diffidence.

—The Nursery for March has been received. It is replete with the most interesting reading matter for children, so gotten up as to instruct while it interests and amuses the little folks. Published by Jno. L. Shorey, 36 Bromfield St., Boston, Mass., at $1.60 a year.

—Try Kunkel's Perfumes for the handkerchief. For sale at Bovard's.

—March comes in on Friday. Take pains to observe its performances on that day. If it comes in like a lion, why it is in duty bound to go out like a lamb, and vice versa. Unless, perchance, the lion and the lamb should lie down together and kind of average the weather all through.

Dentistry. I will be in Tionesta, at the Lawrence House, on Monday, Feb. 25th, 1878.

Will remain a week or ten days. Persons wishing my services will please call early. S. J. FISHER, Dentist, Union City, Pa.

—If you want a good article, buy Kunkel's Perfumes for the handkerchief. For sale at Bovard's. tf.

—Kunkel's "Parfume de Paris," the pleasantest and most delightful perfume extant, for sale at Bovard's. Price 75 cts. per bottle. This is no cheap, scented trumpery, but is a standard and lasting article. lf.

—Call at Robinson & Bonner's and see the Livingston Corn Sheller, two sizes, suitable for farmers and poultry raisers. 37 3c

—Kunkel's "Des Fleur De Alpes," a delicious perfume for the handkerchief. Price 75 cts. per bottle. Do not waste your money on "cheap" perfumery; the best is the cheapest. For sale at Bovard's. lf.
