—A niece of Mr. J. H. Dingman is visiting him at present.

—D. W. Baldwin takes four pictures for 50 cts.

—Mr. Kerr, the butcher, has hoisted a large and attractive sign in front of his meat market.

—Some of "the boys" attended a dance at Dick King's, at the mouth Bear Creek last night.

—Rev. Elliot and Mr. Chadwick dispatched a large copperhead in the woods near town last Saturday.

—The Brookville Graphic last week entered upon its third year. Like wine, it grows better with age.

—Miss Kate Cobb, who has been seriously ill with typhoid fever, we are pleased to learn, is growing better.

—A valuable horse of Harry Mabie's came near passing in his checks last Monday, and he may do it yet.

—Con. O'Donnell, one of the most noted men in the oil regions, died at his home in St. Petersburg last week.

—We understand Mr. Hebenthal of Friburg, has rented Mr. Kepler's house and will occupy it in a short time.

—Too late for this issue we received a very interesting letter from Charlie Bonner. It will keep until next week, however.

—The Derrick, which is eight years old this morning, comes to us in a neat, new dress, and looks as fresh as a daisy.

—The river is now lower than it has been at any time during the summer. Last night's rains will probably give it a raise.

—The State Fair, which promises to be the grandest ever yet held, will take place at Erie this year, commencing on the 23d inst., and lasting five days.

—The creek bridge has been replanked, which it badly needed. The river bridge has also been undergoing needed repairs in the shape of new plank, etc.

—Hon. S. Newton Pettis, of Meadville, has received the appointment of Resident Minister and Consul General to Bolivia, one of the Republics of South America.

—The annual re-union of the 83d Reg't P. V., took place at Titusville yesterday. Several members of Co. G from this place attended, and they report a good time.

—Mr. & Mrs. Robinson left for Pittsburgh last Monday. They will visit the Exhibition while there, and before returning Mr. R. will select his fall and winter stock of goods.

—And now it would seem that Oil City's base ball education was sadly neglected. The Forest City club of Cleveland, defeated the Exchanges by a score of 10 to 0, on Monday.

—Henry McSweeney Esq., of St. Petersburg, who was on his way to Irvineton to attend the Democratic Senatorial Conference, stopped off to see his friends in this place last Friday.

—Mr. J. T. Dale of Troutman, Butler Co., is here on a visit to parents and friends. He is looking and feeling well as ever. John Jamieson, his partner in the oil business, is expected up to-day.

—One of John Hood's boys came near blowing his head off with an old gun which he was shooting, one day last week. His face and eyes were considerably burned, but we believe no permanent injury will result from the accident.

—The Democratic Senatorial Conference of this district which was held at Irvineton, last Thursday, nominated John G. Hall, of Elk county. After 75 or 80 ballots one of the Forest county conferees went over to Hall and the nomination was made.

—Mr. D. W. Baldwin, Photographer, of Tidioute, has erected a gallery just south of the Lawrence House, and is prepared to do all kinds of work in his line in the highest style of the art. Mr. Baldwin comes with good recommendations and guarantees perfect satisfaction. We would advise all wishing anything in his line to take advantage of this opportunity, as he will remain but a short time.

—Last Saturday evening Dr. Coburn was called to West Hickory to see a child, about three years of age, of Mr. Russell Brown's, which had met with a very severe accident. Mr. B. was trying to catch one of his horses, a rather fractious animal, when it took fright, and before it could be stopped had run over the child, which had hitherto been unnoticed by the father. Upon examination the Dr. found that the left arm had received a compound fracture, and the child was otherwise severely injured. When the Dr. left it was resting well, and he thinks with proper nursing the child will fully recover.

—The Republican Senatorial Conference of this district will meet at Ridgway, on Wednesday the 18th inst. If they put a good man in the field, there is no reason why we should not elect him, as no doubt a very bitter feeling exists in the Democratic ranks at the nomination of Hall of Elk, over Mr. Brown, the oilmen's candidate.

