The forest Republican. WEDNESDAY MORNING, FEB. 19, 1879.

TO OUR PATRONS.

In assuming charge of the FOREST REPUBLICAN we recognize the fact that we have contracted a responsibility of no small magnitude. However, having been connected with the instition, mechanically, from boyhood we understand pretty well what is needed, and we expect this experience to be of use to us in the future; our acquatntance with most of the patrons of the paper will, we think, be a great help to us. We promise neither particular excellence nor great improvement in the management of the paper, yet shall do our utmost to sustain the good reputhe REPUBLICAN under Mr. Dunn's management, and will endeavor to personal grievances as did the late editor. The paper, in the future as in the past, will be conducted in the inconsequently in the best interests of the public. We hope to merit a conaccorded to the paper in the past. Having reduced the subscription price of the times demands it.

As the doctor is very rich he proposes to lighten the burdens of the tax payer generously and depth, and that $350.000 will substanto make poorer members help him do it. Verily such a manifest regard for the interests of the people ought to be encouraged.

Our Washington Letter.

Special to the REPUBLICAN.

WASHINGTON, D. C., Feb. 18, '79 Tilden's utter collapse under the cross-fire of Reed and Hiscock has for once stumped Democracy. The resources of the ablest exponent of Bourbonism are not equal to the task of whitewashing out the black stains with which its late Presidential candidate is covered as with a garment. While the town was absorbed in the tation which has always characterized developements before the Potter subcommittee which was reluctantly ordered on its mission after every presteer as clear of all petty quarrels and text had been exhausted for further postponing the examination of Tilden and his lieutenants, the assumed indifference and unusual reticence of repterests of the Republican party, and resentative Democrats challenged general remark because it was in such marked contrast with the interest they tinuance of the patronage so liberally had manifested when Brady, Chandler and other Republicans were being quizzed touching their knowledge of of the REPUBLICAN to one dollar and cipher telegrams, a few days prior, and fifty cents per year, we expect to their noisy exultation over what they double its circulation in a short time. gave out as a very damaging expose We do this, not because we think the of Republican rascality. Mr. Dunn, the retiring editor, has, by contemptible. His explanations give his manly and straightforward course, the lie direct to the shrewd management that has given him a reputation second to that of no man in the country as a master politican, saying nothing of the endowments that enabled him to fleece railroads, mining combusiness he may embark. With this favorable showing and the fact that a permanent channel sufficiently deep so there will be no detention will save hundreds of thousands of dollars annually to commerce, and give a certain outlet to the whole Mississippi valley -an achievement of inestimable value. Ead's requests that he be paid a portion of the money due him does not appear unreasonable, especially as in view of the extra expense imposed on him by the yellow fever outbreak.

If Democrats stand to their caucus' dictum that U. S. supervisors of elections shall be abolished an extra session must result for Republicans will resist to the bitter end.

LONE ROCK, RICHLAND CO., WIS.,) Feb., 14, 1879. ED. REPUBLICAN :- It is with pleas. are that I once more improve the space allotted to me by pening a few quibbs.for your paper. The winter so far, has been rather mild and pleasaut, save about two weeks during the last of December, when murcury dropped to 30° below zerro. We have not had much snow this season, and for some time the ground has been bare, and farmers have suggested the idea of sowing grain soon. The acreage of winter wheat sown here the past fall was very large and at present it is looking fine.

The great temperance crusade has at length reached us, and this great absorbing topic is causing considerable excitement, and petitions are being handed in from all parts of the state to our legislature, which is now in session, for the passage of a strict temperance law. It is thought that it will be submitted to a vote of the people at the coming spring election.

With honor we refer to our U. S. Senator elect, the Hon. Matt Carpenter, who will once more be heard in the Untied States Senate, and with John A. Logan from Ill., I think two abler men cannot be found. Let Southern traitors beware, for although partisan in principle, our Senators will ever be found advocating principles to the interest of the nacion.
