Corn-cutting is now occupying the attention of farmers. Next in order will be husking-bees and pumpkin pies.

Mr. Brennan has been delivering a great deal of hard coal for a few days back. Now is the time to lay in a stock.

Mr. Wm. Reck has moved his family into Mr. E. E. Clapp's house, on Helen St., which was lately occupied by Rev. Elliot.

There is talk of opening another school in the borough. The large attendance seems to demand a third or primary department.

We believe there will be no preaching in town next Sunday, as Rev. Allen is attending Conference, which convenes in Oil City, to-day.

The yellow fever is spreading into the country in the Southern States. The disease is subsiding somewhat in the larger cities, yet it is still very bad.

A few slight frosts have occurred on the hills; just enough to ripen buckwheat which is being harvested now, and of which there is a very fair yield.

Pay your state and county taxes before the 5th of October or you will lose your vote. Mr. P. M. Clark has the duplicate for these taxes and will be glad to receive them.

The County Commissioners held a meeting the fore part of the week. Among other transactions they decided to call in and redeem bonds to the amount of ten thousand dollars on the first of next January.

Although the carpenters have been at work on the Central House addition but two weeks, yet it will be ready for the plasterers in a day or two. Smith Foreman knows how to crack a job through.

A man named Wilson has moved into the vacant building opposite Einstein's store. He has for two years been a resident of New Orleans, but the yellow fever routed him out of that. One of his brothers died with the disease.

The Greenbackers of this county yesterday placed the following ticket in nomination: Assembly, D. S. Knox; Prothonotary, F. E. Allison; Sheriff, Jas. Cole; Commissioners, F. A. McGee and F. Miles; Auditors, F. C. Lacy and John Jones.

The October number of the "Nursery" is on our table. Of all the charming magazines for the little folks this one certainly takes the lead. The publisher offers rare inducements to clubs. Address, John L. Shorey, 36 Bromfield St., Boston.

This is a great year for voting. We know of several who have already voted at three different elections and are not done yet. Office seekers are also numerous. We know of some parties who have already run for office twice, and haven't stood a ghost of a show yet.

Miss Nora Hulings, who left this place when but a child, about ten years ago, to live with her uncle, in Louisville, returned home on Friday last. She has grown out of the recollection of all her former acquaintances; even her own parents failed to recognize her.

Mr. Chas. Hanna will accept thanks for an invitation to attend a charity ball at Greeley, Colorado, which took place on the 19th inst. Sorry we didn't get it in time, as we should like to have been present. Let us know a few days beforehand next time, Charlie.

Several of our citizens who went down the river on the late flood, seized the opportunity to witness some of Dr. Carver's skill with the rifle. Jas. Hulings carries a quarter which he threw up and allowed the Dr. to put a hole through. They all pronounce him a success.

Mr. H. A. Adams, in company with Mr. J. D. Hulings, started for Kane, to attend a convention of some sort, on Monday last. While riding over the P. & E. road the train collided with a switch engine, and in the accident Mr. Adams sustained quite a severe injury. He returned last night, but whether his injuries will terminate seriously we have not learned. Mr. Hulings escaped unhurt, having jumped from the train in time to save himself.

Court met on Monday, but no business of general interest was transacted. The Sheriff and Treasurer acknowledged a large number of deeds, the constables made their returns, and their bonds as collectors were approved by the Court. An adjourned court will be held on the 7th of November.

Attention is called to the new card of J. W. Walker, Attorney at Law. Mr. Walker has been admitted to the bars of Jefferson and Clerion counties, and on Monday last was admitted to the Forest county bar. He does not wish it understood that he will allow the legal business to interfere with his school in the least, but will attend to it on Saturdays, in the evenings and during vacations. His office for the present will be at the Rural House.

We are in receipt of Kellogg's Auxiliary Hand-Book. It contains a history of the origin of Auxiliary Printing, with opinions of publishers, and is a day-book and journal combined; being a model system of keeping advertising accounts. It also contains various useful articles, tables, calendars, etc., and altogether is one of the most useful books that has ever come to our office. Published by A. N. Kellogg, 77 & 79 Jackson St., Chicago, Ill.

The time for the registration of voters has expired, and the next important duty for every person who desires to vote at the next election will be the payment of a state and county tax. Remember, that if you have not paid a state or county tax within two years previous to the election, and thirty days previous to the election, you cannot vote. The last day for the payment of taxes, in order to secure your vote, is Saturday, October 5th.

THE HUNT.

