LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. Elliot will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, morning and evening.
M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.
—"Web." Clark "came very nearly" foundering one of his handsome horses last week.

—The Republican Senatorial Conference of this district meets at Ridgeway to-day.

—A very interesting and instructive letter from Charlie Bonner will be found on the second page.

—A movement is on foot to have the office of county superintendent abolished, at the next session of the legislature.

—A widow named Sinclair living in Tidioute, attempted suicide by poisoning, one day last week. Her life was saved with difficulty.

—Several Tionesta people went to Jamestown last week to attend the Chautauque county fair, but, owing to the heavy rains it was postponed.

—A man named Geo. Hammond jumped 13 feet and 7 inches on the level, in Oil City last week. This, we believe, is the biggest standing jump on record.

—On Friday morning last a landslide occurred near the creek bridge, which obstructed the road for about two rods. It will cost the borough $40 to have it removed.

—Rev. W. O. Allen preached his farewell sermon to the Tionesta congregation last Sunday evening. Mr. Allen leaves with the best wishes of all the people of this place.

—Mr. Peter Lovel, who has for a long time lived at Oldtown, has purchased a farm on Dutch Hill, and will commence the erection of a house thereon forthwith. Success, Peter.

—The recent rains raised the creek and river to a fine rafting stage, and due advantage was taken of it by those of our lumbermen who had lumber from the mouth of creek on Sunday.

—Following is a list of letters remaining in Tionesta P. O., Sept. 18, 1878: John McKnall, Mrs. Cerrie McKnall, Joseph W. Zetter, Adam Vogus. Persons calling for above letters please say "advertised."
J. M. McKAY, P. M.

—We received a lengthy and well written letter from Hickory, on the subject of "Fars," but must respectfully decline its publication. The matter contained in it is not of sufficient general interest, and its length would encroach too much upon our space. Write again and give us substantial news.

—Mr. Wm. Richards will please accept our thanks for a honey-comb filled with most excellent honey. It is about the nicest article we have seen for some time. Mr. R. has a nice lot of it which he will dispose of at a reasonable figure, and if you want something that will tickle your palate just call on him.

—The chairman of the Republican county committee, E. L. Davis Esq., publishes a notice, and has also issued bills for a grand rally at the Court House, next Tuesday evening. Gen. Harry White will address the meeting, and we expect to see him greeted by a good house. It is also intimated that Hon. G. W. Scofield will be on hand.

—Another squirrel hunt will come off on Saturday next; this time Messrs. W. A. Hilds and Harvey Foreman will act as captains. The game and count, and the rules and regulations will be the same as in the last hunt. It promises to be a nice affair, as all seem to be very much interested, and anxious to show that they can improve on their last score.

—Mr. Sam. W. Bonner, who has for the past five or six months been clerking in Robinson & Bonner's store, departed for his home in St. Louis yesterday. During his stay here, Mr. Bonner, by his gentlemanly deportment, genial manner, and excellent traits of character, has won the esteem of everyone whom he chanced to meet, and who will ever rejoice to hear of his success in life. Sam., we know five young men whom you leave behind, who will never cease to think kindly of you, and who "will go you on the level" wherever they meet you.

The Southern Plague.

Another week of untold misery has elapsed, and yet the Southern scourge does not abate in the least. No pen can depict the terrible suffering in the stricken cities. In the past week upward of fifteen hundred souls have fallen victims to the loathsome disease, and the new cases which are breaking out are almost innumerable. The prevalence of the fever has virtually stopped all business, and has thrown over 30,000 laborers out of work, and for these aid is asked as well as for the sufferers, and to much cannot be done for them in the way of money. Once more we would appeal to the good people of this county to give as liberally as their means will allow. Mr. Brennan respectfully acknowledges the receipt of the following additional subscriptions to the fund, and we are glad to see our citizens doing so well. He sent, yesterday morning, one hundred dollars to the President of the Howard Association at New Orleans, and directed him as to the distribution thereof. The additional list:

- $4 Subscriptions—Justis Shawkey, Mrs. H. M. L. Dithridge.
- $2—Mrs. H. H. May, J. W. Jamieson, Henry Kaiser.
- $1—T. B. Cobb, W. Elliot, Paul Blute, G. F. Watson, Mrs. J. M. Sharp, Miss Mary Jarden, Mrs. W. E. Lathy, Quintain Jamieson, H. M. Foreman, Mrs. A. W. Conner, Samuel H. Clark, Jas. R. King, J. L. Craig, A. H. Darrah, S. H. Haslet, John Muenzenberger, John A. Hart, Geo. S. Hunter, N. G. Cole, J. B. Haggerty, Lyman Cook.

