LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.

—Rev. A. O. Stone will preach in the M. E. Church next Sunday evening.

M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 8 o'clock p. m.

—The Auditors' Report is in shape for the printers, and will appear in the REPUBLICAN next week.

—Mr. M. Carpenter, who is stopping temporarily at Tylersburg, was in town yesterday, looking as well and cheerful as usual.

—Benj. W. May departed for Louisville, last week, where he proposes to embark in business of some kind. He has our best wishes for success.

—The Clarion Republican is authority for the statement that there were fourteen births in that town on the 13th inst.

—A dance was gotten up at Bovard's hall last night, but as none of the boys have happened around this morning we cannot report as to how it went off.

—G. W. Robinson made a visit to Reynoldsville last week, returning on Monday, making the entire distance, fifty miles, in one day, with that fat little horse of his.

—St. Valentine's Day occurs on the 14th of next month; and don't forget it. We anticipate that several "comic" valentines will be sent and received in Tionesta on that day.

—We acknowledge the receipt of an invitation to attend a masquerade at the Tiodoute skating rink, on Friday evening last. The proprietors, Messrs. Goodrich & Co., know exactly how to conduct a rink.

—During the latter part of last week we observed some parties skating on the ice at the other side of the river, and from the easy manner in which they glided along, we suppose there must have been good skating there at that time.

—In the Democratic Caucus for U. S. Senator, recently, Hon. George A. Jenks was quite warmly supported, having received 18 votes. He should have received the compliment of a nomination.

—Harlem Adams was in town over Sunday, on a visit to his parents. He is keeping books for a large firm in Bradford, whither he departed on Monday. He is much pleased with Bradford, and predicts a busy time in that section as soon as spring opens.

—We hear that the well of Messrs. Dale & Jamieson, near Bradford, which we noticed last week, is pumping steadily 42 barrels, and will probably settle down to a 30-barrel, and keep up to that figure as long as the territory lasts.

—Hon. R. J. Nicholson, of Jefferson county has presented a bill to reduce the number of representatives back to the old standard of thirty-three Senators and one hundred members, proposing amendments to the constitution in that particular. So says the Brookville Graphic.

—The notices for the spring elections are posted up, and already we hear of some parties who will try their luck at getting offices whose compensation consists in an unlimited amount of curses and fault-findings from those who could not do one-half as well in their places.

—In the list of jurors drawn for Jefferson county court, we notice the name of W. R. Coon, of Barnett. Is there a man of that name living in Barnett township, Jefferson county, or are the Jury Commissioners of that county obliged to draw on Forest to get together an honest jury?

—At six o'clock on Monday morning last, a fire broke out in Turkey City, burning twenty-five buildings before it was brought under control. The total loss is estimated at $33,000, partly insured. It is supposed that the fire originated from a defective flue.

—The youngest child of Mr. Thos. Snodgrass, of President, died on Friday last. The funeral, which occurred on Sunday, was largely attended, several parties from Tionesta being present. The afflicted-parents have the sympathy of a large circle of friends.

FIRE!

Derickson & Co.'s stove mill went up in smoke on Thursday morning last, destroying the machinery and burning quite a number of staves and several cords of bolts. The fire was observed by Mr. Adams about 1 o'clock a. m., and when discovered the whole mill was ablaze, so that it was impossible to get anything out of it.

The bell at the Lawrence House was rung, and quite a number of our citizens gathered and assisted in removing staves, bolts, &c. out of the way of the fire. But little could be accomplished however, and no attempt was made to put the fire out. Popular opinion leans toward the belief that the fire was the work of an incendiary, but we are loth to believe that we have anybody in our place who is degraded enough to do such a deed, the effect of which is to stop, for some time, at least, almost the only industry among us which was giving work and wages to quite a number of men, some of whom were depending solely on what they earned there to procure bread for their families.

