LOCAL AND MISCELLANEOUS.
 —Rev. Ediot will occupy the pulpit of the Presbyterian Church next Sunday, morning and evening.
 M. E. Sunday School at 10 o'clock a. m., and Presbyterian Sunday School at 3 o'clock p. m.
 —We publish the Auditors' Report this week. It is an interesting document to those who are interested in the financial welfare of our county, and should be studied attentively by every tax-payer.
 —A sheet of ice some eight or ten acres in extent was left in the back channel after the break-up, and although a little rough the boys are skating on it a little. "Blessings brighten as they take their flight."
 —Marshal McMahon has resigned the Presidency of the Republic of France, and M. Grevy has been elected in his stead. It was thought that the people of Paris might get up a revolution to celebrate the event, but all has passed off quietly.
 —Sunday last was "groundhog day," but a shadow could not be seen on that day. So we may expect an early breaking up of winter. And if our expectations are not realized we can blame it on the groundhog.
 —The stove mill will be rebuilt forthwith, and already men are engaged cleaning up a place about a hundred yards north of the old site, on the Ford lot. Everybody will be glad to hear of this decision. The insurance on the old mill has been properly adjusted.
 —Mr. W. F. Jones, Foreman of Rescue Engine Co., of Tidioute, did the neat thing in sending us complimentary tickets to a Grand Masquerade ball to be given by said Co. at the Grandin Opera House, on Friday evening, 14th inst. It will undoubtedly be a grand affair.
 —On Wednesday night last the ice stopped, here, and backed up until it was feared that the flats would be flooded. The gorge broke, however, before any damage was done, leaving the ice piled up on the shore pretty nearly even with the banks.
 —David H. Lane has been confirmed for Recorder of Philadelphia, the place made vacant by the appointment of Mr. Quay as Secretary of State. At the first trial the Senate refused to confirm Mr. Lane's appointment, but evidently thought better of the matter.
 —On Friday evening, 21st inst. a grand ball will be given at the Lawrence House in this place, in commemoration of Washington's Birthday. McCray's celebrated string band, of Tidioute, will furnish the melody, and this is a guarantee that everything will be conducted in the best manner. A general invitation is extended to all who shake the light fantastic toe.
 —The Bradford Oil Exchange will be opened next Wednesday. It is said to be an immense structure, gotten up in a high style of architectural art. Several of the brokers of Oil City and the lower oil country are changing their base of operations to that place. The Post Office of Bradford does a business of $16,000 per quarter. It is going to be a hot place in the course of a month or two.
 —Rev Stone announced last Sunday evening that a quarterly meeting would be held at Whig Hill commencing on Saturday next. A sermon will be preached at 2 o'clock, p. m., followed by the quarterly conference, and a sermon in the evening. On Sunday morning at 10 o'clock a love feast will be held; at 11 preaching, followed by the communion. Regular service in the evening. The Presiding Elder has been heard from, and expresses his intention to be present during the meeting.
 —Hon. N. P. Wheeler has transmitted to us the House copy of two bills, in which our county is common with all other counties of the Commonwealth will be interested. One is an act to prohibit the running at large of cattle, horses, mules, sheep, goats, and hogs in the several counties of this Commonwealth; and the other to revise and consolidate the several road and bridge laws of this Commonwealth, and to lay out, make, build and repair the several roads and bridges thereof. The bills are too long for us to publish, but can be seen at this office by any one who is curious on the subject.
 —For home-made Yarns and Flannels go to Robinson & Bonner's.

