

MARKET NEWS

Eastern and Middle States.

The Home Savings Bank, of Boston, has suspended. It is believed the depositors will be paid in full, but a long time will be required to wind up the affairs.

A fire in Jersey City, N. J., destroyed five dwellings and made over one hundred families destitute. Loss on buildings and to occupants, about $26,000.

Robert McAdam and Charles Patton, boys aged about twelve years, quarreled in Philadelphia over the possession of a stick of candy. Patton drew a pistol and shot McAdam through the head, instantly killing him.

The election in New Hampshire resulted in a victory for the Republicans. Governor Prescott was re-elected, and a Republican legislature and council were also chosen.

Three buildings of the American Powder Company, at South Acton, Mass., were completely demolished by an explosion, and two men, named Foster and Turpen, were instantly killed. The explosion was the shock of the explosion that it was heard for a distance of twenty-five miles.

Jehiel Reed & Co., wholesale hat dealers, and Joseph H. Marks, commission merchant, of New York City, have suspended, the former owing $200,000 and the latter $110,000.

Benjamin Noyes, who was indicted in New Jersey more than a year ago for his acts as president of the Standard Oil Company, and as insurance company, in connection with the transfer of assets of the New Jersey Mutual Life Insurance Company, and who has at that time was declared forfeited because he did not appear when wanted, was rearrested in Washington and taken to Newark, N. J.

The Pennsylvania Senate has passed a bill creating a banking department, whose duty it shall be to annually examine into the soundness and stability of the State's incorporated banks.

Students of the Princeton (N. J.) Theological Seminary were attacked by Princeton College students and two of them severely beaten. Six of the college boys were arrested.

Mrs. Ann Eliza Leggett, a wealthy widow residing in Tuckahoe, N. Y., was shot and instantly killed in the presence of her daughter by a neighbor named Thomas Merritt, who then hurried to his own house and shot himself through the heart. The parties to the tragedy were related by marriage, and Merritt had been drinking at the time of the shooting, but the cause of the double crime remains a mystery. The verdict of the coroner's jury was that Merritt was suffering from temporary aberration of mind.

The Newburyport (Mass.) Five-Cent Savings Bank has been enjoined by the State bank commissioner from further business.

Joseph La Page, alias Joseph Pariah, was executed at the State prison in Concord, N. H., for the murder of Josie A. Langmaid, at Pembroke, N. H., on the 4th of October, 1876. Miss Langmaid, a girl of seventeen, and daughter of one of the most prominent citizens of Pembroke, died for cholera on the day of the murder. She was waylaid, and in the evening her body was discovered in a dense swamp, a few rods from the road. Her head was cut off and missing, and the body was otherwise mutilated, evidently for the purpose of concealing the identity of the criminal. The head was found a third of a mile distant from the scene of the murder. La Page was arrested and convicted on circumstantial evidence and sentenced on January 19, 1877, to be executed. He was granted a new trial, which resulted in a similar verdict and a sentence of execution, as before. It was during his trial, murdered Miss Ball, a school teacher, at St. Albans, Vt., in 1874, and escaped through lack of evidence. Previous to his execution he confessed the murder of both Miss Ball and Miss Langmaid. His whole history is characterized by excessive brutality. He was accompanied to the scaffold by his spiritual advisers. He made no remarks before the death trap was sprung, and his death seemed an almost painless one.

Calvin Stewart, who killed Ira Cole, the railroad engineer, at Dover, N. J., last June, and was sentenced to be hanged on April 8, has had his sentence commuted to twenty years' imprisonment.

There has been a run on several of the Boston savings banks by frightened depositors.

Alexander Bartow, treasurer of the Fishkill (N. Y.) Savings Bank, has been indicted on four charges—two for embezzling $61,000 and two for grand larceny in taking $8,000.

Western and Southern States. Eleven buildings were destroyed by fire at Hubbardston, Mich., and a loss incurred of $11,600.

The Farmers and Traders' Bank, of Lexington, Kan., has suspended payments. Its deposits aggregate $300,000.