The squirrel hunt of which we made mention last week, took place last Saturday. The day was a bad one for good hunting, as it rained incessantly from day break until about one o'clock, which made it very disagreeable and discouraging for the hunters. However, as will be seen, some of them got very good bags, and some who are considered good hunters had very poor luck, owing to the squirrels having changed their base of operations, and gone back from the river to the hills. Messrs. W. A. Hilands and Harvey Foreman acted as captains, and the sides were very closely matched. In justice to Mr. Foreman's side, we must say that they did remarkably well, as two of his principal men did not hunt, which, if they had, would have changed the score and given them the victory. The score, which is a very good one, stands thus:

Table with 2 columns: Name and Count. W. A. Hilands... 31, Harvey Foreman... 55, J. E. Wenk... 38, Wm Smearbaugh... 86, Wm Lawrence... 44, Jas Swaggart... 59, Dr. Coburn... 49, Geo Albaugh... 40, Jno Hart... 67, Jas Hulings... 40, H A Adams... 106, Jake Smearbaugh... 62, Ab. Grove... 20, Wm Reck... 39, Wm Blum... 8, Geo Holeman... 41, Quint Jamieson... 19, T J Van Giesen... 11, E L Davis... 11, Chas Van Giesen... 99, Alex. Dale... 22, H S Brockway... 11.

The list of game and count was as follows:

Table with 2 columns: Game and Count. Bear... 100, Wild cat... 25, Fox... 20, Coon... 10, Ground hog... 10, Hawk... 10, Owl... 10, Woodcock... 10, Pheasant... 5, Shitepoke... 5, Crow... 5, Kingfisher... 5, Gray Squirrel... 7, Black... 5, Red... 5, Wild pigeon... 2.

Mr. H. W. Roberts was chosen, but being unable to leave his work, he selected Jas. Swaggart to hunt in his place, who brought in a good count.

Mr. J. D. Hulings was also chosen, but was absent, and in his stead Jake Smearbaugh was taken, who also got a good bag, which he says was the result of using a gun with a single trigger this time.

Messrs. Jas. Hulings and Chas. Van Giesen didn't hunt, Mr. Hulings being away; and we didn't learn why Charlie failed to put in an appearance.

Mr. Adams got the largest string this time. It contained 106 of a count and was composed principally of black squirrels, and was about all he cared to lug.

Wm. Smearbaugh bagged the second largest. He had seven black and five gray squirrels, which made a nice looking string. The rest of his count was made up of red squirrels.

There was some talk that one of the party had violated the rules, in that he had hunted with a dog, but as nothing could be proven, and a satisfactory explanation was made, there was nothing more said.

The supper at the Lawrence House was an excellent one, oysters being served, which struck the hungry crowd in just the right spot, and they did ample justice to the bountiful repast.

The boys think when the leaves are off the trees, and pheasants are in season they will have another hunt.

REPUBLICAN CONGRESSIONAL CONFERENCE.

The Republican Congressional Conference of the 25th Congressional District, composed of the counties of Armstrong, Clarion, Forest, Indiana and Jefferson, met at the Court House, in Tionesta, Forest county, on Tuesday evening, Sept. 24th.

The following conferees were present: Clarion—H. Deroser, J. R. Stattan, J. T. Chalfant.

Armstrong—J. L. Ewing, S. G. Cook, B. L. Coleman.

Forest—Hon. W. R. Coon, Peter Berry, Miles W. Tate.

Indiana—Zachariah Laird, L. McQuawa, G. W. Hood.

Jefferson—C. Mitchell.

On motion J. T. Chalfant, of Clarion was made President of the meeting; C. Mitchell, of Jefferson, Sec'y, and J. L. Ewing, of Armstrong, Assist. Sec'y.

On motion the following resolutions were adopted:

1st. That the Conference of the 25th Congressional district here assembled, cheerfully obeying the unanimous instructions of their constituents in all the counties of the district, unanimously nominate and present Gen. Harry White, of Indiana county, as the Republican candidate for Congress.

2d. That we present with pride and satisfaction to the voters of the district Gen. White as our candidate for Congress, because,

1st. As a citizen he has the respect and esteem of all who know him best.

2d. As a soldier in the army of the Union he served his country faithfully.

3d. As a legislator in the Senate of the State he passed an honorable career, identifying himself with much legislation for the benefit of the State; always opposing enactments in favor of mere special interests or classes.

4th. His record showed him to be a fair representative of all the people, and as a Senator he passed through a period in our State when corporation and special classes were pressing legislation by questionable means for their particular advantage, and closed his career there without a taint or charge of infidelity to the interests of his constituents or his State.