—Work on the new addition to the Central House has commenced in earnest, and before another week our northern view will be entirely shut off. Smith Foreman is doing the job.

THAT SQUIRREL HUNT.

The hunt we spoke of last week came off on Saturday, and was a decided success. The day dawned beautifully and remained pleasant throughout, and as soon as it was light enough the cannonading commenced and continued till dewey eve. All the hunters were in at or before eight o'clock in the evening, well loaded with game of all descriptions. It was hardly necessary to count the game in order to ascertain which side was victorious, as that was evident from the size of the bags as they came in. However, the captives, with a referee retired into a back room in the Lawrence House, and in a short time had finished the count, which was a little one-sided, but entirely satisfactory. After this was done, supper was ready, and it is needless to say that the hunters were ready for it. Messrs. H. A. Adams and Jas. Hulings were the captains, and the following score will show which side came out ahead:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Score. H. A. Adams 21, Jas. Hulings 45, Dr. Coburn 109, J. E. Wenk 52, Wm. Lawrence 61, H. W. Roberts 50, J. D. Hulings 42, Wm. Blum 38, Davey Hillands 80, Jas. Swaggart 38, Jas. Pease 10, Geo. Albaugh 32, Jno Hart 47, Wm. Smearbaugh 42, Geo. Weant 23, Jno Hood 2, Ab. Grove 43, Jake Smearbaugh 20.

The following is a list of the game and what it counted:

Table with 2 columns: Game and Count. Bear 100, Wild cat 25, Fox 20, Coon 10, Ground hog 10, Hawk 10, Owl 10, Woodcock 10, Porcupine 5, Shitepoke 5, Crow 5, Kingfisher 5, Gray Squirrel 7, Black " 5, Red " 1.

ON THE WING.

Dr. Coburn, who succeeded in securing the largest coon, brought in the only coon captured. It increased his string ten.

Davey Hillands, who had the next largest coon, bagged the only woodcock which was brought in.

Jim. Swaggart must have shot some body's pet black squirrel, as it had both ears clipped off short.

Wm. Lawrence captured a shitepoke. Geo. Albaugh knew where several of these birds stayed, and it was for his benefit they were put on the list, Lawrence fighting hard against it. In trying to get a shot at one Geo. scared it, and it flew in range of Lawrence's gun, who captured it.

Jake Smearbaugh's side was beaten. He had been accustomed to shooting a single-barreled gun, but on Saturday shot a double-barrel, to which he attributes his loss. It had too many triggers, and he was forever getting hold of the wrong one. Jake also says it was a good thing his side was beaten, as they kept nine men from starving to death.

Not an accident occurred, nor was there an unkind word spoken to mar the enjoyment, and all were jubilant. Even the losing side seemed more so than the winners.

More would have taken part in the hunt had they been able to get guns. The supper was an excellent article, and the rapidity with which it was hid would have astonished a black squirrel.

The boys are talking up another hunt, to come off shortly. As nearly every man thinks he could improve on his score the next time, perhaps it would be well to try it again.

Help the Helpless.

The Southern scourge is not abating in the least; in fact it is growing more terrible each day, and the condition of the sufferers beggars all description. While the country is responding nobly to the calls for aid, both in money and help, yet in some parts it is impossible to get help enough to bury the dead. It is said the disease will not abate until a frost or cold weather sets in, which may be a month yet. In this place Mr. J. T. Brennan has taken up the cause, and has been circulating a paper for subscriptions, and we are glad to learn, is meeting with good success. He says he has met but one or two men who have refused to give anything, and with these exceptions all have given something cheerfully. Persons wishing to contribute can forward the same to Mr. Brennan; or those in town can notify him by card, and he will call and receive their contributions, and acknowledge receipt of same. We would appeal to all to give something, no matter how little, as a more worthy cause can never present itself to the support of a generous people.