The recent heavy snow storm in Nebraska and Wyoming Territory was one of unprecedented severity, and numerous persons—ranchmen, sheep herders and others—lost their lives, while the loss of live stock is very large.

The State Bank, of Arkansas, at Hot Springs, has suspended payments, in consequence of losses during the recent fire.

A heavy storm of hail and rain in Jefferson county, W. Va., destroyed thousands of acres of wheat and other grain, unroofed and blew down houses and killed cattle. The loss will reach over $150,000.

The new Virginia funding bill has passed in the State Senate—yes, 23, nays, 5. The preamble of the bill, recognizing the necessity of preserving and increasing the continued existence of the institutions of the State, including the public school system, and expressing willingness and anxiety to restore the former equity of the public creditors by distributing the same among them the entire excess of public revenues derived from the present rate of taxation, after a most economical administration of the State government.

A party of men who were lynching a colored man at Pensacola, Fla., for assaulting a little girl, were fired upon by a sheriff's posse; one man was killed and five were dangerously wounded.

It is reported that Sitting Bull is preparing for another Indian war.

Gus Johnson, a white man, was hung in Rome, Ga., for the murder of Daniel Alfred, a colored man. The cause of the crime was Alfred's refusal to hurry in taking a flatboat across the Coosa river to Johnson, who there upon shot him dead. Before he was hung Johnson committed to the gallows two men and helped to kill two more.

The hard money league of the West met at Chicago and issued an address to the people of the United States, opposing "all paper inflation and consequent depression; in favor of coin and paper of equal value and equal purchasing power, and convertible into each other at the will of the holder."

The President has nominated John V. Hoyt, of Wisconsin, to be governor of Wyoming Territory.

The act amending the laws granting pensions to the soldiers and sailors of the war of 1812 and their widows have been approved by the President.

The director of the mint has informed the House committee on coinage that the capacity of the mints would be doubled by the erection of two new mints and the reopening of the old mint at New Orleans.

Senator Morrill, of Vermont, recently called up in the Senate the bill to provide for a commission on the subject of the alcoholic liquor traffic. It authorizes the President to appoint, by and with the advice of the Senate, a commission of five persons, who shall be selected solely with reference to personal fitness and capacity for an honest, impartial and thorough investigation into the alcoholic liquor traffic, primarily, in its relations to revenue, and also to taxation, and its general economic and scientific respects in connection with the public and general welfare of the people. The commission is to be organized on or before the 1st day of August next, and its report is to be made to the Senate on or before the 1st day of December next. The commission is to be organized on or before the 1st day of August next, and its report is to be made to the Senate on or before the 1st day of December next.

union countries. This is in accordance with the spirit of the silver bill, providing for an international conference to determine the relative values of the bi-metallic standards.

The House committee on post-offices and post roads has under consideration a new scheme for the classification of mail matter.

The state department has received official intelligence from Constantinople, of the discontinuance of the blockade on the Black sea.

The House committee on education and labor has reported to the House a bill providing that the net proceeds of sales of public lands shall forever be consecrated and set apart for the education of the people. This act is not to have any effect to repeal, repair or suspend any law authorizing the pre-emption of public lands or the entry of public lands for homesteads, nor as limiting in any manner the power of Congress to alter or extend the right of homestead upon such lands, nor shall it be held to limit or abridge the power of Congress over the public domain.

The President has nominated William S. Choate to be United States judge for the Southern district of New York.

The first batch of new silver dollars—ten thousand in number—was received at the treasury department, and three thousand of them were paid out in exchange for gold. Secretary Sherman, by whose order silver is only struck for gold, takes the greatest pleasure to sell it for greenbacks would make the latter payable for customs duties which, he states, is contrary to law.

The House committee on banking and currency has agreed upon a bill providing for the issue of silver billion certificates in denominations of $10, $20, $50, $100 and $1,000, representing 112 1/2 per cent, and receivable without limit for all dues to the United States. Messrs. Hardenbergh, Eames and Chittenden, of the committee, voted against the bill.

A dispatch was received from the United States consul-general at Havana, recording the death of Gen. John E. Leonard, member of the Louisiana legislature, who about a fortnight previous had been sent by the President as a special commissioner to Cuba to inquire into the alleged kidnapping of colored men from Florida.