—In Meadville the heavy rains last week did great damage both to lives and property. On Thursday night Mill Creek, which runs through the principal portion of the city, overflowed its banks and swept through the town, and in a short time sidewalks were submerged, the cellars were flooded, and moveable articles of all descriptions were carried away with great fury, and the loss of property was very great. Buildings were undermined and torn away, and great excitement prevailed among the citizens, the more so because it occurred during the night. On Friday morning a young man named Samuel Derricksan a cousin of Mr. Derricksan of this place, in assisting to clear away some rubbish, fell into the stream and was drowned. His body was afterward recovered a short distance from where he fell in. Two other men were reported drowned, but one of them has turned up since while the other is still missing. Along French Creek the flood was terrible, doing great damage to farmers, whose fields were completely overflowed; Railroad bridges were swept away and great loss of property entailed generally. A train was wrecked on the Atlantic road, and the engineer, fireman and head brakeman were killed. At Franklin the bridge of the Jamestown and Franklin railroad, across French Creek was swept away. It will cost an immense amount of time and money to repair the damage done, and the occurrence will long be remembered by the sufferers and those who witnessed it.

—Between the hours of twelve and one Sunday, a magazine containing twenty pounds of glycerine and seventy-five pounds of dynamite, located on the Curtis farm, two miles south of Bradford, exploded with terrific force, instantly killing Andy P. Higgins, J. B. Burkholder, N. B. Pulver and Charles S. Page. The mangled and scarcely recognizable remains of the unfortunate men were found at different points about the magazine and at distances from it varying from fifty to one hundred feet. The cause of the explosion is unknown, as not one of the party present is left to tell the story.—Derwick.

—Court convenes next Monday, but as will be seen by notices published elsewhere in this paper the jurors summoned to serve are notified not to attend, consequently there will not much of crowd in attendance. However, we will be glad to see all our friends and patrons who chance to be in town at that time.
—Peterson's Magazine for October has reached us, and, as usual, is brim full of most excellent reading matter. The steel engraving entitled "Secret Charity," is beautiful, and the fashion plates are all that could be desired. Price, $2.00 a year. Address Chas. J. Peterson, 306 Chestnut St., Philadelphia.

—Mr. John Friek, of Philadelphia, is visiting his brother-in-law, S. D. Irwin, Esq.

—We are informed that the Republican Congressional Conference of this district will meet in this place on Tuesday next, 24th inst.

—Mr. Baldwin, the photographer, will return to his place in Tidioute tomorrow, where he has a very fine gallery and where he does excellent work. His card will appear in our next issue.

—Ayer & Son's Manual, a neat little pamphlet giving a description of their Advertising Agency in Philadelphia, has been received at this office. The Agency of N. W. Ayer & Son is well known throughout the country, and they have well earned great success by their energy and straightforward dealing.

—The time for the registration of voters has expired, and the next important duty for every person who desires to vote at the next election will be the payment of a state and county tax. Remember, that if you have not paid a state or county tax within two years previous to the election, and thirty days previous to the election, you cannot vote. The last day for the payment of taxes, in order to secure your vote, is Saturday, October 5th.

—The October number of Ballou's Monthly Magazine is issued, and among the noted articles is one entitled "The Marquesas Islands," by the author of "The Slave's Adventures," who has visited the islands some years since, and remained there for nearly six weeks, mixing with the natives, and studying their lives and habits, and witnessing some of the wonderful tattooing which they undergo for the purpose of rendering themselves attractive in each other's eyes. Then there are some capital domestic stories, and fine poetry, exciting adventures, &c. Now is the time to subscribe to this popular monthly, which is only $1.50 a year, postpaid, and less in clubs of five or more. Published by Thomas & Talbot, 23 Hawley St., Boston, and for sale at all the periodical depots in the country.

ATTENTION, REPUBLICANS!
There will be a Republican Rally at the Court House, in Tionesta borough, on TUESDAY EVE., Sept. 24, 1878.

Also, at the following named places and dates:
Brookston, Wednesday evening, Sept. 25th; Whig Hill, Thursday evening the 26th; and at Clarington Friday evening, Sept. 27th.

The above meetings will be addressed by General Harry White, and other able speakers.
Let there be a full attendance of all who believe in liberty of thought and free discussion.
Greenbackers and Democrats, come out and hear the finance question clearly and honestly discussed by our able, eloquent and experienced Representative, General White, who will demonstrate to you the fallacy of cheap currency, danger of Communistic ideas, and dishonesty of repudiation theories advocated by demagogues, "kickers," and "sand-hill orators" of the Kearney and Brick Pomeroy school. Come out and judge for yourselves.

Dobbins' Electric Soap.
Having obtained the agency of this celebrated soap for Tionesta and vicinity we append the opinion of some of our best people as to its merits:
"I have tried Dobbins' Electric Soap, made by I. L. Cragin & Co., Phil'a, Pa., and find that it is all the manufacturers claim it to be. It is the women's friend, because it saves one-half the labor."
MRS. J. L. CRAIG.
"Dobbins' Electric Soap is the best I have ever used. I can heartily recommend it. It is a charm in the wash-tub."
MRS. D. S. KNOX.
"I take pleasure in recommending Dobbins' Electric Soap. It is a superior article, in fact the King of Soaps."
MRS. W. R. RECK.

We desire all our friends and customers to give this soap one trial, so they may know just how good the best soap in the U. S. is.
