LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. Elliot will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, morning and evening. M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.

—The majority of Henry M. Hoyt for Governor is something over 23,000. Good enough.

—Dr. and Mrs. Blaine started on a trip to Philadelphia and New York on Monday last, to visit friends. They will be absent a week or two.

—Mr. H. H. May is putting a new heating furnace in his house, the old one, which has been in use for about eight years having given out.

—The average attendance at School No. 1, Prof. Walker's room, during the month of October, was 47. In school No. 2, Mrs. Wood's room, the average attendance was 43.

—We are informed that there was a deer in the river below the Dithridge dam on Saturday last, but alas! there was no little man around with a little gun, to give him a salute.

—R. B. Brown, formerly of the Clarion Democrat has purchased the Erie Observer, and will take charge the 1st of January. He is a thorough newspaper man.

—On Wednesday, the 27th inst., there will be a shooting match at Walnut Island, below Oleopolis, for fancy chickens and turkeys. No guns barred but those having magnifying sights.

—An exchange says, "Better is the poor man that walketh in integrity, and payeth his subscription promptly, than the rich man who telleth the collector to call again and again until hope deferred maketh the heart sick."

—Wm. Heath, of Dutch Hill, has our thanks for a fine turkey, which, together with the Republican successes at the late elections, makes us feel like observing Thanksgiving day. William may your turkey crop never fail.

—President Hayes' Thanksgiving Proclamation is published in to-day's paper. Gov. Hartranft has also named the 28th as a day of thanksgiving and prayer. The day is religiously observed in this section as a general thing, and we believe this year will be no exception to the rule.

—The State Senate will contain thirty-two Republicans, sixteen Democrats, one Independent Democrat and one Greenbacker. The House will contain 113 Republicans, 75 Democrats and 13 Greenbackers. On joint ballot the Republicans will have thirty-nine of a majority over all.

—A shooting match will come off on Dutch Hill next Saturday, either at Wm. Heath's or Conrad Zuedel's. Turkeys and chickens will be shot for, and all who have any conceit about their shooting should attend. In this section about every third man is a good rifle shot, and we therefore suppose the match will be well attended.

—Judge Wm. White, of Delphos, Kansas, died on the 26th of October last. We believe that he was upward of seventy years of age. He was a man of peculiarly upright character, and enjoyed the respect and confidence of all with whom he came in contact. We will try to get some facts in regard to his history for next week's paper.

—A slight raise in the creek yesterday enabled some of our lumbermen to gather up and drive out their scattering logs which were stuck along the creek. Quite a number of rafts are lodged between here and Nebraska, which will have to be drawn out if the water does not raise before we have a "freeze-up."

—From neighboring newspapers we learn that bogus silver is being circulated freely in the different sections, and that some of it is so well executed that a close inspection is necessary to detect it. In this community we have heard of none of this kind of currency circulating, but we would advise all to be on the lookout for it.

—Mr. Kelly purchased a flock of sheep numbering about a hundred, in Ohio recently, and they were driven through town to his farm last week. They were nice-looking sheep, and we believe they are blooded stock. Wm. Reck is building a pen for them on the farm. The dimensions of the pen will be 24x80. Mr. Kelly's farm is well adapted for sheep raising, and we believe the investment will be a profitable one.

—Now that the election is over, with its excitements and its strifes; now that the war of words which greeted our ears from early morn till late at night, for many weary months, has been silenced in the verdict of the ballot-box; now that the financial policy of the country is decided for at least two years; now that resumption has no impediment in its way, we must give our attention more to business and less to politics. With the financial question at rest, we have nothing to do but to settle down to work, and with steady work will come confidence, and with confidence renewed prosperity,—real prosperity, not a renewal of the inflated, speculative dangerous era which resulted in panic and disaster,—but pure, solid, lasting prosperity, which will make our land the best, the happiest, the most perfect nation on the globe. It is not a step from panic to confidence, but a journey, which we must perform with patience and pluck. This is a work not of words, not of politics, not of false statistics, not of senseless harangues, but of muscle and brain, and the sooner and the closer the people apply themselves to the honest work nearest them, the sooner will the financial resurrection of our country occur.

—Two weeks ago, noticing the death of Mr. Elmer Lacy from the effects of injuries received at the time the boilers of Red Hot mill blew up, we stated that we had been informed that the cause of the explosion was owing to the pump being out of repair, and that Mr. Lacy had been informed of the fact, but had neglected it until too late. Just too late for last week's issue, Mr. Geo. Lacy, of Galena Mills, a nephew of the deceased, called on us, and told us that we had been misinformed in several particulars. He stated that the pump was in perfect working order, and that Murphy, the fireman had admitted to him the day he was in, that the pump worked well. He also stated that Murphy was in the habit of hanging weights on the safety valve, and on one occasion had cut the pump belt, for an excuse to stop the mill to get up steam. That Murphy was incompetent and reckless, and that the hands in the mill were afraid of an explosion all the while Murphy was firing. In reply to a question why Mr. Lacy kept an incompetent hand in such a responsible position, he said that his uncle was not a practical steam mill man; that he had always run water mills, and did not know the risk he was taking. Moreover he averred that several if not all the men at the mill would tell substantially the same story.

—In a diatribe contained in the last number of the Forest National, in regard to "some parties not a thousand miles off" having prophesied the early demise of that paper, the following crushing sentence occurs—the italics are our own: "If there is one single person who believes this paper is going to die, the quicker he gets that notion out of his head the better, and he had better go to school and learn something, for there is more vacant room in his skull than there is brains."