Foreign News. A London dispatch says: Trustworthy private advices from India state that the Mohomedans are greatly excited in consequence of the overthrow of Turkey. Serious troubles have even apprehended unless the government takes some anti-Russian action shortly. It is believed that 200,000 Moslem volunteers, to serve against Russia, could be raised without difficulty.

About forty miners were killed by an explosion in a colliery near Bolton, England.

The king of Greece was entertained by General Grant, at his headquarters on the United States steamer Vandalla, at Athens.

Casagane, the well known French expert of fighting privities, has fought another duel with a lieppublican deputy, at Paris.

The storerooms in course of erection at the Woolwich dockyard, London, covering an acre of ground, suddenly collapsed while the laborers were at work. Hundreds of the workmen were buried in the debris. All were quickly rescued, but many of them were seriously injured.

Thirty-six persons who were attending a fair at Brest, France, were drowned by the capsizing of a barge.

Subscriptions for a new issue of 50,000,000 roubles were opened at St. Petersburg, and the amount is said to have been immediately subscribed.

The Powers have agreed to have each two representatives in the Peace Congress.

CONGRESSIONAL SUMMARY. Senate. A large number of petitions remonstrating against the transfer of the control of the life-saving service from the treasury to the navy department, protesting against the passage of any bill to impose a tax on incomes arising to appointment of a commission to inquire into the alcoholic liquor traffic, were presented.

The House bill making appropriations for the West Point military academy was reported.

Mr. Cookling, from the committee on commerce, reported a bill in aid of a Polar expedition, designed by James Gordon Bennett, and reported from the committee on commerce on the previous day, and it was passed unanimously without debate. It authorizes the secretary of the treasury to issue an American register to the vessel purchased by James Gordon Bennett, under the name of Jeannette, and also authorizes the President of the United States to detail with their own consent, commissioners, warrant, and petty officers of the navy, not to exceed ten in number, to act as officers of said vessel during her first voyage to the Arctic sea; provided, however, that such detail shall be made of such officers only as the President is satisfied can be absent from their regular duties without detriment to the public service.

The bill providing in the United States a sinking fund to pay the debts of the Union Pacific and Central Pacific railroad companies was debated. After executive session the Senate adjourned.

The House bill making appropriations for fortifications and other works of defense was reported. Mr. Kellough introduced a bill to establish a mint at New Orleans. A bill appropriating $150,000 for damage done to the property of the Methodist Episcopal Church South during the war was reported favorably.

A letter from the secretary of the interior authorized the timber on the reservation was read, and Mr. Blaine made a speech criticizing the course of Secretary Schurz in collecting one dollar per cord, stumpage, in Montana. The West Point appropriation bill was passed with some amendments. Adjourned.

Mr. Kellough introduced a bill providing for the payment of all customs duties and all other debts due the United States in legal tender notes at par, except in cases where it is otherwise expressly stipulated on the face of the obligation or contract. Reported to the committee on finance. After further discussion on the Pacific railroad sinking fund bill the Senate adjourned.

House. Mr. Springer, of Illinois, offered a resolution authorizing the committee on expenditures in the several departments to employ each a clerk or expert pending investigations, and the committee on post-roads to employ two experts. Agreed to by 135 to 104. After debate the House passed the deficiency appropriation bill, an appropriation of $500,000 for petty clerks in the treasury, $200,000 for clerks to investigate fraudulent land entries, etc.; $25,000 for clerks in the general land office to bring into the market the public lands in Arkansas, Louisiana, Mississippi, Alabama and Florida; and $4,000 for lighting and heating the pension office. Adjourned.

The bill authorizing the issue of a long bond for the investment of savings was referred to the committee on ways and means. The bill appropriating money for the payment of Southern mail contracts, for services rendered prior to 1861, came up and provoked a prolonged discussion. Mr. Willets, of Michigan, read from the Confederate archives to show that eighteen of these claims had been paid by the Confederate government. He also quoted a report by Mr. Reagan, a Confederate postmaster-general, which he credited himself with $502,000 paid on account of services rendered prior to May 31, 1861. Mr. Reagan, of Texas, said that he had not seen any of his reports since the end of the war, but if the report was true, he would endeavor to an amount to be excluded from payment such contractors as were paid by the Confederate government. Mr. Blount, of Georgia, felt it to be his bounden duty to say for his section that he would not cast his vote to pay any gentleman for carrying mails in the South who had hitherto been paid by the Confederate government. Without coming to a conclusion the House adjourned.

