

Our Washington Letter.

ial to the REPUBLICAN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Jan. 11, '79.

The news from Maine, even through the Greenback sources, does not improve the aspect of the new party and Democratic coalition there.

The Bangor Whig and Courier, in an able review of the intrigues by which Garcelon was elected Governor with a hybrid council and a speckled distribution of other offices, doubtless exposes the true inwardness of the so-called new party.

The danger of the early return of the yellow fever next year, and the consequent wide-spread devastation, affecting North as well as South, causes great anxiety relative to some measures not only to repress it as a local disease, but a demand for more effective means to prevent its importation in vessels from abroad.

The letter of Senator Thurman to the Jackson meeting at Columbus is the laughing stock of the hour, taken in connection with the Democratic complications in Ohio.

The indications are that the inauguration of Gen. Hoyt, which will take place on the 21st of this month at Harrisburg, will exceed any similar event in the point of brilliancy and the numbers in attendance.

The programme for the inaugural ceremonies has been announced as follows: On Monday night, January 20, a full dress reception and hop, tendered to Gen. Hoyt by the Young Men's Republican Club of Harrisburg, will take place in the Opera House.

On Tuesday morning at nine o'clock the military and civic organizations will form on Market street ready for parade, under direction of the Chief Marshal, whose headquarters will be at the Lechiel Hotel.

The Senatorial election in Kansas gathers interest as it approaches. The publicity given some of Mr. Ingalls' letters have hurt his chances as judged from a Washington stand-point. In one of the letters he demands of a Kansas postmaster the payment of a certain sum monthly, and in another a "divvy" from a U. S. Marshal, who, in default of payment, lost his official head, a fate he threatens the postmaster with.

A SAD AFFAIR.

From the Brookville Republican.

On Sunday last, the 5th inst., our people were startled with the sad intelligence that W. F. Brady, junior editor of the Graphic, of this place, had been found dead in his bed. He had been living with his partner, Mr. W. G. Clark, on Mill street, and for many years past has been in the habit of indulging in too much strong drink.

Mr. Brady, like many another young man, was possessed of many good qualities, and we might say, almost without a single fault, save his uncontrollable appetite for strong drink. He came to Brookville from Clarion County several years since and served an apprenticeship of three years in this office.

THE INAUGURATION.

The indications are that the inauguration of Gen. Hoyt, which will take place on the 21st of this month at Harrisburg, will exceed any similar event in the point of brilliancy and the numbers in attendance.

The programme for the inaugural ceremonies has been announced as follows: On Monday night, January 20, a full dress reception and hop, tendered to Gen. Hoyt by the Young Men's Republican Club of Harrisburg, will take place in the Opera House.

On Tuesday morning at nine o'clock the military and civic organizations will form on Market street ready for parade, under direction of the Chief Marshal, whose headquarters will be at the Lechiel Hotel.

Senate and House of Representatives will vote for United States Senator in their respective halls.

In the evening a grand display of fireworks will take place in the Capitol park, after which Gov. Hoyt will hold a public reception at the Executive Mansion.
