LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. Elliot will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, morning and evening. M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.

—Rev. Elliot will deliver a Thanksgiving sermon at the Presbyterian church, to-morrow (Thursday) evening, at 7 o'clock. This is done in accordance with the request to that effect contained in the proclamations of President Hayes and Governor Hartshorn. All are invited to be present.

—From a private letter we learn that an oil well is being put down at Brookston. The letter gave no particulars.

—It is estimated that the lives of 300,000 turkeys will be sacrificed to-morrow in this State alone, to appease the Thanksgiving appetite of the people.

—If a "tracking snow" does not soon make its appearance, we are afraid some of the hunters will leave the woods. It is slow still hunting this weather.

—Some of our sportsmen report having seen a few quail in the neighborhood recently. This will be good news to the fraternity, as everybody had supposed that this game little bird had been exterminated in this section.

—The M. E. Church, ever since it was erected, has had a debt hanging over it. Rev. Stone is trying to raise this debt by subscription, and this morning he informs us that he lacks but little of the amount needed.

—Mr. Woods has written to his agent here, directing that his oil well machinery and fixtures be roofed over and properly protected from the weather. It is probable that he will operate further in this section in spring.

—The Marquis of Lorne, the new Governor-General of Canada, and his lady, the Princess Louise, have arrived on American soil, and are welcomed with enthusiasm by the Canadians. The pair come highly recommended, and we have no doubt the new administration will be a success.

—The Commissioners have bought a safe for use in their office, and from what we can hear we are inclined to believe that they have struck a very fair bargain. It is a large safe, and one of the same size for which an agent asked them $600. They paid $250 for this safe in Oil City.

—Rev. Stone announced last Sunday evening that a Quarterly Meeting would be held at Bean Farm, commencing on Friday evening next, and continuing over Sunday. On Saturday, at 2 o'clock p. m., a conference meeting will be held. A general invitation was extended to the brethren to attend.

—H. A. Adams has arrived in town and is again manipulating the saw at the stove mill. In conversation with him the other day, we inquired as to his loss by fire at Bradford. He informed us that if the insurance money was all paid, he would not be a loser to any great extent. And he anticipated no trouble about getting the insurance.

—Our river from Olean to Pittsburgh is plentifully supplied with boats devoted to taking the pictures of the dear people, either in the shape of tintypes or photographs, from a small gun to life size. As a general thing we believe their work will not compare favorably with the work of the best artists in the large cities.

—The old hickory tree at the hay scales in front of Derickson & Co.'s store, was cut down last week, and in the heart of the tree was found a ten-penny nail. Robert McBride, an old pioneer in this section, says that about thirty years ago a guide-board was nailed to this tree, and he has no doubt but this was one of the identical nails used on that occasion.

—From the Sun, published at Greeley, Colorado, we take the following item. The Mr. Hanna referred to is Charley, formerly of West Hickory:

"Messrs. Gillette, Hanna, Ramsay and Sterling got back Saturday from their hunting trip to the Poudre. They found the season too early for deer on the Poudre, and then went over on the Lone Pine. One band was seen, of which Hanna got a buck and doe. The former weighed 250 pounds, and was killed by a running shot at 400 yards. Our piece of venison was very good."

—Still the National is agitated. In its last issue it slings at us a half-column of stuff which it designates as "pap." The name is very appropriate, not only to the half-column referred to, but to everything else contained in its reading columns. It sneers at our management of the small-pox epidemic last summer, and says the "citizens" propose to donate us a leather medal. The "Doctor" knows that at the commencement of the epidemic, the borough council, by an ordinance approved by the burgess, placed the management of that matter into the hands of a Sanitary Committee and Health Officer, and we must consequently think that he and the "citizens" are throwing mud at others over our shoulders. The "citizens" referred to are two in number, and both are on the staff of the National. Their ear marks (very long ones) are recognized, and we suppose, of course, that they will contribute their heads for material of which to construct the medal. When they and the editor of the National reflect on the gentlemen who managed the small-pox business last summer, they are trying to become those whose shoe latches they are not worthy to unlatch. As to the skunk-skin diploma, we decline the honor. We knew we had the animal partly skinned, but didn't expect he would donate his hide to us after we had finished the job. It emits a bad odor at the distance we have held it,—at close quarters it would be unbearable. We must confess, however, that we were not prepared to witness the base ingratitude displayed by the "Doctor," in affecting to forget his medical Alma Mater (or pay-ter), known as "the University of Philadelphia," or better known as "Payne's Medical School." Don't affect ignorance, "Doctor," because you don't have to,—you have the genuine article.

