Our county ticket proper is victorious, with but one exception. We have at least our usual Republican majority on the State ticket, and our ranks have been unbroken by the fierce assaults of our old-time foe, aided by the Greenbackers.

Our woods seem to be favorable for ruffed grouse, but unfavorable for hunters, the underbrush they frequent being so thick that no sooner do you get a glimpse of the bird than he disappears behind some shrubbery.

The Nursery for November has arrived. We have nothing new to say about this periodical, but merely reiterate the fact that it is the very best magazine extant for the youngest readers.

The premium engraving, issued by Peterson's Magazine for 1879, like everything else from that quarter, is of unrivalled excellence, costliness and beauty.
