ATTENTION SOLDIERS!

I have been admitted to practice as an Attorney in the Pension Office at Washington, D. C. All officers, soldiers, or sailors who were injured in the late war, can obtain pensions to which they may be entitled, by calling on or addressing me at Tionesta, Pa. Also, claims for arrearages of may and bounty will receive prompt at-tention.

Having been over four years a soldier in the late war, and having for a number of years engaged in the prosecution of sol-diers' claims, my experience will assure the collection of claims in the shortest por sible time. J. B. AGNEW. 4111.

-The new Time Table went into effect on Monday last, but for some reason we have not yet received a copy of it. The time of the principal trains at this station is as follows:

North, 7:43 A. M. and 3:17 P. M. South, 1:41 and 10:27 P. M.

The 7:43 and 1:41 trains carry the mails. We will probably have the change in full next week.

-A small amount of lumber went down the river last week on the "skipper flood," but the prices continue low, and very little lumber is being sold.

-Under the new law it is now lawful to catch bass with a hook, or to spear them. This latter clause will be appreciated by some of our citizens.

-The Brookville Graphic relates a sad story in regard to Mr. J. M. Corbet, late of this town. Some wicked scoundrel stole his Sunday hat.

-The coinage of silver dollars last month is said to have been upward of any second instructions given, but $3,000,000. About one-millionth part there was some hitch in the convention of the coinage tound its way into this county.

-Sam. Young still lives, and has started a new paper at East Brady, called the Advertiser. If Sam's friends haven't all gone into bankruptcy he may be able to effect several loans on the strength of his new venture.

-At last the boys have blown up their muscle and gone to playing ball. A practice game was had on Saturday and one on Monday. The grounds are up above the brickyard. It is not yet known whether a club will be formed, -Mr. W. W. Derby, of Erie, has won the gold medal of the Northwestern Shooting Club, which has been shot for at a number of matches, he making the best aggregate. Mr. D. attended the first pigeou shoot here, and made good scores.

--H. McSweeney, Esq., of St. Pe tersburg, was in town yesterday, call ing upon his friends. He was formerly a student in the law office of Hon. J. B. Agnew, and, we understand, has a lucrative practice in the Clarion Regions.

-By reference to another column it Great Pacific Circus is to exhibit in week, are thus told us : Tionesta on Tuesday next, afternoon and evening. When here last summer this company gave a very satisfactory exhibition, and everything was conducted in a respectable manner.

Of course there were followers, who had little games with which to swindle the unwary, but the proprietors of the circus were not responsible for their camp-followers, so all large entertainments have parasites, who make a livless to warn our people again in regard to these swindles; some of them received severe lussons last summer. As it last exhibited here, and the proprietors were gentlemen who paid their bills and did a square business. We have no doubt but the exhibition will be fully as good as last season.