Mr. Brennan wishes to acknowledge the following subscriptions to the fund: $5 Subscriptions.—Robinson & Bonner, M. Einstein.

$3.—J. T. Brennan, D. W. Clark, E. L. Davis, A. B. Kelly, N. Thompson, Dr. J. E. Blaine, Lathy & Agnew, H. H. May.

Republican Meeting at Cooksburg.

COOKSBURG, PA., Sept. 9, 1878.

MR. EDITOR:—A Republican meeting was held here on Saturday evening at which Judge Kerr presided. It was an impromptu affair, arranged by our Republicans here; yet it was well attended, the attendance far exceeded our expectations, on account of the short notice given. But from sixty to seventy-five attended, including six or seven ladies. The meeting was a success in every respect.

W. E. Lathy Esq., of Tionesta, Pa., was introduced by the President, and in a clear and forcible manner explained the present political and financial situation. He was followed by Lion. J. B. Agnew, who, in a few well chosen remarks concerning the record of the Republican and Democratic parties in Congress in the past, showed that the Republicans as a party are now, as they even have been, friends of the laborer, the soldier and the country, whilst the Democratic party still oppose the principles for which we fought,—oppose the interests of the Union soldier and favor Southern war claims, &c.

The speakers were favored with an attentive audience throughout, and the meeting adjourned at about eleven o'clock p. m.

A good report may be expected from Old Barnett, in which Cooksburg will figure with her usual Republican majority for the ticket.

Respectfully, J. W. Cook, Sec'y.

TIDIOUTE, Pa., Sept. 2, '78. ED. REPUBLICAN:—Hearing that a Fire Company is talked of in your town, and thinking the columns of your valued paper the best way of placing this letter before your people, I take the liberty of addressing it to you and calling your attention to two hose carriages which the Rescue Engine Co. of Tidioute desire to sell. One is a two-wheeler, made in Troy, N. Y. The wheels are six feet high. This cart is a good, strong, substantial one and capable of carrying 1000 feet of hose.

Will be sold very cheap. The other is a four-wheeled carriage, built in Warren five years ago, at a cost $165, and is very strong and well made, and is just as good as new. Has a bell, tool box, lantern rack and 40 feet of #in. rope for pulling. The reel is large enough to carry 1,000 or 1,200 feet of hose, and is fitted with cranks to reel up the hose. This is just the cart for you. Will be sold at a great reduction, as room is needed for a new carriage which is now building for the company. Your inspection of these carts is solicited before enquiring elsewhere as I am convinced that either of them will be just the thing for you. An early reply will much oblige

Yours very respectfully, W. F. JONES, Sec. Rescue E. Co. Dobbins' Electric Soap.

Having obtained the agency of this celebrated soap for Tionesta and vicinity we append the opinion of some of our best people as to its merits:

"I have tried Dobbins' Electric Soap, made by I. L. Cragin & Co., Phil'a, Pa., and find that it is all the manufacturers claim it to be. It is the women's friend, because it saves one-half the labor. MRS. J. L. CRAIG."

"Dobbins' Electric Soap is the best I have ever used. I can heartily recommend it. It is a charm in the wash-tub. MRS. D. S. KNOX."

"I take pleasure in recommending Dobbins' Electric Soap. It is a superior article, in fact the King of Soaps. MRS. W. R. RECK."

We desire all our friends and customers to give this soap one trial, so they may know just how good the best soap in the U. S. is.

TITUSVILLE, PA., December, 1876.

DEAR SIR:—I was troubled very much with the backache which made me sick all over; it seemed to strike from my kidneys to my stomach causing great weakness. I could not stoop to pick up anything without leaning carefully with my hand resting on my knee. I had all the symptoms of female weakness. I got your Barosma which relieved me in a few days, and I am comparatively well, and I have recommended it to a number of my friends, and all have been benefitted who have used it.