Death of Laura Winans Mitchell.
 Rev. E. D. McCreey informs us by letter, on Monday, of the death of Mrs. Mitchell, daughter of the late Dr. Winans of this place, which occurred in Jamestown, Pa., on Sunday last. We are without particulars. Although she has been in rather poor health for a year or two past, her death was unexpected. Her many friends in this, the home of her girlhood, will be grieved to hear of her early demise.
Death of William Hunter.
 Last week we announced that the news had come to town that Mr. Wm. Hunter, one of the old pioneers of this section had died a few days previously. We have since learned that he died on Wednesday morning last aged 85 years and 1 month.
 William Hunter was born in Westmoreland Co., in 1794, and came to this place with his father Poland Hunter, in 1798, aged about 4 years. Himself and his sister, afterward Mrs. Dustin, were suspended in baskets on each side of a pack-horse. His father built a log house on the Island known as Hunter's Island. Until 1812, he in common with the rest of the family worked at raising grain and vegetables for the support of the family. In January of 1812, his brothers concluded that they would enlist for the war, and started off crossing the river in a canoe, leaving William at home, deeming him too young to go along with them. He, however had different ideas, and after they had gone he waded the river barefoot at Dustin Rifle, and caught up with his brothers at Titusville. Here old Col. Titus noticing his bare and bruised feet, made him a pair of moccasins, and he joined his brothers on their tramp to Erie, where all entered the service, and remained until the war closed. He received a couple of land warrants from the Government for his services. He made an application for a pension, and was in a fair way of getting it when he was taken sick. He and his brother David built the Hunter mill, opposite this place, the first grist mill on the river between Franklin and Warren. He was well-known as a pilot and waterman along the river, in fact, was one of the first pilots on the river. He was the father of sixteen children, five of whom are dead. Of the eleven who are living, ten were at the bedside of the old veteran when he died. The deceased was a member of the M. E. Church, and died in the faith, confident of his reward. The church in this place always had a warm place in his affections, he having given $150 toward the erection of the church, and $50 to the building of the stone wall in front of the lot. After the death of his wife, Sarah Range Hunter, he had a monument erected for her and himself, with simply the date of his death left vacant. He was the last of his family, all his brothers and sisters dying before him. Tionesta was his residence until 1865, when he sold out, and removed to Erie County, near Mill Village. Geo. S. Hunter, his son, informs us that he sold some of his father's lands for $1000 per acre. He left quite a property, which is to be disposed of in accordance with a will which he had drawn up some time previous to his death. His many old friends and acquaintances will regret to hear of his death. His history is part of the history of this section, and his memory will live while Tionesta has a name.
 —Mr. L. L. Culbertson, of the Titusville Herald died of typhoid fever on Sunday last, and his remains were interred in Oil City yesterday. He was aged only 22 years, but had gained an enviable reputation as an editor. He was a young man of admirable character, and his loss is sincerely mourned by a large circle of friends.
 —The photograph boat "City of Cory," which laid here until late in the fall, was at President when the ice went out, and was carried away with the gorge. It was caught and tied up two miles below Kittanning, in a rather damaged condition.
 —The Post Office at St. Petersburg was burglarized on Sunday night and money, merchandise and postage stamps to the amount $200 were taken. The thieves are yet at large.

—The Pleasantville Odd Fellows, to the number of thirty or more, paid Tionesta Lodge a visit on last Friday evening. They came in sleds, and were received with open arms by their Tionesta brethren. After the work of the Lodge was done (which was participated in by the Pleasantville crowd), speeches were made by Messrs. Barber, Hatch and Pickett, of the visiting Lodge, and Noble Grand, S. D. Irwin replied in the following lines, which were received with applause:
 Brothers of our mystic rite,
 We greet each one, we hail you all,
 Assembled in our Lodge to-night,
 "Thanks for your friendly call."
 Not sedate, sad, grim or demure,
 In robes of darkest hue,
 But in vestures bright and pure,
 With open hands we welcome you.
 And now may no consuming care,
 Enslave our minds while here we stay,
 But free untrammelled as the air,
 We'll pass the merry hours away.
 Here may Friendship oft appear,
 With Truth and Love companions bright,
 And joy and mirth be also near,
 And lend to evening's hours delight.
 Now, brothers of our mystic rite,
 We greet each one, we hail you all,
 Assembled in our hall this night,
 We thank you for your friendly call.
 After the lodge closed the party were escorted to the Central House, where a repast, consisting of oysters with all the et ceteras awaited them. The supper was enjoyed by all, and the Pleasantville brethren departed well pleased with their reception, extending a warm invitation to the Tionesta brothers to return the visit. They are a fine-looking set of men, and evidently good Odd Fellows.
Whig Hill Letter.
 WHIG HILL, Feb. 3, '79.
 ED. REPUBLICAN:—
 We have been having an interesting time at this place. Prof. S. C. Schnell gave us some valuable lectures on phrenology, which we believe were very beneficial to the most of us.
 Charles Grove has moved to his former residence, on one of C. F. Gillespie's farms, where he proposes staying for a year or so, to clear and improve some land for Mr. Gillespie. M. Grove, the water-drinker of Hickory, is driving team for Klinstiver.
 Five of Nathan Burdick's family are sick with diphtheria; but one of them is dangerous, and it is hoped that all will recover speedily.
 There is talk of building a church on the Hill next summer, but cannot say whether we will accomplish it or not.
 The roads are in good condition for hauling; the rains did not injure them in the least, so business is as good as formerly with our lumbermen.
 Faithfully,
 Hickory Buds.
 —Our village is still prospering, notwithstanding we have more than the usual amount of sickness. Mr. F. Witherell is recovering from an attack of typhoid fever. The rest of the sick are rapidly convalescing.
 —We notice through the columns of your valuable paper, that an effort is rife to secure legislation protecting our wild game; send on your petition to which we will affix our signatures cheerfully.
 —Our village blacksmith, Mr. Andy Emmett, has closed his shop, and removed to Collins' mill.
 —T. J. Bowman is still to be found at his old stand, where any person wishing anything in his line may call with profit.
 —Our young folks are spending their evenings listening to Prof. Schnell, of Clarion, and having their fortunes told, as phrenology doth tell it.
GOOD SENSE
 Teaches us to prove all things. An elegant preparation which has been gaining ground the last eight years in the confidence of the sick and afflicted, is E. K. Thompson's Berosma, or Backache, Liver and Kidney Cure. It has not failed to cure gravel, inflammation of the kidneys, and liver complaint, when taken as directed. Also his Dandelion and Mandrake Pills (sugar coated), cannot be excelled for headache and constipation. For sale by dealers in medicines. Send for circular. Titusville, Pa.