So? "Than there is brains?" If the Forest National wants to abuse anybody "not a thousand miles off," then "one single person," or two married persons, or four double persons, have a right to insist that it should be done in a grammatical manner, else they might with propriety invite the editor of that paper to "go to school and learn something." Individually, we are glad that we have this assurance that the paper is "going to live. We don't want it to die, for purely personal reasons.

—Last week we published an anecdote of Uncle Billy Grove finding a fawn, and afterward setting it at liberty. John Hulings gives us the sequel of the story. It appears that before the fawn was liberated one of the party marked its ears with a knife. Four years afterward, Rob't Guiton, who was present at its capture and liberation, shot a deer not very far from the same ground, and on going up to it found by marks on its ears that it was the identical animal liberated by Uncle Billy four years before.

—Report of Jamieson School for month ending Nov. 12th, 1878: No. of scholars enrolled 11. Names of those who have not missed a day: Willie, Kate, Mary and Maggie Mack, Kate Jamieson, Mary Hughes, Emma and Gussie Johnson.

KATE E. COBB, Teacher.

*A Choice Volume.

We are glad to welcome another book from the able, graceful and fascinating pen of this prince of Bible literature. To all who have perused the poetic, glowing pages of "Night Scenes in the Bible," the mere announcement of a new work will be hailed with pleasure. Mingling with the wild scene of Gideon's Night Attack, and the sad vision granted to Nehemiah of the desolation of Jerusalem is a beautiful description of the midnight sun off the coast of Norway, within twelve hundred miles of the North Pole. The Night of Betrayal wakens the deepest emotions of loving hearts, and we shudder at the Darkness of Noonday, and weep at the grave in the dark shadows of night, feeling with intense vividness the events his marvelous skill has depicted. The book is precious to the believer and its literary excellence, rare word painting, and poetic imagery make it a very delightful work for universal perusal.

—FROM DARK TO DAWN, by Rev. Daniel March, D. D. Published by J. C. McCurdy & Co., Philadelphia, Pa.; Cincinnati, O.; Chicago, Ill. and St. Louis, Mo. Agents wanted. See advertisement.

—It is morally wrong to bet—unless you have a sure thing—so Josh Billings says. But if anybody has sinned so far as to lose a bet on the late elections, he should pay it, and learn to bet on the winning side hereafter. We see several new hats, which, being worn so soon after the election, look as if the other fellow had sinned, to the amount of $3 to $3.50. If anybody else has sinned in this direction, and not paid the penalty, they should at once borrow the money and settle up.

—On account of the late rains the roads in the country are muddy and cut up badly, which we presume will put up the price of coal a cent or two on the bushel. We believe, as a general thing, that there has been more and better work done on the roads throughout the county this year than ever before in one season. Heavy hauling and wet weather, however, will soon make bad the best of roads.

Dobbins' Electric Soap.

Having obtained the agency of this celebrated soap for Tionesta and vicinity we append the opinion of some of our best people as to its merits: "I have tried Dobbins' Electric Soap, made by I. L. Cragin & Co., Phila, Pa., and find that it is all the manufacturers claim it to be. It is the women's friend, because it saves one-half the labor. Mrs. J. L. CRAIG."

"Dobbins' Electric Soap is the best I have ever used. I can heartily recommend it. It is a charm in the wash-tub. Mrs. D. S. KNOX."

"I take pleasure in recommending Dobbins' Electric Soap. It is a superior article, in fact the King of Soaps. Mrs. W. R. RECK."

We desire all our friends and customers to give this soap one trial, so they may know just how good the best soap in the U. S. is.

Oil City Daily Derrick, For 1878. Better Than Ever!

More and Fresher News, and More Readable Matter than any other Daily Paper in North-Western Pennsylvania!

THE OIL CITY DAILY DERRICK HAS BEEN ENLARGED TO 32 COLUMNS.

And will begin the new year with OVER 6,000 DAILY CIRCULATION.

Larger than ever attained by any daily newspaper in Pa. outside of the large cities. It has gained this by giving all the freshest news, and sparing no expense in obtaining it. It has correspondents in every portion of the Oil Region, besides several reporters who are constantly traveling.

The proprietors, editors and reporters of this paper, are all young and energetic men, whose aim is to make the Derrick the leading newspaper of Western Pennsylvania.

The DERRICK will be better than ever for 1877. It will have special reporters in Washington and Harrisburg, who will send daily specials of all important events. Its readers will be kept posted on all political news, as reported by an independent standpoint, while a reporterial force will keep them informed on local matters. It will also, as it now, take the lead in discussing questions of importance to oilmen, and work fully for the interest of the Oil Region.

It will maintain its position as authority on oil statistics, and its market quotations will always be found reliable.

The DAILY DERRICK being published at Oil City, the Metropolis of the Oil Region, and the largest Petroleum Market in the world, has better advantages for obtaining oil news than any other daily. Market quotations have gained precedence over all others for accuracy, reliability and fullness.

THE DERRICK IS THE BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM IN THE STATE.

It circulates among a rich and flourishing people.

If you want spicy reading, fresh information concerning the Oil Region, and a red-hot paper, subscribe for the OIL CITY DAILY DERRICK. Terms: One year; six months $5; $1 a month in advance.