If there is such a person among us, it is to be hoped that he will feel in his own person as much distress as he has caused. The amount of the loss we have not heard. The mill was partially insured. The building belonged to Wm. Lawrence, and was valued at $300, uninsured. We believe Messrs. D. & Co. intend to rebuild shortly.

—Two bills have been offered in the Legislature, proposing a tax on oil, and as a comparatively small delegation from the oil region is there, the matter has created no small amount of consternation among the oil men. The Derrick of Monday, however, quotes a section from the Constitution of the U. S., which forbids the taxing of exports and imports for State purposes without the consent of Congress. It is to be hoped that the provision quoted will suffice to kill the proposed tax. The oil interests have never been treated fairly by our State Legislature, but the proposed tax would be adding outrage to neglect. Certainly the Oil Regions had promises enough from the leaders of all parties last fall to see that they are not impoverished for the purpose of paying the debts of Allegheny county.

—The boiler of a locomotive on its trial trip on the one-legged railroad, at Bradford, exploded about 5 o'clock on Monday afternoon, killing John Addis, brakeman; John Vaughn, engineer; Geo. Gordon, conductor, and Michael Hollern. Charles Shepherd, ticket agent, Thomas Luby and Chas. Logan will probably die of injuries received. M. N. Allen, R. H. Sterrett and Oscar Shutt were injured slightly. The accident is attributed to low water in the boilers. The boilers were old ones put into a locomotive built for the road by Gibbs & Sterrett.

—Mr. Criswell, who for a year or two past has made the columns of the Derrick blossom as the red, red rose, with humorous paragraphs, and whose productions were quoted throughout the Union, has resigned his position on that paper, to accept a similar one on the Cincinnati Enquirer. His place is supplied by Mr. Taylor, late of the Call, who is an experienced and able manipulator of the pencil. The Derrick still continues to be the Organ of Oil, and is as readable, as newsy, and as reliable as ever.

—Jno. Wiles was hauling ties on the ice from the foot of Dustin Island to the depot, for Geo. Morgan, on Monday last, and while coming up with a load, the horses and sled broke through the ice in the back channel, abreast the middle of the island. One horse was pulled out without much trouble, but the other was in the water about an hour, and was badly chilled, beside having some skin knocked off its legs. The sled sunk in about eight feet of water, but was got out all right. We believe the horses are not seriously injured.

—The party at Tylersburg on Thursday evening last is said to have been a grand success. An upset or two occurred, as usual, but nobody was hurt. Everybody who attended speaks in glowing terms of their treatment and the enjoyableness of the whole affair.

—As we promised last week, we are now able to state positively that Gay Hoyt was safely inaugurated a week ago yesterday, and Don Cameron was duly elected U. S. Senator, with only a few votes cast against him in the Republican ranks.

Whig Hill Letter.

WHIG HILL, Jan. 24, 1879. Our Hill is still prospering and people are all well. Mr. Frank Gillespie is putting logs in at Newtown on this good snow, and we hear the jingle of the sleigh-bells occasionally, which makes us want to take a sleigh-ride ourselves.

Our young folks attended a spelling match at the German Hill school, on the 17th, which they pronounced a success, owing to the good management of R. Z. Gillespie and some of his pupils. They were well entertained.

We read in your paper that an effort is to be made to secure legislation to protect our wild game from utter destruction. If a petition to that effect is presented for signatures we will put our names down willingly.

Rev. Stone will preach in the school house to-morrow at 11 A. M. Quarterly meeting will commence on Saturday, February 8th, lasting over Sunday and a good meeting is anticipated.

George Klintiver has given up blacksmithing and has gone to cutting logs; he says he will accumulate a fortune if he has to obtain it by pulling the saw-handle. So much for pluck. "Where there's a will there's a way." Faithfully, Dick.

Thanks.

To those who assisted us in saving our property at the fire of Thursday morning last we extend our sincere thanks. J. H. DERICKSON & Co.

