We will have further particulars next week ; in the meantime, those who contemplate visiting the Falls can look about them -Be patient, boys! In about ten for ways and means. The gentlemen days you can kill squirrels without baving charge of the excursion will do everything in their power for the accommodation of excursionists.

-Mr. Woods, who has been putting down holes on the Woods Heirs tract without any very encouraging results, has determined to try other territory in this section, and to that end has broken ground on Peters' Run, a few rods above the Lacytown Road, where he will sink a well forthwith. Ex Sh'ff Van Giesen is putting up the rig, and will probably finish it this week. The well is located on Judge Proper's land within a short distance of some of Sickles' property. Mr. Woods tried to get a lease from Mr. Sickles, but the latter wanted one-fourth royalty-as much as is generally charged in the best producing territory. He will probably get his land developed at that rate sometime in the Year of our Lord 2000. One-eighth royalty is the largest figure we have ever heard of in wild-cat territory, and unless oil gets up a little there will not be many leases operated at that. A good show of oil was gotten near the site of Mr. Woods' new venture several years ago.

-After we had gone to press last week, we received a letter from a Marienville correspondent, giving the particulars in regard to the death of Mr. Albert Butler, which differ in no essential manner from the details as pub-I shed in last week's paper. At the coroner's inquest, Dr. Towler, assisted by Dr. Atchison, of Youngstown, O., made a post mortem examination, and, on washing off the blood they found a small wound of one-half inch in length on the left temple. They removed a partion of the scalp, and found almost the entire temporal bone forced in on the brain. The jury found on the person of the deceased a bunch of keys, a pocket knife, the sum of thirty-seven dollars and eighty cents in money and sundry papers. The inquest was held by J. W. Cole, J. P., instead of Esq. Livingstone.

-Mr. & Mrs. H. H. Stow, of Hartford City, Va., Mr. & Mrs. Garlick, and Miss Georgia Stow, of Cincinnati, and Miss Jardan, of Phildelphia, left for Chautauqua Lake yesterday, after a short visit in town at Mr. May's. Mr. Stow, who is in the coal business at Hartford City, reports that business very dull, and from the way he expressed himself, we rather thought that he would about as soon live in county would as soon have him back as any citizen she has ever lost.

-The September number of Peterson's Magazine is on our table. In addition to a beautiful steel engraving "Crossing the Brook," and a superb, double-size, colored, steel fashion plate, there are four colored patterns, two for applique and two for tidies in darned net. Though this is a magazine of fashion and art primarily, it is also one of literature; and no lady's book at all approaches it in its powerful sto ries and novelets. In the present number, we have, among other articles, "The Mystery of Monk's Hollow," by a new contributor, one of the most powerful stories we have read for years. In addition Peterson boasts of such contributors as Mrs. Ann S Stepheus, Frank Lee Benedict, Mrs. R. Harding 23d day of Sept. 1878. Notice is therefore given to the Coroner, Justices of the Peace Davis, Marietta Holley, the author of "Josiah Allen's Wife," etc., etc. Then there is a Supplement, with full-size records, inquisitions examinations and diagram, containing a pattern for a child's dress, which is alone worth the and to those who are bound in recognizance to prosecute against the prisoners that are price of the number. The terms are or shall be in the jail of Forest County, that are but two dollars a year, with very they be then and there present to prosecute against them as shall be just. -Ballou's Monthly Magazine for September is now issued, and all its patrons will rejoice to find it so full of interest and good reading. The leading illustrated article is from the pen of the author of "The Gold Hunters," and treats of those remarkable people, the Terra-del-Fuegians, and the Straits of Magellan. Then there are stories, adventures on land and sea, poetry of a high order, and comic pictures which will interest railroad men. There is constant improvement in Ballou's, and we do not wonder that it is such a favorite. Please remember that this charming magazine is only 15 cents a copy, or $1.50 per year, postpaid. Published by Thomes & Talbot, 23 the periodical depots in the country.