—The following in regard to a citizen of this county we take from the Laborer's Voice, published at Martinsburg, Butler County: "Mr. M. L. Range, of Stewart's Run, Forest County, and who for some time previous to July last was engaged in the production of oil here, is at present visiting one of his many friends here—a lady. Mr. Range, by his honesty and genial good ways, has won for himself a host of friends. Having no business connections here at present, many are the surmises as to what brings him to our town. We have it from good authority, that he intends to take a very estimable lady of our town to be his wife. They will be united in the holy bonds of matrimony this evening, after which they will start for his parents. We are sorry, indeed, to have him go from among us, but such is life. You have the best wishes of many friends. May your shadow never grow less."

—The date of the paper containing the above is the 8th inst. We were not able to learn the name of the lady.

—We have had some hard rains during the past week, which have raised the creek and river to a high rafting stage. Some lumber has come out of the creek, and part of two Alleghenies have gone down the river. It also appears that some of the old culverts in the south end of town are giving out, and this is a very bad time of year to repair them. It appears that nature is conspiring to make the road taxes as high as possible this year, but it is the boro authorities that get the blame.

—See the advertisement of M. Wilk, Tidioute, Pa., in this paper. He offers great inducements to purchasers. He is silling out for the purpose of leaving the country, and parties wanting anything in his line can get a good bargain.

—New Crop N. O. Molasses, at Robinson & Bonner's. Try it. 30-3

—The shooting match in town last Saturday was a success, notwithstanding the fact that the day was disagreeable, damp and gloomy. No one marksman had a monopoly of good shots or turkeys; the game was pretty evenly divided. Some of the shootists, of course, didn't succeed in getting any fowls, but then they didn't shoot close enough. We are under obligations to the proprietors of the match, Messrs. Wm. Smearbaugh and Jas. Hulings, for a fine turkey, which they saved for us. Boys, we'll think of you when we are devouring that fowl, and hope that you may live to enjoy many Thanksgivings and always have a turkey for dinner.

—We are constantly in receipt of new papers desiring an exchange, but as we have already a large exchange list, we cannot at present accommodate them. Last week we received overtures from John W. Forney, together with a copy of his new paper; also a paper published in the interest of agents; a literary paper from Canada; a scientific journal, and a religious paper from New York. This week several more. We hope to be able to accommodate you all, gentlemen, soon.

—Lost Cow.—I have lost a Large White cow, flecked with black; black nose, ears and tips of horns; front hoofs both black; no brush on the tail; horns bared on the under side. When lost, about Oct. 1st, she had a large brass bell and new bell-strap on. A liberal reward will be paid for her return, or for information of her whereabouts. WM. STRAUCHON, Tylersburg, Clarion Co., Pa.

—If you want fine holiday presents go to M. Wilk, Jeweler, Tidioute, who is closing out at and below cost. GOOD READING CHEAP.—We direct special attention to the advertisement of the American Agriculturist in this paper. With the reduction in price, the many engravings, the vast amount of useful information, this is certainly one of the best and cheapest papers in the country, and should be in every family.

—M. Wilk, Jeweler, of Tidioute, offers his entire stock at lower prices than the same goods have ever been purchased, here or elsewhere. Give him a call. COMING.

L. Simon, the great Clothier of Tidioute, has taken the store room of the Accomb Building, and will be on this week, or the first of next, with a complete stock of Men's and Boys' Clothing, Hats and Caps, Trunks, Valises, &c., &c., which he will sell at lower prices than ever before offered in this place. Don't purchase until you look over his stock.

—I take pleasure in certifying that the Sweet Worm Powder has worked wonders in my family. My girl, four years old, was taken with convulsions, rolling up the eyes, and straightening out of the limbs, and seemed to be almost lifeless, when I borrowed some of the Sweet Worm Powder, made by E. K. Thompson, Titusville, Pa., giving her two doses, when she was relieved at once. I also gave some to my other children with the same effect.

Having obtained the agency of this celebrated soap for Tionesta and vicinity we append the opinion of some of our best people as to its merits: "I have tried Dobbins' Electric Soap, made by I. L. "Dobbins' Electric Soap is the best I have ever used. I can heartily recommend it. It is a charm in the wash-tub. Mrs. D. S. KNOX. "I take pleasure in recommending Dobbins' Electric Soap.