—H. W. Roberts, while carrying an armful of wood up his icy outside stairs, a few days ago, slipped, dropped his wood, and fell to the bottom, one of his ribs coming in contact with each particular step until he reached the bottom. He was painfully but not seriously injured. The wonder is that the rib which took all the bumps was not broken. He is up and around at present, but is feeling as if he had been having a wrestle with a threshing-machine.

—Mr. Wheeler voted for Don Cameron for U. S. Senator, and so far as we have been able to ascertain none of his Republican constituents are disposed to find any fault with his action. We notice with pleasure that he has been appointed on the Committee on Corporations, one of the most important and responsible committees in the House.

—The Court Proclamation, Trial List, Application for License and Notice to Grand Jurors, relieving them from attendance at Court, are published this week. Up to the present time no business requiring the action of a grand jury has been brought to the notice of the court, and hence the notice referred to.

—The ice in the river broke up last night, but gorged in the islands below and stopped. This morning, about 8 o'clock, the mass commenced moving again, and as we write the river is full of floating ice. The ice-breakers on the bridge piers stood the racket in fine shape, although some of the ice was about twenty inches thick.

—The news came to town yesterday that Mr. Wm. Hunter, one of the old pioneers of this place, had died at his residence in Waterford a few days since. We are without particulars, but will endeavor to get some facts of his history for our next issue.

—Senator John G. Hall of this district has our thanks for public documents. We had the good fortune to meet him recently, and find him a very pleasant and accomplished gentleman, and one who bids fair to make a good representative in the Senate.

—Maj. McLaughlin, the wrestler, had another bout with a fresh victim, in Chicago, a few days ago, and broke his antagonist's collar bone at the first fall. It is delightful sport, if it happens to be the other fellow who gets hurt.

—Oil is down below a dollar now. And the way some of our legislators propose to bring it up to a living price is to tax it 25 cts. per barrel above the selling price, and take a mortgage on the real estate in the Oil Region for the balance.

—Mr. C. A. Derickson, President of the First National Bank of Meadville, and father of J. H. Derickson, of this place, made us a call on Friday last. He was looking well, but feeling a little blue because the stove mill was not.

Notice.

Owing to our recent loss by fire we request those indebted to us to call and make immediate payment. 15-31 J. H. DERICKSON & Co.

"THE ORGAN OF OIL."

The Daily Derrick FOR 1879 WILL BE BETTER THAN EVER.

THE DERRICK has a large and competent staff of editors and reporters, and has special correspondents in every town in the Oil Regions. It is a faithful exponent of the great Petroleum interests, and by a liberal outlay of money and exercise of talent, has established a system of news-gathering not excelled by any paper in the State. Anything of interest to the oil trade, whether occurring in America or Europe, is faithfully recorded in its columns.

THE DERRICK IS THE BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM IN THE STATE.

It circulates among a rich and flourishing people. READ WHAT THE LEADING PAPERS SAY OF THE Oil City Daily Derrick: A bright and lively paper—(Buffalo Express). A daily of National repute—(Norristown Herald). An exceedingly enterprising daily—(Philadelphia Times). A bright and original daily—(Philadelphia Record). An excellent oil authority—(Rochester Democrat and Chronicle). A live paper and a success—(Chicago National Board of Trade). A bright and enterprising paper—(Pittsburgh Commercial Gazette). Reaches every place of note in the Union—(Cor. Philadelphia Bulletin). What the Derrick doesn't give about oil is scarcely worth knowing—(Pittsburgh Chronicle). The leading authority on oil matters, and an enterprising daily journal—(Worcester (Mass.) Press). Its able devotion to the oil interest of Pennsylvania and the general live nature of the paper are the secrets of its success—(Buffalo Courier).

Among the best examples of successful journalistic enterprises in the State. By making a speciality of oil news it has made itself the leading authority on every subject relating to that great industry—(Lancaster Intelligence).

The DAILY DERRICK has a circulation larger than all the other papers of the Oil Region combined. It receives the ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES from the DERRICK will be represented at the National Capitol during the winter of 1878-9 by one of the oldest and best informed journalists in Washington.