Mr. Erving, of Ohio, offered a joint resolution proposing to amend the constitution so as to authorize the issuing of an indefinite amount of treasury notes to be used to retire United States bonds not bearing interest, and to reduce the interest-bearing debt, and to be legal tender except where existing contracts call for coin. The diplomatic appropriations bill was considered in committee of the whole, when Mr. Hoar, of New York, attacked the recent treaties and resolutions, and assailed the policy of President Hayes. A joint resolution fixing the time for paying whisky taxes was reported from the committee on ways and means. The naval appropriation bill was reported. It appropriates $14,045,048. A resolution inviting the President to recognize the Diaz government, in Mexico, was offered, but objection was made. An evening session for general debate was held and the House adjourned at 9:50 p. m.

The consular and diplomatic appropriation bill came up for discussion. An amendment restoring the bill to its original mission to the original amount was rejected. Mr. Reagan, of Texas, made an exclamation in regard to the subject of proposed payment of mail routes contractors in the South for services rendered previous to the war. He stated that he had forgotten about the legislation in the Confederate Legislature regarding the matter, and hoped the House would not consider he had been dealing unfairly with it. Mr. Conger, of Michigan, disclaimed any intention to reflect upon the American people. The bill granting an American register to the Pariah for the Bennett Arctic exploring expedition was passed. Adjourned.

The bill to extend the time for paying the tax on distilled spirits in bonded warehouses was discussed and amended so as to require that the tax paid shall be the same as when put in bond. Adjourned.

Mother's! Mother's! Mothers!!! Don't fail to procure Dr. Winslow's Soothing Syrup for all diseases incident to the period of teething in children. It relieves the child from pain, cures wind colic, regulates the bowels, and, by giving relief and health to the child, gives rest to the mother. It is an old and well-tried remedy.

Why He Wouldn't Marry Her. "Marry her! by George! I would if it wasn't for her confounded nose." "Nose? He has the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

A Result of Obstructed Digestion. Among the hurtful consequences of obstructed digestion, is the impoverishment of the blood, and since a deteriorative condition of the vital fluid not only produces dangerous organic weakness, but, according to the best medical authorities, sometimes causes apoplexy. It is apparent that to improve the quality of the blood by promoting digestion and assimilation, is a wise precaution. Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, is precisely the remedy for this purpose, since it stimulates the gastric juice, conquers those bilious and evanescent irregularities which interfere with the digestive process, promotes assimilation of the food by the blood, and purifies as well as enriches it. The signs of improvement in health in consequence of using Bitters are speedily apparent in an accession of vigor, a gain in bodily substance, and a regular and active performance of every physical function.

No man in his senses should buy worthless horse and cattle powder, simply because it is put up in large packages. Sheridan's Cavalry Condition Powder are put up in small packages, but are absolutely pure and are immensely valuable.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

There's no use Talking About the matter with her nose? Is it too short, too long, or crooked—what? You're too fastidious, young man. A woman may be a charming wife and have one of these deformities." "It isn't any of them, old fellow. The fact is I like Kitty—like to look at her and talk to her—but her nose in relationship I could not endure. Her nose is too long. Unfortunately Kitties should use Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, the wonderful disinfecting properties of which instantly sweeten the breath, destroying all offensive odor. To its mild, soothing, and healing effects the most inveterate cases of catarrh promptly yield. Sold by druggists.

Johnson's Anodyne Liniment is, without doubt, the safest, surest and best remedy that has ever been invented for internal and external use. It is applicable to a great variety of complaints, and is equally beneficial for man or beast. Find out about it and thank us for the advice.

A Miserable Retain. Get from your druggist a package of Quirk's Irish Tonic. Price 25 cts.

&lt;