LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Next Sunday is Rev. Allen's regular appointment in the M. E. Church in this place, but it is hardly probable that services will be held at that time, on account of the proximity of the church to the cases of small-pox. Last Sunday Rev. Elliot held services in the morning, but announced that there would be no service in the evening, and further that there would be Sabbath School in the Presbyterian church for two weeks. We believe his action in the matter met the approbation of the entire congregation.

—Gen. Harry White was in town last week, calling on a few of his constituents. His time was limited, and he did not get around as he would have liked to. We were absent from town, and did not meet him. His course in Congress is approved at home and abroad, by the party, and his constituency will see to it that he is sent to Washington to represent them for at least two years more.

—The well on Charley Hill's farm, four miles up the river, is down 300 feet, and we hear that the operators are being bothered by salt water. If, after the water is shut off, oil in paying quantities is not found, the well will be put down 800 to 1000 feet. The well on the Woods Heirs tract is going down as rapidly as the drillers can get their work in. As to other ventures in the county we hear no particular news, but if any of them get oil in paying quantities we shall, no doubt, be made acquainted with the fact at once.

—"Baldwin's Guide of the Pennsylvania Oil Regions and Northwestern Pa." for July, has come to hand. It contains full and accurate Time Tables of all railroads in this section, with their principal connections, distances, fares, express routes, telegraph rates, postal information, valuable oil statistics, &c., &c., and is published monthly, at $1.00 per annum, or 10c. per number, by W. S. Baldwin & Bro., P. O. Box 362, Titusville, Pa. It is a publication that has long been needed in this section, and is ably conducted.

—On the 5th inst., in company with Messrs. Horace Jones, E. A. Baldwin and W. E. Stephens, of Tidioute, we hunted the islands from this point down to Holeman's, in quest of woodcock. This was our second venture, and by reason of the old veterans, particularly Mr. Jones, holding their fire, and allowing us to take the best shots, we made a fair score. The weather, however, was too warm for any sort of comfort, and it took us a day or two to "brace up." Whenever we go woodcocking, if we may be allowed to choose our company, we will take a few of those big-hearted old gunners of Tidioute, and bet our pile that we have a fair show and a good time.

—A great deal of good and solid work has been done on the sidewalks during the past few weeks, but recently the work has been allowed to languish somewhat on account of the small-pox excitement. It is not at all likely, however, that any poor sidewalk will escape the attention of the committee. Bills have been sent to several parties for whom sidewalks have been built, but we believe none have responded. If the bills are not paid forthwith, the amounts will be entered up against the properties, and collected by process of law, thereby adding materially to the expense. "A word to the wise," etc.

Another Pioneer Gone. Joseph Allender was born in Center Co., Pa., Jan. 13th, 1802, and died at his late residence in Forest Co. June 25th, 1878. He came with his parents to this section of the country when but 3 years of age, and has lived and died upon the old homestead. He joined the Methodist Episcopal Church at the age of 22 years, and has ever been a faithful member. The last eleven weeks of his life were spent in a helpless and suffering condition, through all of which he retained control of his mind remarkably well, and manifested no disposition to murmur at his lot. He had a strong desire to die, and seemed to realize that his time had come. Thus peacefully passed away an aged pioneer, a highly respected citizen and a father in Israel. The funeral, at Asbury Chapel, was largely attended. W. O. A. [Forest Press and Franklin papers please copy.]

TEAMS WANTED—For Bark Hauling, at Brookston Tannery, Brookston, Forest Co., Pa. 15-3m

—For a time after the first case of small-pox here, there were many of our citizens, indeed, we don't know but a majority of them, in the face of the fact that the physicians stated positively that the case was small-pox, who took the theories of others, and their own ideas, and boldly declared that they "didn't believe a word of it!" The most doubtful mind is now convinced that not only was the first case small-pox, but that there has been at least another case of the same, beside two or three cases of varioloid which have been concealed from the public. The case now stands thus: A blacksmith and his wife and child are down with small-pox; the woman is recovering, the man was just taken down yesterday; we understand that two of D. Walters' children have, or have had, slight attacks of varioloid. We believe this is the present extent of the contagion. The Sanitary Committee has built a pest-house on the point of the hill on the north side of Tubbs' Run, whence the small-pox patients will be removed to-morrow morning, before the town is astir. As regards the building of this pest house, several of the residents of the upper ward were considerably agitated, and a meeting was held yesterday to protest against the location of the building and the transportation of patients through the streets of that portion of the town. The health officer replied that the place selected was, in his opinion, the best suited for the purpose of any place in the neighborhood, and further, that the transportation would take place in such a manner, and at such a time that there would be no danger of infection. Personally, we believe the officer knows what he is talking about. We trusted his judgment in the first instance, and time proved him correct. We are willing to trust him now, and believe that time will justify him, even in the eyes of those who are now most bitterly opposing his views.