 —If you want a good article, buy Kunkel's Perfumes for the handkerchief. For sale at Bovard's.

—Kunkel's "Parfume de Paris," the pleasantest and most delightful perfume extant, for sale at Bovard's. Price 75 cts. per bottle. This is so cheap, scented trumpery, but is standard and lasting article. If.
Consumption Cured.
 An old physician, retired from practice, having had placed in his hands by an East India missionary the formula of a simple vegetable remedy, for the speedy and permanent cure for consumption, bronchitis, catarrh, asthma, and all throat and lung affections, also a positive and radical cure for nervous debility and all nervous complaints, after having tested its wonderful curative powers in thousands of cases, has felt it his duty to make it known to his suffering fellows. Actuated by this motive, and a desire to relieve human suffering, I will send, free of charge, to all who desire it, this recipe, with full directions for preparing and using, in German, French, or English. Sent by mail by addressing with stamp, naming this paper, W. W. Sherar, 149 Powers' Block, Rochester, N. Y. 14 cow-ly

"THE ORGAN OF OIL."
The Daily Derrick
 FOR 1879
 WILL BE BETTER THAN EVER.
 THE DERRICK has a large and competent staff of editors and reporters, and has special correspondents in every town in the Oil Regions. It is a faithful exponent of the great Petroleum interests, and by a liberal outlay of money and exercise of talent, has established a system of news-gathering not excelled by any paper in the State. Anything of interest to the oil trade, whether occurring in America or Europe, is faithfully recorded in its columns.
THE DERRICK IS THE BEST ADVERTISING MEDIUM IN THE STATE.
 It circulates among a rich and flourishing people.
READ WHAT THE LEADING PAPERS SAY OF The Oil City Daily Derrick:
 A bright and lively paper.—[Buffalo Express.]
 A daily of National repute.—[Norristown Herald.]
 An exceedingly enterprising daily.—[Philadelphia Times.]
 A bright and original daily.—[Philadelphia Record.]
 An excellent oil authority.—[Rochester Democrat and Chronicle.]
 A live paper and a success.—[Chicago National Board of Trade.]
 A bright and enterprising paper.—[Pittsburgh Commercial-Gazette.]
 Reaches every place of note in the Union.—[Cor. Philadelphia Bulletin.]
 What the DERRICK doesn't give about oil is scarcely worth knowing.—[Pittsburgh Chronicle.]
 The leading authority on oil matters, and an enterprising daily journal.—[Worcester (Mass.) Press.]
 Its able devotion to the oil interest of Pennsylvania and the general live nature of the paper are the secrets of its success.—[Buffalo Courier.]
 Among the best examples of successful journalistic enterprise in the State. By making a speciality of oil news it has made itself the leading authority on every subject relating to that great industry.—[Lancaster Intelligencer.]
 The DAILY DERRICK has a circulation larger than all the other papers of the Oil Region combined. It receives the ASSOCIATED PRESS DISPATCHES. The DERRICK will be for its columns in the National Capitol during the winter of 1878-9 by one of the oldest and best informed journalists in Washington.
