LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. W. O. Allen will preach in the M. E. Church next Sunday, morning and evening. Services to commence promptly at 11 o'clock A. M. and 7 P. M.

—Mrs. Walters is at home on a vacation from the Edinboro Normal School, and Floyd Proper from the Randolph Seminary.

—Several parties have been here for a week or more for the purpose of trapping pigeons. We have not heard of any being captured by them.

—We notice several of our thrifty people getting their lots ready for spring onions and lettuce. Tionesta has some of the best gardeners to be found anywhere.

—Mr. J. H. Dingman has excited our gratitude by presenting us several bunches of the finest celery we have ever seen at this time of year. It was crisp, tender, spicy—perfect. Much obliged.

—Esq. Irwin was suddenly called away on Monday last by a telegram which stated that his brother, Richard, was lying dangerously ill. It is to be hoped that Mr. Irwin will soon recover his usual health.

—Attention is called to the new advertisement of Hyde, Shattuck, & Co., manufacturers of breech-loading shot-guns, revolvers, pistols, etc. They make a single-barrel breech-loading shot-gun, twist barrel, which is very highly spoken of. Price $18.

—The stove mill in town is a good thing for the proprietors, and furnishes work for several parties who might otherwise be obliged to be idle. The refuse of the mills is sawed up into stove-wood, and is burned by nearly all in town who have suitable stoves.

—Sucker fishing is quite brisk at present writing, but we believe sucker-catchery is not so brisk. We have some very patient fishermen here, who only need a nibble or two to keep them fishing busily for half a day. No large strings have been caught this spring.

—If the weather does not cool off materially in the next two or three weeks, the trouting season will be ushered in with a grand rush. About all the tackle in town is fixed up in good shape, and the owners thereof are looking anxiously forward to the 1st of April.

—Happening across the river a few days ago, we called in and took a look at Prof. Monday's piano. It is indeed a beautiful and valuable instrument, upright, finely finished, and of German manufacture. Its tone is at least as good as that of any instrument we ever heard.

—Mr. S. Robinson, of Mercer, brother of the Messrs. Robinson of our place, came here last week for a little pigeon hunt. While he was not very successful in bagging pigeons, he succeeded in making many friends among the disciples of the rod and gun. He departed for his home yesterday.

—Our lumbermen are all very busy, and our town is rather quiet by reason of our young men being employed in rafting and running out timber and lumber. It would be a calamity should we not have our regular spring flood, as nearly all our lumbermen depend on more water to get their lumber to market.

—Some queer craft pass down the river every spring flood, carrying everything from a cargo of potatoes to a stock of fine parlor furniture. Some people take this method of enigrating, leading their effects on a boat, and floating down the Allegheny and Ohio until they get a good chance to sell their boat, when they take the proceeds and proceed toward the setting sun.

—James Swaverley, an employee of the Central House, is treading the rough pathway of life on a pair of crutches. A week or more ago he had the misfortune to catch a barrel of oil which fell from a wagon, on one of his legs, and the result was a bad sprain and several bruises, from which he has suffered a good deal. The leg is improving.

—The School Board met according to appointment, a quorum being present. The question "to hire or not to hire" a teacher for the remaining month of the term, came up, and it was decided that the upper school should be closed for the balance of the term, it being believed that a new teacher could not advance the pupils much in their studies in the short time given.

—There was to be a pond flood in the creek yesterday, but we believe that it was postponed until to-day. To those who do not know what a "pond flood" is, we would explain that brackets, consisting of boards fastened on top of the dam, enabling it to hold perhaps four to five more feet of water than usual, are erected on all the dams on the creek up as far as there is any lumber to run. At a given time the bracket on the upper dam is cut, and the lumber floated down on the water; when the head nearly reaches the next dam the bracket on that is cut, and so on down to the mouth. To those who are not accustomed to these things it seems queer that the rafts should run ahead of the water, yet such is the case, pieces often sticking in the channel, and having to wait for the water to catch up with and float them off.

—The county political campaign is commencing earlier this year than ever before since the county was created. Already it is pretty well known all through the county who and how many are to run for the nomination for the important offices within the gift of the people of the county, and the chances of the different candidates are as freely discussed now as they have heretofore been in May or June. The County Committee will probably meet during May Court, and fix the time for holding the primary elections, at which time we may expect the fullest vote ever cast at a primary election in Forest County.

—Mr. Wm. Richards, of the North Ward, is proceeding to build a front part to his house just as if times were good and money plenty. Pat Joyce is at the stonework, the lumber is on the ground, and the frame will soon arise. We have not heard what the dimensions of the new part of the house are to be, but from a view from the other side of the road, would guess about 20x24. His improvements are solid, and will stand old Time's ravages a good while. By-the-way, Mr. Richards will please accept our thanks for a favor rendered during his late trip.

—Mr. McClure, of Brookston, was in town yesterday, and made us a call. He informs us that the father of Mr. F. W. Brooks died, in New York a few days ago, and that Mr. B. had just gone on to attend the funeral. He also informs us that two large new boilers have been put in the tannery, and that business is brisk there. Some time ago we were promised a complete description of the tannery and process of tanning, etc., but suppose our correspondent has been too busy to write it up for us.

—Mr. A. A. Copland informs us that the Messrs. McLaughlin are sinking another well on the Kepler Farm, in Harmony township. Conversing with a pumper from that farm yesterday, he informed us that the old wells were holding out to pretty nearly the amount they produced when they were first struck, but that they were never as large as was at first reported. It is altogether likely that considerable Forest county territory will be developed during the present season.

—A few "Alleghenys" started down the river from here on Sunday, and several of our able-bodied citizens are down with them. Altogether not more than four or five Alleghenys have gone from here, and while the run will not be as large this year as usual, of course there will be quite a quantity sent down yet this spring, if the water keeps up. We have heard nothing as to the prices lumber is bringing this year.

—Mr. Hague, Agent for the Messrs. Grandin, of Tidioute, started for the great Grandin farm in Dakota, on Monday last. He goes by way of St. Louis, where he proposes to purchase a lot of mules for work on the farm. About 7000 acres of land will be put under cultivation on the farm this season. We understand that several parties in Tidioute have invested in lands adjoining or near the Grandin Farm.

—At Dunkirk, last Friday, the United States Express Company transferred from the Atlantic Express, L. S. & M. S. Railroad, to the Erie Railway, nine and a half tons of silver. There were 208 blocks, valued at $350,000. Mr. Lee was the messenger in charge of the precious metal.

For Sale, or To Let on a long lease for improvement,—or will be exchanged for Philadelphia property: the quarter-acre lot on Elm street adjoining the Court House. Is eligible for building purposes. Apply to S. D. Irwin, Esq., Tionesta, Pa.

—The bill fixing the salaries of School Superintendents passed the House at Harrisburg last week. It provides they shall be paid two dollars for each school and seventy-five cents for each square mile of territory in the county, and if the directors wish to make the salary more than that the surplus must be taken out of the county funds.

—The seaboard pipe line is no longer an uncertainty. The project is now so far advanced that contracts have been let for the manufacture of a large portion of the pipe necessary for the construction of the line. A considerable quantity of pipe has also been purchased, and is now being placed on the ground. The building of the line will be begun at points where opposition is expected from railroad companies. Success to the enterprise.—Derrick.

—The April number of Balloons Magazine is out, and a careful examination of the contents will be sufficient to convince the most skeptical that there is no publication in this country that can compare with it for general interest and cheapness combined. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley Street, Boston. Subscribe or buy at once, and you will not regret it.
