LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

Notice—Council Meeting.

The members of the Burd Council elected at the February elections are requested to meet at the law office of E. L. Davis, Esq., to-morrow (Thursday) evening, at 7:30 o'clock, for the transaction of business.

Rev. W. O. Allen will preach in the M. E. Church next Sunday, morning and evening.

—Mr. S. C. Roupe, of Green Township, is to-day announced as a candidate for Assembly, subject to Republican usages.

—Mr. T. J. Van Giesen, of Tionesta Boro, is to-day announced as a candidate for Prothonotary, &c., subject to Republican usages.

—C. A. Randall, Esq., of Tionesta Boro, is to-day announced as a candidate for Sheriff, subject to Republican usages.

—Mr. B. D. McClure, of Brookston, is announced in this issue as a candidate for County Superintendent of Schools.

—Mr. H. W. Ledabur, of Green Township, is to-day announced as a candidate for County Commissioner, subject to Republican usages.

—Just about now several of our people are getting out of soft coal. Perhaps a few loads brought in at once would bring good prices.

—Argument Court was held on Monday by Associate Judges Dale and Kerr, and was adjourned until this evening, when Judge Wetmore is expected.

—The Balltown well is due, and if the operators have had no bad luck it must be down. We have no news from there. At Ross Run, in Mr. Southard's well, the tools are stuck.

—Messrs. T. West, of the Jacksonian, and W. D. Burns, Attorney at Law, of Clarion, favored us with a call last week. Mr. Burns is thinking of purchasing the Forest Press office.

—Soldiers of the war of 1812, now living, or their widows, no matter when married, are entitled to pensions. Many of these old veterans are coming to the front.

—Rob't Guyton and Mr. McBride trapped a bear up near Bear Creek last week, and McBride finished the job with a charge of shot from Lawrence's pin-fire gun.

—Attention is called to the card of C. E. McCray, who has leased the Tionesta House and refitted it in a comfortable manner. He is an old hand at the business, and will undoubtedly receive his share of the public patronage.

—A few ducks and some pigeons are flying at present. The main body of the pigeons, however, are now flying some other course, on account, we suppose, of the great danger to life and liberty from hunters and trappers in this section.

—Mr. Eli Holman is putting up a good board fence around his place on Vine Street, known as the Dale Homestead. The lot is a large one, and fences are an expensive luxury, but it will be a great improvement to the property.

—Already some of the more tough and venturesome of our troutists have hied them away to the wilderness, prepared to camp out by night and to fish the trout streams by day. It is yet a little early for thin-skinned mortals to indulge in savage life.

—Mr. S. S. Holbrook has sent Mr. John Reck a fine specimen of his famous Alderney stock, in the shape of a heifer calf, which is as beautiful as a fawn, and is undoubtedly the making of a fine cow.

—S. D. Irwin, Esq., desires us to inform the public that those who wish his map of Forest County had best send in their orders at once, as he has only twenty-five of them on hand, and no more can be procured after this stock is exhausted.

—On Sunday afternoon last Mr. G. W. Albaugh's youngest child, a little boy of about five years, was kicked in the forehead above the left eye by one of John Holings' horses, and in addition to receiving a severe cut, the bone was slightly crushed in.

—Large and Small Clover Seed, Timothy Seed and Landreth's Garden Seeds, at Robinson & Bonner's.

—The pigeon shoot spoken of last week, came off on Thursday afternoon, on Hunter's Island. Quite a crowd was present, but the number that took a hand in the matches was somewhat limited.

—We have received the April number of "Baldwin's Guide of the Pennsylvania Oil Regions and Northwestern Pennsylvania." It is issued monthly by W. S. Baldwin & Brother, at $1.50 a year, or 15 cents per number.

—Thomas Sanford of Green Township, and his immediate neighbors had a bad scare last week, on account of Thomas "breaking out" with what he and his friends believed to be the small-pox.

—Senator Corbett, of Clarion, who represents this district in the Senate Chamber, at Harrisburg, paid his constituents in Tionesta a visit on Saturday last, remaining over Sunday.

—Report of German Hill School for month ending April 5: Number enrolled, 22. Average attendance, 16. Those not absent during month: Vina Zuendel, Ernst Zuendel, Mary Burhen, Carlos Heath, Eddie Heath.

—A good single-barrel rifle in perfect order, for sale at a low figure. Can be seen at this office.

—We will pay cash on delivery at our mill in Tionesta, for white oak stave and heading bolts at the following prices:

—Stave bolts, 35 inches long, per cord of 8 ft. by 4 ft., $4.50. Heading bolts 22 inches long, per cord of 8 ft. by 4 ft., $4.00.

—The "trap" is a box formed like a pyramid, four-square at the bottom and terminating in a point at the top. It is about fourteen inches square at the bottom and about a foot high, set up on a hollow post perhaps eighteen inches high.

—The dead pigeons belonged to the parties who shot them, but quite a number were killed that couldn't be accounted for; it was therefore evident that some party or parties got a big mess of pigeons without money and without price.

—The neatest thing we saw was the killing of two birds sprung from the traps at once, one with each barrel of a gun. This was done several times and looked like skillful work.

—This match was all that was needed to set the boys crazy on wing shooting, and if Forest County don't turn out some good wing shots before this time next year we shall miss our guess.

—On Sunday afternoon last Mr. G. W. Albaugh's youngest child, a little boy of about five years, was kicked in the forehead above the left eye by one of John Holings' horses, and in addition to receiving a severe cut, the bone was slightly crushed in.

—There will be exposed to public sale at my late residence, on Vine Street, Tionesta, Pa., on SATURDAY, APRIL 13, 1878, at 1 o'clock P. M., one pair of work horses, harness, beds and bedding and household furniture generally.

—If you want a good article, buy Kunkel's Perfumes for the handkerchief. For sale at Bovard's.

—Kunkel's "Parfume de Paris," the pleasantest and most delightful perfume extant, for sale at Bovard's. Price 75 cts. per bottle. This is no cheap, scented trumpery, but is a standard and lasting article.