An item, taken from the Titusville Herald, is going the rounds of the papers, saying that several persons have died here of small-pox; that numbers are down with it; that the hotels and stores are closed, and business suspended generally. No part of said statement is true.

Excursion to Niagara Falls. The new route between Pittsburgh and Buffalo, over the P. T. & B. R. R. is to be taken advantage of by Messrs. Bristol and Hadley, of Tidioute, and Orion Siggins, of West Hickory, to give the people along the route, from this point to Irvineton, an opportunity to visit Niagara Falls. Under their management an excursion will take place on Wednesday next, July 24th, starting from this place at 6:30 A. M.; Hickory, 6:45; Trunkville, 6:52; Tidioute, 7:00; Irvineton, 7:30. The train will reach the falls at noon, and leave there at 5:30 P. M., giving excursionists five and one half hours there, which will be ample time to see everything of interest. The fare from Tionesta and return, will be $3.50; from Hickory and Trunkville, $3.25; and from Tidioute, Thompson, and Irvineton, $3.00. These rates are at least a dollar less than half fare, and should be taken advantage of by all who have any desire to see the great falls. The managers of the excursion will furnish a car for the Tionesta people exclusively, if they will fill it. All who contemplate taking in the excursion, are requested to purchase their tickets in advance, so that the managers can provide cars enough to seat everybody; they cannot agree to furnish seats for those who do not secure them before the excursion. Tickets can be purchased from Dr. Blaine or Mr. J. L. Craig, for this point; from Mr. Siggins and the ticket agent, for Hickory and Trunkville; Messrs. J. D. Bristol and Squires & Hadley, of Tidioute, will sell for that place and Thompson; and the station agt. at Irvineton will sell for that point. A baggage car will be attached to the train, to transport baskets, etc., without extra charge. As a suitable place will be provided for luncheon, all had better go prepared to consume their own refreshments. Any further information in regard to the excursion, will be cheerfully furnished upon application to Messrs. Bristol, Hadley or Siggins. It is altogether probable that our people will never have another opportunity to make the trip so cheaply, in so short a time, and have so much time for sight-seeing at the falls. Those who contemplate visiting Niagara during their lives can never do better than to embrace the present opportunity.

—A young man named Geo. Martin, aged about 22 years, was found dead, hanging by the neck, in the woods between John and Wm. Hood's, about two miles up the creek, on Wednesday afternoon last. He had come in with a woman whose name is Mrs. Sterling, who claims to be a cousin of the deceased, and a young sister of the woman, on the 3:17 train from Oil City, and all were on their way to the house of Mrs. Sterling, some distance further up the creek. At the place mentioned he left his companions, fixed a strap to a tree, and swung off into eternity. He was doubtless laboring under a temporary attack of insanity. The body was interred in the cemetery in this place. The parents of the deceased are said to reside in the vicinity of Meadville. The following is the finding of the coroner's jury: Commonwealth of Pennsylvania, Forest County, ss. "An inquisition indented, taken at Tionesta, in the County of Forest, the 10th and 11th days of July, 1878, before me, C. A. Randall, one of the Justices of the Peace in and for said county, and acting as Coroner in and for the county aforesaid, upon the view of the body of George Martin, then and there lying dead, upon the oaths of D. W. Clark, J. A. Proper, G. W. Robinson, P. M. Clark, J. H. Dingman, and J. D. W. Reck, good and lawful men of the county aforesaid, who being sworn and charged to inquire on behalf of the Commonwealth when, where, how, and after what manner the said George Martin came to his death, do say, upon their oaths, that one George Martin, late of ———, not having the fear of God before his eyes, but being seduced and moved by the instigation of the Devil, at Tionesta township, county aforesaid, in a certain wood at said township, near the house of John Hood, standing and being, the said George Martin being there alone with a certain leather strap, of the value of 25 cents, which he then and there had, and held in his hands, and one end thereof then and there put about his neck, and the other end thereof tied about a bough of a certain pine tree, himself then and there, with the strap aforesaid, voluntarily and feloniously, and of his malice aforethought, hanged, and suffocated; and so the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, say that the said George Martin, then and there, in manner and form aforesaid, as a felon of himself, feloniously, voluntarily, and as of malice aforethought, himself killed, strangled and murdered, against the peace and dignity of the Commonwealth.

And the Jurors aforesaid, upon their oaths aforesaid, do say that the said George Martin, at the time of doing and committing the felony and murder aforesaid, had goods and chattels, contained in the inventory to the inquisition annexed, which remains in the custody of Henry Swaggert, Constable Tionesta Boro."

The above voluminous paper is signed witnessed by the acting Coroner and Jurors, and we publish it, believing that if anybody has any notion of committing suicide, a perusal of the above will cause them to change their mind.