5th. He has been but one Session in Congress, yet has achieved an honorable position among the Representatives of the Nation and increased the confidence of his constituency.

6th. His career on the financial questions before Congress last session on the re-monetization of silver, on the contraction of the currency meets the approbation of the great mass of his constituency.

7th. That with the ability and untiring zeal of Gen. White as our candidate victory cannot fail us in this election.

On motion Conference was adjourned sine die.

C. MITCHELL, J. L. EWING, Secretaries.

The conferees having closed their business, by the unanimous nomination of Gen. White with much enthusiasm, a committee of four, one from each county, were sent to escort Gen. White to the meeting. He arriving, the President, Capt. Chalfant, in an able and appropriate manner informed him of his nomination.

G. W. Hood Esq., of Indiana, arose and made an appropriate address; remarking among other things that precisely two years ago he stood in the same place and advocated the claims of Gen. White; that he then and there prophesied that he would make an able, faithful and honest representative, and appealed to the people that the prophecy was now fulfilled. Capt. Chalfant, the President, in a happy manner then turned over Gen. White to the citizens.

E. L. Davis Esq., the able and active chairman of the Republican committee, then organized the meeting of the people, by the nomination of Hon. Andrew Cook as President, and Vice Presidents from each township. S. D.

Irwin and Quintain Jamieson were appointed Secretaries.

By this time the house was full, notwithstanding the inclemency of the weather, while midst the enthusiasm of the hour Judge Cook introduced Gen. White, who said—but why should we undertake that task—it would require a pamphlet to reproduce all of that masterly and interesting speech, in which he ably handled the live issues of the day; rendering a good account of his stewardship; combatting the heresies of the hour, and politely and completely answering the questions propounded to him during the course of his speech.

The meeting then adjourned with three rousing cheers for Gen. White.

S. D. IRWIN, Q. JAMIESON, Secretaries.

Republican Senatorial Conference.

The Republican conferees of the Thirty-eighth senatorial district, composed of the counties of Cameron, Clarion, Elk and Forest, met at the Hyde House, Ridgway, on the 18th inst., at 10 a. m.

The following conferees were present: Clarion—H. McCray, G. W. Ralph, W. R. Johns.

Elk—W. H. Osterhout, Horace Little, H. H. Wensel.

Forest—E. L. Davis, N. Thompson, W. E. Lathy.

The consent of the conferees from Cameron (who could not reach there until 2 p. m.) having been obtained to proceed to business, an organization was formed by the election of W. H. Osterhout as president and E. L. Davis as secretary.

On motion, E. M. Grant, of Clarion county, was nominated by acclamation for State Senator.

The following resolutions were read and adopted:

Resolved, That we approve the platform of principles set forth by the last Republican State convention.

Resolved, That we declare our opposition to any and all monopolies of whatever kind, and demand the rigid enforcement of the constitutional provisions against discrimination by railroads in this Commonwealth, and pledge our best efforts to secure this result.

Resolved, That in our nominee, E. M. Grant, we recognize a fellow-citizen thoroughly identified with the best business interests of the whole district, a vigorous and untiring opponent to all monopolies, and one who would creditably represent us if elected.

After a brief interchange of views respecting the situation and prospects in the district, the conference adjourned sine die shortly before noon.

SETTLE.

On and after Oct. 1, 1878, my accounts will be left in hands of J. T. Brennan, Justice of the Peace, for collection. All those indebted to me will please call and settle.

TITUSVILLE, PA., December, 1876.

DEAR SIR:—I was troubled very much with the backache which made me sick all over; it seemed to strike from my kidneys to my stomach causing great weakness. I could not stoop to pick up anything without leaning carefully with my hand resting on my knee. I had all the symptoms of female weakness. I got your Barossa which relieved me in a few days, and I am comparatively well, and I have recommended it to a number of my friends, and all have been benefited who have used it.

Having obtained the celebrated soap for Tionesta, we append the opinion of some of our best people as to its merits:

"I have tried Dobbins' Electric Soap, made by T. L. Cragin & Co., Philadelphia, and find that it is all the manufacturers claim it to be. It is the women's friend, because it saves one-half the labor." Mrs. J. L. CRAIG.

"Dobbins' Electric Soap is the I have ever used. I can heartily commend it. It is a charm in the wash tub." Mrs. D. S. KNOX.

"I take pleasure in recommending Dobbins' Electric Soap. It is a superior article, in fact the King of Soaps." Mrs. W. R. RECK.

We desire all our friends and customers to give this soap one trial, so they may know just how good the best soap in the U. S. is.
